PROMENADE — University of California student sketch shows how pedestrian walkway, with sidewalk-type commercial development, might give access to Richardson Bay which is now denied along most of its shoreline.

Richardson Bay Visions Revealed

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Richardson Bay was seen under 10 sets of "outside eyes" last night when 10 University of California graduate students told how they would plan the long arm of water which touches Sausalito, Marin City, Tamalpais Valley, Mill Valley, Strawberry and the new City of Tiburon.

Rapp also suggested scooping out filled land near Miller Avenue and Camina Alto instead of adding more fill, a motel-boatel near the mouth of Tamalpais Valley, an amusemen area and houseboats.

The crest of Enchanted Knolls should be kept open to the public, said another student.

One student projected a golf course built in the close shore of the bay near Kappas yacht harbor. Most planned to include rapid transit. One suggested a promenade along the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way.

All students agreed the water's edge should be preserved, and that the bay should be planned for water-oriented communities.

About 75 persons attended the presentation held by the Mill Valley Planning Commission in the Outdoor Art Club, and documented with slides, charts and drawings plus talks by some students.

Projects, which took each student 200 hours, concerned the area the City of Mill Valley recently proposed for annexation. Royston said that annexation, which he favors, was "just missed," and that it is a topographical unit, belongs to Mill

WHY COMPUTERS ERRED ON VOTING

If the early "results" used by television networks in projecting Tuesday's election outcome while polls were still open turned out to be a little inaccurate, there's a reason.

There was an example in Marin County of how these results from sample precincts in sample counties were obtained. A check showed today that it did not mirror the county vote as a whole with much accuracy.

According to Betty Rogers of 103 Portofino Riviera, Sausalito, supervisor for the Harris survey in Marin, "Several people refused to answer one or more of the questions. No effort was made to persuade them to answer." Miss Harris so wrote County Clerk George H. Gnoss, in a letter explaining there was no "electioneering" involved in what she and her assistant were doing.

Even if all had answered—and truthfully—the Scout Hall precinct would not have provided an accurate picture of Marin voting. At that polling place, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller got 31 votes to Barry Goldwates's 16—a two-to-one edge. County-wide, the vote was 19,696 for Rockefeller and 6,592 for Goldwater—a three-to-one advantage. The same precinct gave Pierre Salinger 42 votes to 20 for Alan Cranston in the race for Democratic senate nomination, a two-to-one lead; but county-wide, Salinger outpolled Cranston 11,279 to 10,527 — a narrow margin slightly under 11-to-10.

Using this system with 42 pre-selected precincts throughout California, Harris provided data which was used in Columbia Broadcasting System in its television coverage on election night. With such data, CBS announced at 7:22 p.m.—38 minutes before the polls closed in San Francisco—that Goldwater had won with 53 per cent of the vote. (He won with 51 per cent.)

Boos, Cheers Punctuate Sausalito Tax Forum

Several cheers — and one lusty boo—resounded from an audience of 400 Sausalito citizens as three top Marin County officials strove last night to explain why some Southern Marin property assessments are being raised 70 to 100 per cent.

No unified action resulted from the three-hour session, presided over by Sausalito Citizens Council chairman Glenn T. Hall. Few if any Sausalitans went away any more satisfied with their lot.

"What's being overlooked here," County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel remarked late in the session, "is that I have been giving you people a tax break for the last few years—not because I wanted to . . ."

Boos interrupted him before he could add that the "break" came because of the county's policy of "cyclic" reappraisal, in which assessor's office manpower concentrates on one area at a time.

Broemmel, County Supervisor Peter H. Behr and County Administrator Alan Bruce repeatedly attempted, through varied analogies, to explain why Sausalito property valuations should nearly double if the county needs only 16 per cent more tax income for its next year's budget.

The assessor stressed that most of Marin is appraised at least 88 per cent of market value, but that until his crews re-evaluated Sausalito in recent

Hollis Proposes Three-Way Split For Tam High District

County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis today proposed a new unification vote for creation of three unified districts in the Tamalpais School District area, but saw little hope for holding it.

He apologized for the fact that the unification vote was not counted on election night, saying he accepted responsibility for the delay. He promised such a delay in the count could not happen again on a school election measure.

Hollis, who had been silent on his views on unification in the Tamalpais area, said today he has always favored a three-way split of the district.

A preliminary count, which turned out to be slightly inaccurate in some precincts, indicated that the unification passed in the Fairfax, Lagunitas, Larkspur, Mill Valley and Sausalito districts, but failed in Bolinas-Stinson, Kentfield, Nicasio, Reed and Ross districts.

The biggest margin in favor came in San Anselmo. But the opposing areas downed the measure by much greater margins, better than 2-to-1 in Reed and Ross.

Hollis said he doubted the proposal for a three-way division of the Tamalpais District for unification would be approved by the state board of education.

He said he opposed splitting the district into two parts because he doubted whether voters in Mill Valley and Sausalito would approve construction of a new high school soon on the Tiburon Peninsula.

Hollis said he felt any measure would have a better chance if voted on at the time of election of school trustees in April.

Sour Grapes, Maybe?

Mrs. Carl Hepp of Mill Valley reported to police yesterday that during the early hours of the morning someone trampled down the flowers at her home at 155 Elm Avenue in an attempt to remove a political sign, "Goldwater," from her property.

Partly Cloudy Skies, Drizzle Over Marin

Light mist filtered through partly cloudy skies this morning throughout Marin County.

Warm temperatures and high humidity were reported in several areas. Night and morning fog is forecast along the coast tonight and tomorrow and cloudy skies are expected to continue through Saturday.

How Votes Went On Tam Proposal

Unification—Yes 13,941; No 15,725.

Bonded Indebtedness — Yes 13,601; No 16,290.

San Quentin Man Turns Self Into Human Torch

Struggles To Thwart Rescuers

BATTLES RESCUERS

He struggled against two men who tried to snuff the flames with blankets, fleeing from them and fighting them off, according to Associate Warden Dale B. Frady.

Smith, who was returned to San Quentin Saturday from Alameda County after violating parole, evidently got the paint thinner from the prison paint shop.

At 10 a.m. today, soaked in thinner, he stuck a match at the entrance to the prison handicraft shop.

LEFT FIERY TRAIL

Officer E. E. Papke and H. E. Bailey, machine shop instructor, saw the fire and tried to snuff it with blankets. Frady said Smith fled from them, trailing flame. The two men succeeded in catching him, but the inmate struggled against their rescue efforts.

Frady could not recall a

Judge Refuses Bail Plea In Nevada Murder Case

A Corte Madera doctor and his woman companion yesterday were held to answer murder charges in Storey County District Court for the fatal shooting of Virginia City contractor Richard Ghilotti, 59.

Dr. Sherman Wirt, 58, and Helen Calani, 44, also of Corte Madera, were the last to be seen with Ghilotti on the night of his death May 23. The three left a bar to go to Ghilotti's home, all evidently on friendly terms. Ghilotti invited them to his home to see his antiques.

Ghilotti, a widower, was shot four times with a .38 caliber revolver belonging to Dr. Wirt.

After a preliminary hearing that continued until 8:30 p.m. yesterday, Virginia City Justice of the Peace Edward Coletti ordered Dr. Wirt and Mrs. Calani held without bail until the trial.

This was over the protest of defense attorneys. Dr. Wirt was represented by Reno attorney John Squire Drendel and his partner William Bradley. Also appearing for Dr. Wirt's defense was Harry Wainwright of Sausalito.

Mrs. Calani was represented by Reno attorney Lester Frye.

Sally Stanford Libel Suit: $100,000

Glenn T. Hall, presiding last night at a town meeting held by Sausalito Citizens Council in Sausalito Central School, had two more front row listeners in his audience than he may have wanted.

They were Mrs. Marsha Owen (also known as Sally Stanford) and a process server bearing notice to Hall that he was defendant in a $100,000 libel suit filed by Mrs. Owen yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

During a brief lull in the meeting — a property assessment protest gathering — the process server stepped onto the speaker's platform and handed Hall the notice.

Hall, council president, libeled Mrs. Owen in an April 10 council news report by insinuating that she, as a candidate for the April 14 city council election, was not a bonafide resident of Sausalito, the suit alleges.

Mrs. Owen, who was fourth highest vote-getter for the three council posts open, alleges this and other statements in an election leaflet distributed by the citizens council exposed her to hatred, contempt, ridicule and obloquy."

Railroad Tunnel Hearing Postponed For Four Days

A California Public Utilities Commission hearing into failure of Northwestern Pacific Railroad to reopen its Puerto Suello tunnel has been postponed from Monday to next Friday.

The hearing will be held at 10 a.m. in the planning commission room at the Marin County Civic Center. Commission Chairman William M. Bennett and examiner Thomas E. Daly will preside.

The PUC called the hearing on its own initiative to inquire into NWP's failure to reopen the tunnel and restore San Rafael main line rail service despite being ordered to do so by the Interstate Commerce Commission and Federal District Court.

The railroad has until June 16 to file an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court from the U.S. District Court's April order upholding the ICC ruling that the line must be reopened. No appeal has yet been filed. If one is filed between now and June 16, it could not be considered until the supreme court's October term.

Boris H. Lakusta, attorney for San Rafael, Marin County and several shippers in the successful fight before the ICC against NWP's attempt to permanently abandon the line, said today he will be present at the PUC hearing.

Swim Season Is Slightly Delayed

Don't plan on getting into the swin too soon this summer.

The San Rafael Recreation Department announced today that the pools at Terra Linda and San Rafael high schools will not be open this weekend, as hoped, because of repairs.

The troublesome Terra Linda High School pool is in for repair, and recreation swimming will not start there until 1 p.m. Wednesday.

The San Rafael High School pool will be closed until June 16 to permit boiler repair on the heating system.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Marlene, With Love

MOSCOW (AP)—Kisses, flowers and 40 minutes of encores closed Marlene Dietrich's first Russian tour. Hundreds stood outside the packed auditorium in Moscow for the final concert of the two-week tour by the German-born singer.

Judy Garland Mends

Typhoid May Spread

ABERDEEN, Scotland (UPI)—The alarming increase in Aberdeen's typhoid fever epidemic posed a serious threat today to the rest of the British Isles. Officials said the outbreak already has contributed to one death, that of an alderly woman who died shortly after the outbreak was reported 16 days ago.

Carr Takes S.F. Job

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — James Carr, under secretary of the interior, has accepted appointment as San Francisco utilities manager. Carr, 50, a native of Redding, will succeed Robert C. Kirkwood in the $23,000-a-year job. Kirkwood died May 5.

Indians Like Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Congress of American Indians yesterday endorsed the civil rights bill pending in the Senate. Robert Burnette, executive director of the congress, said the endorsement carried the backing of the leaders of 450,000 Indians in 96 tribes scattered through 23 states.

Beatles Mobbed

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (UPI)—Two photographers, one seriously injured, were hospitalized today when a mob scene greeted the arrival of the Beatles here. About 5,000 young Beatle fans screamed and jumped as the group arrived here.

Subway Violence

NEW YORK (UPI)—A subway rider trying to read his newspaper and ignore a Negro man lying on the car floor was stabbed early today when the man lurched to his feet and slashed out wildly with a knife. The knifing was the fifth incident of subway violence this week and occurred as 200 Transit Authority police went on emergency overtime patrol duty. The victim, a white taxicab driver, was reported in serious condition.

U.S.-France Parley

L.A. Taxes Smokes

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The city council yesterday tentatively approved a cigarette tax of two cents per pack that would add an estimated six million dollars per year in revenue.

Ethiopian Envoy Survives Bullets

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Ethiopian Ambassador Abate Agede, who was shot twice by his chauffeur yesterday, was reported out of danger today.

Agede

Agede, 40, underwent eight hours of surgery for wounds in the shoulder and abdomen.

Police held the chauffeur, Polish-born Vincent Krupsky, 61, on suspicion of attempted manslaughter.

But the case may raise complications because the shooting during an argument occurred inside the embassy, which technically is foreign territory.

Youth Accused Of Threat To LBJ

CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI) — Michael Allen Young, a "confused" 18-year-old grocery clerk was held in $20,000 bail last night on charges of sending a threatening note to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Young

Young, of Rio Grande, N.J., was arrested by Secret Service agents yesterday, just five days before the president was scheduled to visit nearby Swarthmore, Pa., for a college commencement address.

Secret Service special agent Donald C. Brett said they found two rifles, a pistol and a five-inch hunting knife in the youth's room at the time of his arrest. He said the boy admitted engaging in target practice with the guns.

Authorities charged that Young mailed an anonymous note to the president from Rio Grande last May 27.

Brett testified the boy admitted writing the note and the agent added, "I think he's a confused person."

South Korea Party Leader Quits

SEOUL, Korea (UP) — Chong-Pil Kim, powerful right-hand man to South Korean President Chung Hee Park, today resigned as chairman of the ruling Democratic Republican Party in an attempt to end the wave of anti-government demonstrations.

Kim

Kim, long considered the second most influential man in South Korea, had been the target of the student demonstrations which have swept the nation this week.

Hundreds of students demonstrated against the government outside Seoul today. Park ordered all universities and colleges to start their summer vacations immediately, rather than in mid-July as is normal.

Martial law was declared in the capital two days ago.

Suit Follows Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco has been sued for 1.7 million dollars by five injured survivors and the family of a man killed in the All Hallows Parish Hall fire last month. The suit, filed yesterday in Superior Court, charges "negligently and carelessly" in allowing more than 200 persons into the hall to watch a Samoan fire dance.

Assassination Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Warren Commission says it has not yet reached or even discussed "final conclusions" about the circumstances surrounding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. A spokesman said yesterday the panel is now considering "the content and form" of its report on the assassination. Sources have said there is some hesitation within the commission to rule out the possibility that the assassin may have been linked to other persons.

LBJ-Kennedy Huddle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy conferred with President Lyndon B. Johnson for an hour yesterday. The White House said there was no discussion of politics or talk of Kennedy resigning. A Justice Department source said they discussed the civil rights bill.

Ruby Taking Pills

DALLAS (AP) — Condemned slayer Jack Ruby has started taking tranquilizer pills recommended by psychiatrists for what they called his "psychotic depression," a doctor said yesterday.

Magazine Banned

MANILA (AP)—The Philippine Post Office has banned the current issue of Time magazine from the mails because it carries a reproduction of Goya's famous painting "The Naked Maja." A spokesman said that the painting is considered obscene under the postal law.

Former Colonel Found Hanged

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Col. Manley B. Gibson, who was found hanged yesterday, left a note saying he had spent all his money in a one-man crusade to convert America to the metric system.

The 68-year-old former Army officer also left a note for the Internal Revenue Service, saying, "This failure is all my fault. We have spent all my money and insurance loans to establish the metric system USA. My death should be in full payment."

IRS officials said they were puzzled by the note to them.

Flood Control Hearing Set On Gallinas Creek

The Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District has scheduled a special public hearing on flood control for the Gallinas Creek watershed at 8 p.m., June 24 at the Civic Center.

At the meeting a proposal that the district take over flood control activities for the area from the county will be discussed, along with a review of present county plans.

Attorney Gives Nod To Limited Crossing Study

The Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District may use its funds to study the feasibility of a second bay crossing, but with strict limitations, according to a legal opinion by the bridge district's attorney.

Jerome B. White, the attorney for the bridge district, points out that bridge funds may be used for engineering and/or economic feasibility studies of crossings "across the Golden Gate."

RESTRICTIONS

If the proposed crossing is from San Francisco to Marin and not technically across the Golden Gate, then use of district funds would be justified only on the following grounds: That the study is needed to determine the feasibility of providing enlargements or additions to the existing Golden Gate Bridge or a new span across the area commonly known as the Golden Gate.

Attorney White further opines that the bridge district cannot make loans or turn funds over to another agency to make such a study. "The district must make the study itself or through the State Department of Public Works, acting in a consulting capacity for, and under contract with, the district," he held.

TOLL USES

How about the use of bridge revenues for actual construction of a second toll highway crossing between San Francisco and Marin?

Yes, but only for a second toll crossing bridging the Golden Gate and constructed by the bridge district, says attorney White.

The bridge attorney gave this written opinion at the request of James Adam, general manager of the bridge district. Adam asked for the opinion because of recent suggestions that bridge funds be used for feasibility studies for a second bay crossing.

Filipino Girls Kiss Sukarno

MANILA (UPI) — Several Filipino girls who said they were night club hostesses unexpectedly joined the reception line for Indonesian President Sukarno today and each planted a kiss on the visitor's cheek.

Their presence apparently caught protocol officials and the reception committee unaware. After the girls bussed Sukarno, secretary Alejandro Roces, chairman of the national committee on visits, dodged newsmen's questions on their identity.

When newsmen approached the girls, who were dressed in sarongs and in native Filipino woman costumes, they said they were from "Bayside," a night club along the boulevard fronting Manila Bay.

British Rocket Short Of Mark

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — After four launch failures in two weeks, Britain's Blue Streak rocket was sent up for the first time today at the Woomera Range but fell 209 miles short of its 1,000-mile target.

The 90-ton rocket, which Britain abandoned as a strategic weapon in 1960, is being developed to supply the first stage of a rocket to send aloft satellites in 1967 or 1968 for the nine-nation European Space Research Organization.

Coast Guard Warns Bullets Will Whiz Over Bay June 28

A temporary danger zone will be established in San Pablo Bay for Coast Guard Reserve training June 28 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., involving the firing of .30 caliber light machine guns at land-based targets.

The training session, originally scheduled for June 14, was postponed until June 28, the Army Corps of Engineers announced yesterday.

The training area will be north of Pinole Shoal Channel between the mouth of the Petaluma River at the Marin-Sonoma County line and Sonoma Creek.

Red markers will indicate the danger zone and the area will be patrolled during the training. Boaters are requested to avoid the area during the exercises.

Similar training exercises are scheduled in the area during the same hours July 26 and Aug. 23, the Army Corps of Engineers reported.

SUSAN RUTH KALMAN

Ross Girl Still Missing, Kin Seek Return

She was last seen at 10 p.m. April 22 at home. When her mother, Diana Kalman, went to the girl's bedroom the next morning to awaken her for school, she was gone.

"She is a highly intelligent girl who has done a lot of reading and has a nice singing voice and is interested in drama and art. If she wanted a job, she would apply for employment in a bookstore," her mother said today.

Susan had become very depressed since her father had a stroke in February. She had lost interest in singing and became unable to tolerate discipline, Mrs. Kalman said.

Susan, who looks about 21 years old when dressed up, weighs approximately 145 pounds, is five feet, five inches tall in bare feet, and has dark brown eyes and neck-length hair.

Anyone having information about Susan's whereabouts has been asked to notify the Marin County Sheriff's Department.

Senator Warns On Aged Housing

State Sen. Samuel R. Geddes (D-Napa) last night warned members of the Committee for Housing of Marin's Elderly to beware of building programs which were for the greedy and not the needy.

He told the committee there were none of these programs yet in Marin County but in several other areas developers had taken advantage of older people's desire for housing.

John P. Boswell, president of Boswell-Alliance, a San Francisco construction company, recommended two plans for federally-assisted free enterprise housing programs for the elderly.

One is a program in which the federal government insures a loan made by a bank to a private contractor. Under the plan, according to Boswell, studio apartment rentals could be provided at a cost of $90 per month.

The second is a direct loan program of the government to a limited dividend corporation which would provide studio apartments for the elderly for about $70 per month. Under the program, since the corporation was limited by the government to making only two-thirds of one per cent profit, if more profit was realized, the rents would be decreased.

The third speaker was Niels Schultz Jr., co-owner of the site on which a 12-story, five-million-dollar retirement center is planned in Larkspur, who told the citizens committee about plans for the development.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at 8 p.m. June 11 at the county courthouse in San Rafael when low cost housing and mobile homes will be discussed.

Dixie School Head Voted New Contract

Supt. Dennie B. Willis of Dixie School District, last night was voted a new four-year contract by the district board, with a $1,000 a year salary increase to $17,000. Willis, who started with the district in 1954, is now completing a four-year contract.

The board voted to give Asst. Supt. Joseph Goff a new two-year contract, increasing his salary from $13,750 to $14,500 a year. The pay of curriculum consultant Penrod Moss was raised from $13,000 to $14,000.

The board also agreed to increase the budget for instructional equipment and materials by $3 a pupil for the next fiscal year. The time to be spent by library clerks in each school was increased sharply, by about 100 per cent in most cases.

The annual added pay for teaching vice principals was increased from $400 to $500. Teachers William Van Winkle at Lucas Valley, Daisy Hatten at Mary E. Silveira and Charles Warfield at Bernard Hoffman schools were reappointed vice principals.

Teachers Jack Neiger at Vallecito, John Grantz at Santa Margarita and Mogens Kristensen at Don Timoteo schools were appointed new vice principals.

Joseph Curatilo was reappointed music director. A new position, administrative assistant, was authorized, with a salary range of $7,200 to $9,600 a year.

San Rafael Doctor, Mother Arrested In Traffic Death

A San Rafael doctor and his mother were arrested by San Francisco police yesterday on charges arising from a traffic death there May 24.

Dr. George M. Burnell, 34, of 363 Devon Drive, was accused of making a false report and allowing an unlicensed person to drive.

His mother, Mrs. Bertha Meyer, 64, operator of a San Francisco rest home, was charged with misdemeanor manslaughter and driving without a license.

Mrs. Ng Young Gum Won, 70, of San Francisco was killed when a car occupied by Burnell and his mother jumped a curb and struck her.

Police said Burnell claimed he was driver of the car, but later said his mother was behind the wheel and he was teaching her to drive.

Sleepy Hollow Will Heat Pool

Heater in the pool at the Sleepy Hollow Home Owners Assn. clubhouse will be in operation June 13, it was announced last night at the board of directors meeting.

The pool will be open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday until June 13 when it will be open for association members every day, according to Roland L. Hauck Jr., president.

More than 30 new members have joined the group and approximately two-thirds of old members have renewed their membership. Renewals should be made before June 30, Hauck said.

Johnson To Speak

Inefficient Thief's Damage Outstrips Amount Of Loot

It was discovered at 9 a.m. when Dorothy Fricke, manager of the Junior Vogue Shop, found about $200 damage in the shop and $13.80 missing from the cash register.

Upstairs in the John Robert Powers School of Self Improvement for Women, the burglar pried open a cash box to make off with $79 of the day's receipts.

Smith entered San Quentin originally from Los Angeles County in 1956 after being convicted of narcotics possession. He returned after an earlier parole violation and was paroled again in July 1963.

Frady said Smith also was held in a state mental hospital for some time. However, there was no previous record of attempted suicide.

4th Fireworks Aides Named

Mrs. David E. Swanson has been named coordinator for the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission Fourth of July fireworks program.

Working on her committee are Mrs. Phillip Trau Jr., collection chairman; Mrs. Norman Eaton, publicity; Harold Kelly, licensed pyrotechnic operator; Albert E. Kogler, chairman of the joint commission, and Fred E. Banducci, past chairman.

The fireworks display is supported financially by Corte Madera and Larkspur and by business firms and organizations of Corte Madera, Larkspur and Greenbrae.

Search Fails To Find Span Leaper

Two Coast Guard boats searched for an hour yesterday near the Golden Gate Bridge before calling off the search for the body of Joseph J. Kakez, 50, of Livermore.

Kakez leaped off the west rail of the span at 10:17 a.m. He was positively identified from a driver's license photo by Jack McMillan, a bridge maintenance worker. McMillan saw him jump backward and hit the water.

Kakez's wife, Mildred, told the California Highway Patrol he had not been despondent, but was unhappy with a new job he started two months ago.

BOOS

months, that city's homes were appraised at an average of 66 per cent of market.

Presenting a series of large charts, Broemmel reviewed the state's power to order a blanket assessment increase in counties falling below the state norm. Such increases, he stressed, penalize owners of property already appraised near market value, while allowing the under-valued properties to escape part of the tax load.

County re-appraisal procedures, he explained, spread the load more equitably, but are rigidly controlled by state law.

Assessments cannot take into consideration the retired property owner's ability to pay; state law requires him to compute the roll on the property's fair market value, Broemmel said. If he did otherwise, he would be guilty of illegal "discrimination," he explained.

County Administrator Bruce reviewed what the last four years have done to the tax bill for a "typical" $30,000 home of 1964 valuation which has climbed from $20,000 in 1960, then went into figures on next year's budget.

The 1960 tax bill on such a Sausalito home was about $386.80, Bruce said, with the tax income split nine ways. Schools got 54 per cent of the taxes. In 1964, the tax bill is $638.60, with the schools' share jumping to 60 per cent, but the county's share declining 1½ per cent, to 24 per cent.

Increases in a property owner's tax bill next year, if the budget is adopted as is, will total 2.2 per cent if the assessment remains equal, Bruce said.

Turning to costs of services such as welfare, he commented:

"Admittedly, there is no relationship between what the customer needs and what he pays for . . . Next year's 36 per cent budget increase in welfare is very alarming" but state and federal funds will pay most of the increase.

Superisor Behr drew applause with his opening statement that "the attempt to justify cyclic re-assessment has failed, in my mind—especially since it brings re-assessment into my district every election year!"

Behr emphasized his belief in "the complete honesty" of Broemmel's attempts to do his job legally and fairly.

Much of Behr's discussion was aimed at suggesting a search for other solutions to increased property taxes.

He cited a current study aimed at finding ways of attracting new industry to broaden the Marin tax base. He said "you weren't there to help me" when het ried but failed to persuade his fellow supervisors to hire a retired general to "proselyte" new industry.

Attracting more vacation visitors to Marin would increase the area income without greatly adding to the tax load for services, he suggested.

He reiterated his demand for public participation in budget hearings before supervisors, school boards and city councils. "How many of you have ever gone to budget hearings?" he asked. "I have only one vote."

Behr also sounded a call for "an honest-to-God first class working taxpayers' association" and urged Marin's public accountants to take the lead in organizing one.

He extensively reviewed proposed state legislation to permit deferment of taxes on homes owned by elderly persons of fixed, low income, and his suggestion for a property transactions tax.

He flatly rejected an audience suggestion that the board "declare a moratorium" on Sausalito's appraisal increases until "we see hom much you raise the rest of the county." The board has no such power, and can only equalize individual assessments, he pointed out.

Suspect Jailed On Check Boost

James Lee Skaggs, 23, whose last address was in Point Reyes Station, was arrested by San Rafael police yesterday for allegedly altering a check, increasing the amount from $5 to $750.

Inspector Richard Camper said that Skaggs did yard work for Anne M. McCarthy of 210 Laurel Place, San Rafael, on April 15. She began writing a check to him for $5 for the work. She was distracted, however, and Skaggs allegedly got the check before she had completed filling in the amount.

He was held at county jail on a forgery charge today in lieu of $1,650 bail.

$314,984 Settlement On College Gym Is Reached

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney announced last night that a $314,984 insurance settlement had been reached for the College of Marin gymnasium which was destroyed by fire on Dec. 16, 1963.

Included in the settlement was $271,467 estimated replacement cost, $32,671 for the contents of the building which were destroyed, and $1,846 for personal property of students and employees in the gymnasium at the time of the fire.

Maloney told the College of Marin board of trustees that the insurance adjustors had treated the college very fairly and that the negotiations proceeded without major disagreements.

The board directed the administration to issue checks to students and faculty members who had filed claims as a result of the blaze.

"This is a fair and reasonable agreement which is within range of acceptable settlements," Maloney said.

Approval of the settlement ended negotiations which began in January when the board first agreed to prepare a contract for employment of a public insurance adjuster, John B. Lewellen of San Francisco, and two weeks later reversed its decision.

The reversal came after Leroy F. Wilkie of San Rafael, the college's insurance agent, said there was no need for hiring an adjuster because the board and the administration could determine the replacement cost of the building and discuss any differences in the estimate with the insurance companies.

BAY

Valley in heart and by its contiguous connections.

Coates explained the students began with field trips, making three and covering Strawberry, Alto, Lytton Square, Enchanted Knolls, Tiburon, Waldo and Sausalito.

In personal interviews, said Coates, they learned economic, legal and political viewpoints from Supervisor Peter H. Behr, learned that William L. Desmond, county sanitation director, is interested in substituting modern houseboats for present boats at Waldo, that "the Army Corps of Engineers tends to treat Richardson Bay as classified information.

Dr. Harold K. Graves, president of Golden Gate Baptist Seminary, told students he does not want to develop the seminary's shoreline or underwater lots but feels economics may force development.

Shirley Morgan, co-owner of Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito, said the main deterrent in shoreline development now is absence of a bulkhead line. Francis Newton of the Marin County Real Estate Board told students he favors a top quality convention center in the vicinity of Enchanted Knolls.

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce considers Mill Valley the entrance to the Redwood Empire and, as such, "in disgraceful condition." Sausalito chamber of commerce favors an anti-fill regulation and feels there is not nearly enough communication with adjoining cities regarding planning.

Slides were shown depicting the Kappas yacht harbor installation, which extends close to Strawberry Point and Tamalpais junction developments. Royston said commuters ride by every day but few ever seem to question the type of developments there.

"There's no vitality and no coordination of uses now," said Rapp. "There is no definite edge (to the bay). Traffic flow is quite hazardous. A driver gets an occasional peek at the water but not very good ones. There is no thought of pedestrian traffic, which should be considered. At present Mill Valley has substandard recreational development."

Der Hohannesian said "101 is a distinct barrier and should be transversed other than the little pedestrian way (at Alto). East Blithedale," he said, "should be a parkway." He recommended use of some cluster housing.

Realign Miller Avenue through the Irving Shapiro property, suggested Coates. Buildings on Enchanted Knolls should be permitted but only two stories, he urged.

Johnst said he would like to see a barrier built near Almonte to hold water from the four creeks for a fresh water basin such as Belvedere's lagoon.

In summary, Royston listed 15 points: (1) Preservation of the water's edge for public use, uarks and recreation activities; (2) Preservation and increase of water service on both sides of Highway 101; (3) Study of circulation patters for cycle, pedestrian ways and possibly for use of trollies, electrical vehicles, boat taxis; (4) Modeling the shoreline to reflect the natural terrain; (5) Preservation of patterns pleasant to look down on from hillsides; (6) A consistent planting pattern over all; (7) Consider the new "city" of Marincello (near Sausalito) which is "getting off the ground"; (8) Connections up Old Mill Creek to Mill Valley; (9) Explore cluster development with open space in between, prevent strip development; (10) Location of future rapid transit; (11) Provide visitors with high quality accommodations; (12) Explore new imaginative uses of the shoreline; (13) Preserve special areas in natural tideland conditions; (14) Recognize the space in connection with growth of Bay Area to come, and (15) Explore use of flood basins and multi-use of parking lots.

Royston also mentioned possible purchase by city or county of development rights and scenic easements, and purchase of land throughout Richardson Bay area. He suggested that Sausalito, Tamalpais and Homestead valleys, Mill Valley and the county work together.

He said Richardson Bay is "a very beautiful area giving a lot of satisfaction to a great many people" and could be developed into a much more beautiful area.

Robert C. Mountjoy, commission chairman, welcomed the audience, Leland Vaughan, professor of landscape architecture at the university, and John D. Erickson, Mill Valley planning consultant, spoke briefly.

Wife Screams; Attacker Flees

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The wife of Giants baseball player Harvey Kuenn was slugged by an intruder in her bedroom early today

The assailant fled when Dixie Ann Kuenn and her children, Robin Rene, 7, and Harvey Jr., 6, screamed for help.

Kuenn was out of town with the team, which opens a series in Philadelphia tonight.

Mrs. Kuenn, 29, told police she awoke shortly after midnight to find a slightly-built young man standing beside her bed. He grabbed her and she screamed.

The commotion awakened the children in the next room and they began to cry and the intruder fled.

Burglar Loots Gas Station Safe

San Rafael police today were investigating the reported burglary of $39.95 from the locked floor safe of the J and S Wilshire Service Station at 1320 Second Street, San Rafael.

Co-owner James Benjamin Johnson of Tiburon told police yesterday that the burglary occurred sometime between 10 p.m. Wednesday and 3:15 a.m. yesterday while both the station and the safe were locked.

A total of $107 was in the cash bag in the safe, but only $39.95 was taken, he said.

OBITUARIES

Harriett Diedrich Succumbs

Harriett Perry Diedrich of 1001 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia, a retired cashier, died in a local hospital yesterday after a brief illness. She was 76 years old.

A native of Davenport, Iowa, she resided there most of her life. Her husband, Claus O. Diedrich, a barber in Davenport, died nine years ago.

Mrs. Diedrich was a a member of the Order of Eastern Star in Davenport.

She had lived in Marin County a year and one-half, staying with her son, R. Norman Diedrich. In addition to him, she is survived by a brother, Vernon L. Perry of Davenport, and three grandchildren.

Funeral will be at the Runge Mortuary in Davenport on Monday. Burial will be in Memorial Park in Davenport. Local arrangements were made by Keaton's Mortuary.

Father Halts Girl In Try To Leap From Balcony

Officers were called at 11:10 a.m.

Her father, A. J. Bauer of Daly City, reportedly grabbed her, they wrestled, and Miss Bauer knocked over a table, breaking a glass dish.

With the dish she slashed both arms and hands, police reported, then cut a large gash on her father's neck.

Sausalitlo firemen gave first aid to Bauer and he said he would see his own physician. Miss Bauer was taken to Marin General Hospital for treatment and was to be committed to Napa State Hospital for 72 hours.

Last Monday, said police, she was reported to have taken an overdose of sleeping medication at her home.

Brewer-Driver Talks Continue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Spokesmen for the California Brewers Assn. and for the Teamsters Union met again today for discussions of a dispute that has closed most of California's major breweries.

In talks yesterday there was no agreement on contract terms.

The dispute, which has dried up the drought beer taps in many bars, is in its third week.

Gas Drained Out

Alvin Joseph Dolan of 1618 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, told police yesterday that someone had siphoned a tank of gas from his car while it was parked at his home during the past five days.

First Tiburon Need—Find City Manager

Hiring a city manager is considered a first priority item of business by all five of Tiburon's newly elected city council members, who will hold their first unofficial council meeting tonight.

All five believe police protection should be contracted temporarily from the county sheriff's office, but three think the new city should hire its own building inspector as soon as possible and four of the five are definitely for hiring a part-time planning consultant at once.

The City of Tiburon will not come into being until some time next week. First the county board of supervisors must certify election results and adopt a resolution recognizing the new city. This will be sent to Sacramento, where the secretary of state will officially record it.

In the meantime, the elected council members plan to meet at 8 p.m. today in the Del Mar School library to get the wheels turning for Marin's 11th city.

The five—Gordon W. Strawbridge, John S. Hoffmire Jr., Anne Ellinwood, Fred C. Hannahs and Leo Souza—were interviewed by an Independent-Journal reporter on their opinions regarding the initial scope of the new government's activities. It must operate for a year without property tax, incorporation coming too late for this year's tax rolls.

FIRST HIRING

All agreed that a city manager should be hired immediately, or as soon as possible. Hoffmire said he was already receiving names of potential city managers from the League of California Cities.

Miss Ellinwood pointed out the city manager would have little to manage for awhile, but felt he would be needed to serve as coordinator. "Good government demands separation of administrative and policy-making functions," she declared.

As to police protection, Strawbridge suggested a study should start at once as to the amount needed and a gradual transition from county to city services should follow. Others all felt a contract with the sheriff's office would suffice initially.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos has said the present level of protection by his force could be provided for $20,800 per year.

None of the five wishes to continue county planning service. Dissatisfaction with county planning for the area figured in the drive for incorporation.

Hannahs and Hoffmire said a highly qualified planning consultant should be hired immediately. Souza said one should be engaged "as soon as the money is there to do it." Strawbridge said a part-time consultant would be needed "rather soon."

While not committing herself on how soon a professional planner should be hired, Miss Ellinwood put as an item of first priority passage of ordinances making effective all parts of the county master plan. "Then begins the period of revising the master plan," she said.

All think a city planning commission should be appointed at once. Souza, Hannahs and Miss Ellinwood favor a seven-man commission; Strawbridge and Hoffmire advocate five members.

BUILDING INSPECTOR

As to building inspection, Strawbridge feels "there is no emergency" about such services and they could be contracted from the county. Miss Ellinwood agrees. Hoffmire and Souza think the city should hire its own inspector as soon as a qualified person can be found, but need not be in too great a hurry. Hannahs feels county contract will suffice although he is not averse to hiring a city inspector if a qualified person is available.

None of the five wishes to plunge the newborn city immediately into public works, preferring to contract with the county for street construction and maintenance in the first year of the City of Tiburon's existence.

STARTING INCOME

A projection of the new city's expectable first-year revenues by County Auditor Michael Mitchell gave a total of $112,800. The incorporation committee's finance committee — of which Hannahs and Souza were members — figured revenues would total $130,000.

Mitchell listed costs of contracting with the county for the various services as $14,209 for engineering, $17,672 for road maintenance, $16,983 for planning, and $6,455 for building inspection. In all except building inspection, costs would be considerably higher if the city set up its own departments, he figured.

The finance committee figured building inspection and engineering would about pay their own way through fees. Some $37,000 of state subventions from gasoline taxes, motor vehicle licenses, etc., would by law have to go to road building and maintenance. The new city, the committee figured, will have about $93,000 of unrestricted funds in its first fiscal year.

In its tentative first-year budget, the committee set up $28,800 for administration — an item for which it could not contract with the county. Included in that is the office of the city manager who the five council members agree should be the city's first employee.

Boys Sought For Torturing Parade Horse

The animal's heartbroken owner, Art Viargues, said he rode the horse, Chief, in President Dwight D. Eisenhower's inaugural parade in 1953.

Reports said the boys climbed over a five-foot-high fence yesterday, in the San Francisco slaughterhouse area known as Butchertown, and methodically maimed the 17-year-old gelding.

"I'll never have a horse like that one," grieved Viargeus, who said he must decide whether to put his proud mount out of his misery.

Police said the boys, who were spotted but whose deed was not witnessed, apparently lassoed the horse's head, pulled it down, and smashed him at eye level with a brick.

Cities Cooperate On Arrest Of Hit-Run Suspect

San Rafael and Novato police and witnesses cooperated Wednesday to bring about the arrest of a hit-run driving suspect within a half hour of the accident.

Ki Lim Wong of 22 Brookdale Avenue, San Rafael, reported at 6:07 p.m. that someone drove into the rear of his car at the Greyhound Bus Depot, Third Street and Tamalpais Avenue, San Rafael, then drove away.

Witnesses provided a license number and San Rafael police notified Novato police to watch for the car owner, Ralph Montague Jr., 42, of 1274 Leafwood Drive, Novato.

At 6:30 p.m. Novato Police Officer Richard Courier arrested Montague at his home. He was charged with drunken driving and hit-run property damage.

Prowler, Thief Visit Project

San Rafael police received two reports Wednesday centering on an apartment house construction project at 24 Valencia Street, one involving a burglary and the other a prowler.

Andrew A. Wallace of Vallejo, job foreman for James L. Warren Construction Co. of Concord, said material and tools valued at $200 have been stolen from the apartments under construction.

Louise M. Cooper of 22 Valencia Street report that a prowler in the area knocked at her door about 3 a.m. yesterday, and that between 3 and 4 a.m. last Friday she saw a prowler in the area.

A Thank You from Bill

TRADES WITH COMMUNISTS

East-West Trade Presents Pitfalls

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — American business is taking a new look at trade with the Communist nations. It also is assessing its manner of dealing with Communist threats to its markets in other lands. The Red bloc offers both opportunities and pitfalls to American business planners as well as to shapers of political policy.

Romania and the United States have just widened the door to trade between them — with the final dollar volume yet to become apparent.

The Soviet Union is reported seeking more North American wheat, chiefly in Canada where it hopes for better terms.

Western European nations are pushing sales to Eastern Europe, some of which Washington frowns upon; and also to Cuba, which Washington deplores. All this leads many American businessmen to want a slice of the pie.

But in exploring trade opportunities with the Communists, U.S. industrialists have two problems in particular: How they'll be paid, since the Red bloc is short on foreign exchange; and what products this country could take in barter, since the Soviet Union especially has little that the American market wants.

In the wider field of competition in world markets, American business has still other problems. The Soviets can, and sometimes do, dump commodities such as oil on carefully chosen markets at prices that the American profit system can't match.

And Communist propaganda in some developing countries where Americans have traditional markets can upset Yankee sales, and even lead to appropriation of American investments. How to counter this propaganda?

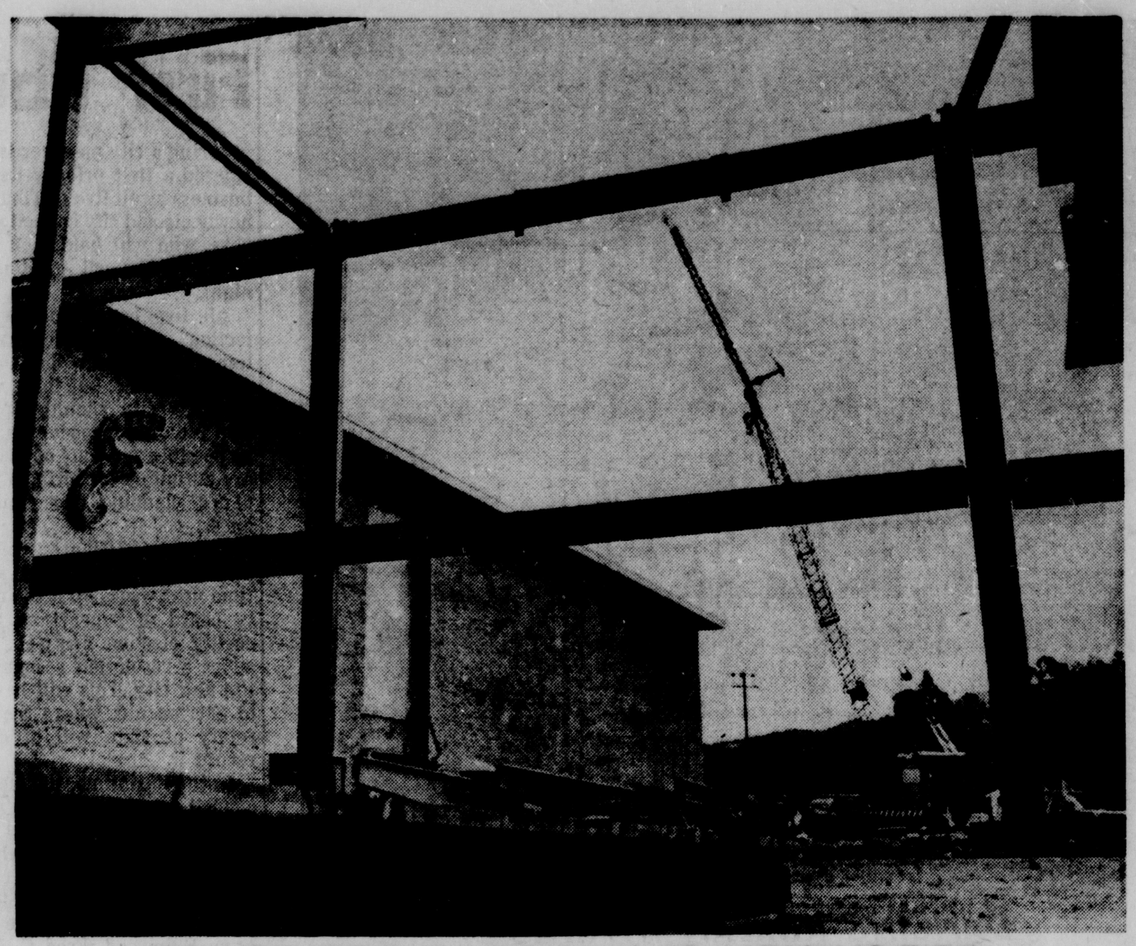
"We try to outsell communism, not out-yell it," says M. J. Rathbone, board chairman of Jersey Standard Oil with stakes in many lands.

"We believe our best contribution against communism is to do our job well, thereby helping to strengthen the economy of the host country and showing what free enterprise can do for free people.

Emporium Executive To Speak In Marin

Robert G. Wilhelm, general manager and vice president of the Emporium, will speak at the 10th annual meeting of the Marin County Development Assn. at Peacock Gap Country Club June 18.

A no-host reception will be held at 11:30 a.m., with lunch served at 12:15 p.m. After lunch, Wilhelm will speak on "Where Are the Big E and Marin Headed?"



SPACE FOR EMPORIUM'S NEIGHBORS

While the Emporium is scheduled to open its doors for business on the 26th of this month, arrival of its immediate neighbors to the west and south will be delayed until early next year. More than a dozen firms have signed store leases in Unit Two of the Northgate Regional Shopping Center. Buildings to house them are now under construction.

Corte Madera To Gain Auto Firm

Corte Madera will soon have its first automobile sales agency.

Campbell-Bishop Chevrolet will move from Mill Valley to new headquarters under construction at the Corte Madera Wye at 5880 Paradise Drive. An auto service building will have about 71,000 square feet, and a separate retail sales office will have 21,000 square feet.

Permits for the buildings were among 17 issued by the Corte Madera building department during May. The two Campbell - Bishop buildings have an estimated valuation of $228,080. Total permits for the month are valued at $301,331.

Cars Set Record

DETROIT — Dodge dealers last month set a new sales record for the eighth month in a row, Dodge general manager Byron J. Nichols has reported. Nichols said retail sales of Dodge cars in May totaled 43,704—13 per cent more than in the same month a year ago. That is the highest May in Dodge history.

Stock Market Closes Higher In A Rebound

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today in a rebound from yesterday's sharp selloff. Trading was moderate.

Early gains were sharp but these were trimmed in late profit taking.

Most sections of the list rose vigorously in the first few hours. The average still remained well ahead at the end.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.4 million shares compared with 4.88 million yesterday.

Key stocks gained from fractions to a point or more. Some of the more volatile or higher priced issues did much better.

IBM added 4. Xerox and Northwest Airlines rose more than 2 each. Avon Products averaged more than 3, Lukens Steel, Bristol-Myers and Polaroid about 2 each.

Airlines, which have been subjected to sereve profit taking, were up strongly.

Steels, motors, oils, chemicals, utilities, tobaccos, selected rails and electronics rebounded smartly. Rails made an irregular advance.

Texas Gulf Sulphur, up more than a point, again loomed as the most active stock. Sperry Rand was second in activity, rising more than a point.

Ahead about a point were such stocks as General Motors, Du Pont, Sears Rosebuck, Standard Oil of Indiana, Korvette, Litton Industries, CBS, Time Inc., Boeing and Air Reduction.

Prices advanced on the American Stock Exchange.

HOW DOES YOUR GARDEN GROW?—Mr. and Mrs. Gerrard T. Wendering, who will celebrate their golden wedding Monday, look over rose bushes in the garden of their Mill Valley home. Wendering has been in the real estate business since he retired as athletic director of Tamalpais High School in 1948.

Judge Steps Down In Murder Trial

Marin Superior Court Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. yesterday disqualified himself as judge in next Tuesday's murder trial of Robert Lee Jones and John Lee King, and scheduled it in extra sessions court before Municipal Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson.

The action came on a motion by Jones's attorney, Thomas P. Boyd, that Judge Sims should not preside because Jones felt the magistrate had a prejudice in the guilt or innocence of the defendant.

Judge Sims, however, said he was "swayed" by Boyd's closing argument of appeal implications because the motion has no exact precedent. Since there exists no comparable case in which legal appellate decision has been made where a judge has sat on preliminary matters of a case, Boyd said, there is possibility that everything during the trial would be in error and conceiveably be ruled as such by an appeal court.

Peter Allen Smith, public defender representing King, had joined Boyd's motion. Another motion by both defense attorneys for severance of armed robbery counts from the murder count in Tuesday's 10 a.m. jury trial is expected to be heard that day by Judge Wilson.

Judge Sims later pointed out that extra sessions court will be used because Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating will be on vacation and Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori has another trial scheduled.

The defendants are accused of the March 27 icepick and bludgeoning slaying of Donald G. Corbett Jr. in his Sausalito apartment.

400 Marin Youngsters To Vie In Event

More than 400 Marin County 4-H Club members will travel to the Marin-Sonoma District fairgrounds in Petaluma tomorrow for annual 4-H exhibit day.

Events will start at 8:30 a.m. with livestock judging beginning at 10:30 a.m. At the exhibit, one boy and one girl will be named "4-H'er of the Year."

Club members will exhibit home and farm items ranging from lemon meringue pies to beef cattle. About 100 dairy cows and 40 horses will be shown. Some 300 items of clothing and 200 food preparations and preservation exhibits are expected.

Highlight of the day will be the round robbin showmanship contest, with leading club members required to run other members' animals through their paces before judges. Last year's winner, Sara Lee McClelland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClelland, 495 Olive Street, Novato, will be trying to keep her title.

A contest in how to judge agriculture contests is also scheduled. In the afternoon will be a fashion show featuring gold medal winners of last month's 4-H dress review.

Realty Firm Files Papers In State Hearings

Kaehler-Farrar Inc. of San Rafael filed stipulations yesterday at a Real Estate Commission hearing in San Francisco on charges that the firm misrepresented sales prices to obtain larger loans.

W. J. Thomas, attorney with the San Francisco district office of the California Real Estate Division, said the nature of the stipulations would not be revealed until the commission reaches a decision on the charges.

As a result of yesterday's session, Hearing Officer Jerome Herst will submit his findings to the commission.

Kaehler-Farrar Inc. faces possible suspension or revocation of its real estate broker's license as a result of the charges filed in March by Real Estate Commissioner Milton G. Gordon.

Thomas said the only witness testifying at the hearing was John J. Farrar Jr., company vice president.

Perhaps She Needs Some Target Practice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A kick that missed its target brought a 21-year-old woman into Ohio State University Hospital, police said.

She was treated for a severe foot laceration, they reported, and explained that, in trying to kick her husband, her foot went wide of the mark and through a storm door.

Wenderings To Celebrate Anniversary

Luncheon at a Mill Valley restaurant, followed by a reception attended by some 60 friends and neighbors, will highlight the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard T. Wendering of 51 Catalpa Avenue, Mill Valley, Monday.

Hostesses for the celebration will be the couple's three daughters, Mrs. Robert H. Jones of Mill Valley, Helen Wendering of San Francisco and Mrs. Howard J. Lawler of Palo Alto.

Wendering retired as athletic director of Tamalpais High School in 1948, ending a 31-year career in which he coached baseball, football, basketball, tennis, track and swimming. His efforts were partially responsible for the building of the school's gymnasium and several other campus buildings.

He has been involved in real estate development since his retirement.

The Wenderings have four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

College Orders Work On Marine Study Labs

College of Marin's marine biology laboratory at Bolinas came closer to realization last night when the Marin Junior College District board awarded a $52,566 contract to North Bay Electric Works, Inc., of San Rafael for remodeling the two buildings at the site.

The project is expected to be completed this summer so classes may be held there in September. A course in marine biology will be taught there in summer school, but laboratory work will be done on the Kentfield campus.

The board deleted several items in the contract so the total amount of the remodeling work will be $47,518.

Dr. Stephen C. Epler, college president, said additional matching funds would be available under the National Defense Education Act for purchase of equipment for the laboratory. The board asked that the faculty review its requests and present a report at the next board meeting at 8 p.m., June 11, when use of the additional money would be considered.

The Marin Junior College District board also:

1. Appointed Harold C. Day of San Rafael to inspect the remodeling work in Bolinas and other projects on the Kentfield campus.
2. Employed James C. Dunn, director of the San Jose Theater Guild since 1961, as a drama instructor at $7,850 per year, effective Sept. 1.
3. Agreed to devote an entire board meeting to discussion of the tentative budget for 1964-65 before June 30 when the preliminary budget must be approved. The time of the meeting will be set next week.
4. Discussed a recommended master plan for technical education at the college which was presented by Frank T. Jacobs, chairman of the technical education program. The board agreed that such programs should be a continuation of high school curriculum. Continued discussion of the recommendations will be held next Thursday.
5. Decided not to engage Eric Fromm to present a lecture Oct. 17 and Stewart Alsop to speak March 17 at a cost of $700 and $600, respectively. Further study on scheduling speakers for the 1964-65 concert and lecture series was agreed upon in hope that interesting speakers could be engaged without great cost to the college.

Junior High Pays Honors To Boy, Girl

Bartlett Anderson and Christine Sundborg were honored last night as the outstanding boy and girl student in the eighth grade graduating class of San Rafael's Davidson Junior High School.

Bart, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel T. D. Anderson of 43 Palm Avenue, received a plaque awarded by the San Rafael Optimist Club at the school's graduation exercises at Albert Field. Chris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Sundborg of 100 Bayo Vista, received a plaque from the San Rafael Elks Lodge.

In addition to being honored as outstanding boy, Bart led the class honor roll, having been a straight-A student throughout his two years at the school. Principal Hanlon P. Tharp announced this was the first time in four years that any student had completed two years at Davidson with straight-A grades.

Eighteen others were also honored for outstanding scholarship during their two years at the school. They are:

Bagley Declares He'll Back Any Choice Of GOP

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) said today he will support "Senator Goldwater or any other Republican convention choice."

"I certainly will perform any campaign duties requested on behalf of our nominee, consistent with the conduct of my own fall campaign," said the Marin-Sonoma assemblyman.

At the same time, Bagley commented that the vote in his district showed that better than two-third of the Republicans in the two counties agree with him on "necessity of a broad-based, unified Republican party and a broad platform responsive and appealing to the needs and views of a majority of the voters."

He said he would continue his effort "to continue this broad direction for a winning Republican party."

Here Is Your Chance To Own An Alligator

An alligator from the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael visited the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco yesterday.

The alligator, all four feet of him, was on the way to Television KQED's annual auction. He was the first alligator to be offered in the listener-supported station's history of auctions.

The alligator was delivered to the big hotel because hotel manager David N. Plant is also president of the museum board. He accepted delivery of the reptile.

The museum's gift does not deplete the stock of alligators too desperately in San Rafael. There is another one still living at the museum.

Department Store Tells Of Earnings Increase

The Emporium Capwell Co. reports net earnings of $839,531 for the quarter ended April 30, 1964. Earnings for the same period a year ago were $660,781.

For the 12-month period that ended April 30, earnings were $6,056,665 as against $5,164,380 for the previous year. Quarterly earnings per share of common stock were 34 cents, compared to 27 cents in 1963. Annual per share earnings amounted to $2.47, compared to $2.11 for the preceding year.

Motorcycle Stolen

San Anselmo police today were looking for a new Honda motorcycle stolen from the parking lot at Sir Francis Drake High School sometime Wednesday. Owner Scott A. Sibbald of 150 Crane Drive, San Anselmo, reported the theft yesterday.

Airline Increases Quarterly Dividend

Pacific Southwest Airlines has increased its quarterly dividend payable July 1 to 16 cents per share.

The dividend applies to the 826,062 shares currently outstanding and is payable to stockholders of record June 17.

In the prior quarter, the company paid 14 cents per share. This is the fourth consecutive quarter in which the quarterly rate has been increased since the initial dividend in July, 1963.

Pacific Southwest Airlines recently announced a 20-per cent increase in regular flight scheduling, effective June 12, between San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

Gets Army Award

Doyle D. Carroll of 4 Circle Drive, San Rafael, has received the Army's sustained superior performance award for his performance of technical and administrative duties as management and logistical officer for the Sixth Army Recruiting District at the Presidio of San Francisco.

Last Quad Dies In New York City

The boy died shortly before noon, Wednesday, the three girls late Wednesday night within 40 minutes.

Authorities at Long Island Jewish Hospital, Queens, said the boy and one of the girls had respiratory troubles and the other two "died quite suddenly." No cause was given.

The quads were born to Mrs. Salvatore Peloro, 30, of Brooklyn, who was reported doing fine. Peloro, 35, a plumber who has been out of work since November, had an offer of a job at a housing project.

Reminder: To complete your calls more quickly, dial them direct.

Have you ever seen 7,000 grown men cry? You'd think success would make them happy, but ever since Mustang came out, seven thousand Ford Dealers all over the country have been weeping and wringing their hands. They can't get as many Mustangs as they would like. All this would upset us, too, except it's happened to us before. You see, this was the hottest sales year in Ford Division history even before Mustang came out. At the beginning of the model-year, dealers couldn't get enough of our big, hot Super Torque Ford Hardtops (sales up 54%)...or luxurious Thunderbirds (sales up 68%). Falcon sales are almost as big as Chevy II and Valiant combined. Fairlane continues to be a leader in its field. So, even though some people would like us to put all our plants to work on Mustang, we can't let down our hundreds of thousands of Ford, Thunderbird, Falcon and Fairlane lovers. Why don't you come see what all the shouting's about? Ask your Ford Dealer for a test drive. (You might even get him to smile.)

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

Marin Restaurants Less Numerous, Do Better Than Elsewhere In Bay

Restaurants aren't as numerous in Marin County as they are in other parts of the Bay Area, but by and large they appear to do more business. That's the conclusion you're bound to reach after reading over a few figures from the State Board of Equalization.

MORE THAN 20 million dollars was spent in taxable sales at Marin food and drinking places last year, and that was about 8.5 per cent more than the year before. Since Marin's population gain for the year was estimated at only 5.4 per cent, it would seem to follow that either the county's residents are eating better or eating out more often. There's also the possibility more business is coming in from the outside.

Marin County at the end of 1963 had 242 eating establishments of all kinds — or one for approximately each 726 persons. San Francisco had more than 10 times as many—one for each 306 persons. It goes without saying that the city has more visitors who stay to chat and chew than we do, but Marin establishments manage to do better with what they have—about $9,000 a year better for each one, on the average. This may be why the restaurant mortality rate — as heavy as it is—is still lower in Marin than in the city.

SAN MATEO COUNTY has one establishment for each 704 persons — but their average gross sales are little better than San Francisco's. Santa Clara County's 1,151 establishments (one for each 709 persons) have lower average annual food sales than either of them.

Sonoma County, with a population only a little less than ours (173,200 compared to 175,600), has more than twice as many eating and drinking places (518), or about one for each 334 persons. But our establishments do two and one-third times the average sales for each place.

And don't tell me it's because restaurant prices are higher here than elsewhere. There isn't that much difference.

Of Marin's 242 eating places, 95 serve no alcoholic beverages, 38 sell only wine or beer and 109 sell all types of liquor. About 64 places are located in San Rafael — but Sausalito, with less than half that many, does 84 per cent as much business.

HERE'S A TIP for a good time to eat at one of Tiburon's restaurants—next Wednesday night. But make it early. There's a Korla Pandit program at the Tiburon Playhouse at 8:30 p.m. It's his first public appearance in Tiburon since he moved his studio down that way, I understand. Should be worth taking in.

ONE OF THE HOMEY attractions of some of our Marin dineries is the frequency with which they expose you to the company of your friends and people you know. These are the "comfortable" places and there are a number of them. I imagine few people would be in complete agreement on a common list, but preferences must be much alike — otherwise paths would cross less often.

One I'm thinking about right now is Franchini's Chateau, and I know it must be on the visiting list of many of my friends, because I see them there so much. Food and service have something to do with it, they tell me.

But another category of visitors here is that age group which may not have mastered all the fine points of eating out yet—but is certainly enthusiastic when it comes to duck a la Franchini. Served on the adjoining lake, that is—not on the menu.

All you have to do to get the kids to eat their dinner is to insist that a visit to the duck pond afterward with sundry crusts of bread (provided by Franchini's) is contingent upon a clean plate.

MRS PHYLLIS MENDOZA has moved from San Francisco to Marin—the better to give more of her personal attention to the Casa Linda restaurant in San Rafael. She's now supervising the cooking here.

The troubadours are back, Friday and Saturday nights from 5 to 10 p. .m There's a 50 cents cover charge per table at those times—but here's a tip: A glass of wine goes with the regular meal after 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights.

There's an unannounced surprise special dinner now on Monday nights. The only way you'll find out what it is will be to go there — changed each week. Last Monday's special must have been good. I hear it was a sellout, and the place was crowded.

FRED GENNERT has decided to continue his late evening jazz concerts at the Blue Rock Inn on weekends—last week's response was so encouraging. The full group will appear tonight; a smaller group will play tomorrow night. No minors. Time is from 10 p.m.

JAZZ PIANIST Bill Evans brings his trio to the Trident, Sausalito for four weeks beginning next Tuesday. He'll perform on a nine-foot Baldwin grand piano and will be accompanied by long-time associates Paul Motian (drummer) and bassist Chuck Israels. They'll perform nightly except Mondays from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Special session with guest artists Sundays from 3 p.m. Minors are admitted.

CATERING MANAGER Rae Ward at Peacock Gap Country Club reports that 7,210 meals were served there during the month of May. Of course that includes parties and banquets, but it's still good.

WINE CONSCIOUS? Authority Leon D. Adams of Sausalito is presenting a series of half-hour programs on wine appreciation over Berkeley's FM radio station KPFA for the next seven Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m.

LIN FA GARDENS at Northgate Shopping Center is adding new screens (this should allow more than one group in the banquet area) and new tropical plantings.

Oysters Being Raised In Waters Of Tiburon

It's not so much because of the oysters, Dr. Victor Loosanoff explains; it's because of the water. His experiment proves that the water is good enough to culture all kinds of marine life.

He explained that oysters are among the most sensitive of marine organisms when it comes to water pollution.

Dr. Loosanoff, who has planted eastern oysters in Tomales Bay, started some of the oysters at Tiburon to test the water.

"They're doing very well," he reported today.

The scientist has run other tests of the water on plankton, the microscopic organisms that provide food for many larger organisms. He found the plankton both plentiful and varied, indicating that Tiburon can cover a wide range of research.

Dr. Loosanoff was aided in his recent research by Mrs. Curtis Webb, his assistant.

Tam Aero Club Elects Officers

Other officers are Ronald L. Johnston of San Anselmo, first vice president; William L. Kapranos of San Anselmo, second vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Kapranos of San Anselmo, recording and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Maureen Pederson of San Rafael, treasurer, and Donald Myers, of Santa Venetia, flying officer.

Members of the club will fly to the Red Shoe Ranch at Arbuckle, Colusa County, June 27 where they will be guests of Mrs. Pederson.

JUST ENJOY LIFE

Food, Drink Lovers Can Take Heart . . .

ROSETO, Pa. (AP) — "We have peace of mind."

That's the answer Mayor George Giaquinto, 50, of Roseto has for medical experts who are somewhat puzzled by the low incident of heart attacks in this little Italian-American community of fat, yet healthy and happy people.

A seven-year medical study conducted in the northeastern Pennsylvania community made up of 1,630 has shown a death rate from heart attacks that is strikingly low—despite a passionate love for fattening foods and wine.

Medical researchers, who yesterday published their report on the eating habits and social behavior of the residents of Roseto, said the most striking feature of the community "was the way in which people seemed to enjoy life. They were gay, boisterous and unpretentious.

"Whether or not their sensible way of life contributed to their good health is still to be determined," the report added.

Roseto's mayor tends to agree with the tentative conclusions of the report.

"We're a cultural people. The main thing is that we have peace of mind. I guess there's a little bit of heredity in it, too," said the mayor.

In Roseto, 95 per cent of the residents are first, second or third generation Italians who have maintained many of their traditional Italian customs.

Yet the incidence of death due to heart attacks among these people overweight by medical standards, was considerably less than ethnically-different neighboring towns—Banger, Nazareth, Stroudsburg, and East Stroudsburg.

It's a puzzle to scientists who have been pointing at America's rich diet as a prime factor in arterial diseases and heart attacks.

Nearly a million persons annually are made ill as a result of accidental food poisoning in the United States.

Liberties Group Offers Grants

Three scholarships are being offered by the Marin Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union for a one-week workshop on "Teaching the Bill of Rights," to be presented by University of California Extension in San Francisco June 29 to July 3.

The scholarships are open to Marin County teachers, board of education members, advanced teaching students, and members of the clergy. Applications may be made to Mrs. Libby Ginsberg, 60 Redwood Road, San Anselmo.

Girl Athletes Elect At Redwood High

BATS ABOUT VAMPIRES?

If you like vampires and their friends you will find Theater V's production of "Dracula" a hair raising experience. The show goes on at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley. It will be staged again the following Friday and Saturday. John Rechtfertig portrays Count Dracula. Faith Kindell is one of his victims.

2 Truant Inmates Back In Custody

Two of the three recent work furlough escapees from Marin County jail were back in custody today, but sheriff's officers said one threatened suicide twice and has been transferred to Napa State Hospital for psychiatric examination.

John Lyle Mead, 47, contacted officers yesterday and said he would surrender to a "plain-clothesman" in unmarked police car at 3 p.m. yesterday at his home, 7 Napa Street, Fairfax.

Chief Deputy Ellis Seibert and Jim Soetaert, adult division supervisor of Marin County Probation Office, arrived but Mead was not there. They said shortly after they found him at Fairfax police department, where he had surrendered.

He was booked at county jail at 4:20 p.m., but deputies said shortly after he informed them by note he intended to commit suicide. They said he had acquired an electrical extension cord, and was found seated on his cell bunk with the cord around his neck.

The cord was removed, they said, and shortly after Mead made a noose of his T-shirt and again indicated a suicide attempt.

He was then taken to Napa.

Mead, serving 90 days for passing a worthless $30 check, failed to reappear on work furlough last Saturday. A man identifying himself as Mead later telephoned he was departing San Francisco International Airport for Iowa, but officers said Mead apparently had not left the state.

Second apprehension is Louis Barton Pettijohn, 28, of 42 Bolinas Avenue, Fairfax. Deputies said they acted on information that Pettijohn would visit an acquaintance in Lake County, where he once lived, and notified the sheriff's office there.

A stakeout was made, and Pettijohn arrested at a cabin shortly after. Seibert said he would be returned today. Pettijohn failed to return to Marin County jail last Friday. He was serving a year sentence for passing a worthless check.

Still missing is Lester Ray Finn, 28, Oakland man serving a year for burglary and also missing since last Friday.

All face a felony escape charge.

Utilities Board Argues Over Phone 'Bugs'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — William M. Bennett of Kentfield, president of the California Public Utilities Commission, says monitoring services offered by telephone companies should be outlawed."

Bennett made the statement yesterday after four other members of the commission signed an order initiating a statewide probe of telephone company monitoring practices.

Bennett refused to sign, however, calling the order "an idle act" and stating that he would elaborate on his reasons in a minority report later on.

In its orders, the PUC said: "Such equipment may have been used or may be used in a manner contrary to the laws of the United States of America and the State of California, or in a manner inimical to the maintenance of privacy of communication over the telephone net work in California."

The PUC said it will set times and places of public hearings on the issue later.

Monitoring practices have been defended by Pacific Telephone Co. as being in the interests of establishing better customer treatment by employees of business firms.

Driver Fined $149

John Moss, 44, San Francisco, was fined $149 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Tuesday near the intersection of Highway 101 and North San Pedro Road.

Appreciation Dinner Set For Rep. Clausen June 15

About 500 persons are expected to attend an appreciation dinner for Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) on June 15 at Peacock Gap Country Club in San Rafael.

The dinner, sponsored by the Marin County Republican Central Committee, will begin at 7:30 p.m., preceded by a cocktail hour.

Edwin W. Thomas is general chairman of the event. He will be assisted by Mrs. J. Lee Chaille, Calvin P. Horn, Robert D. Huber, Matthew A. Graham, James McNab, Charles Michals, Mrs. Geraldine Olinger and Mrs. Edwin W. Thomas.

Dr. Gaylord Parkinson, San Diego physician and vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, will be a special guest.

Entertainment by the Forientals, a Marin County barbershop quartet, also will be featured.

"A limited number of tickets is still available for the dinner," Thomas announced. Tickets may be obtained from Thomas or from Marin Republican headquarters.

Hub City Firm Wins State Bids

Watkin and Sibbald, San Anselmo landscape company, was announced today as low bidder on two State Division of Highways landscaping projects.

The San Anselmo company was low at $109,437.95 on landscaping and installing an irrigation system along the U.S. Highway 101 southern freeway between the James Lick Memorial Freeway bypass and Mission Street in San Francisco. Two bids were received.

Watkin and Sibbald also was low on landscaping and installing irrigation system along 1.8 miles of State Highway 105 in and near San Mateo. Its bid on this job, which includes 4,511 shrubs, 1,110 trees, and 447,400 ground cover plants, was $178,300.

Collision Cuts Head

Wendell H. Sanford, 60, of 380 Johnstone Drive, Marinwood, was cut on the head when his car struck the rear bumper of a tank truck yesterday on a Highway 101 connector road just south of the Novato city limits. He told the California Highway Patrol his head struck the sun visor bracket.

Clausen Lauds House Passage Of Highway Act

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) today praised House passage of the Highway Construction Act, including 170 million dollars for Forest Service access roads.

The House approved the bill this week by a 294-0 vote and sent it to the Senate.

The Act authorizes construction of federal aid primary and secondary highways throughout the nation for fiscal years 1966 and 1967, including 85 million dollars for forest access roads for each of those years.

Seminary Head To Talk At Academy

Dr. Theodore A. Gill, president of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, will be principal speaker at the baccalaureate service of San Rafael Military Academy at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the academy chapel.

Rev. Eric Jackson, academy chaplain, will conduct the service.

Dr. Sumner Walters, rector and headmaster of the academy, noted that furnishing the baccalaureate speaker is one of the many ways in which the Presbyterian seminary and the Episcopal academy have cooperated this year. A principal activity by the seminary at the academy has been furnishing of 10 students to serve as dormitory masters. The 10 also have been active in organizing extra-curricular activities for academy students, Doctor Walters noted, among the most successful being the academy's first drama club, which recently presented "Out of the Frying Pan" by Francis Swann.

Tiburon Fire Tax Rate Holds Line; Annexation Voted

Tiburon Fire Protection district directors last night adopted the final budget for the 1964-65 year in the amount of $103,483, calling for a tax rate of 66 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

This year's budget was for $101,340 with the same tax rate.

The board adopted a resolution to annex tidelands property to the nine-foot depth at lowest tide from the stone tower all the way to the Corte Madera city line, according to Frank J. Buscher, fire chief.

A committee was appointed to study salaries of firemen throughout the county, members of which are Harry M. Bragg, Kelly J. Wheeler and Buscher.

Buscher was authorized to attend an arson and fire investigation seminar at University of California, June 15-19.

Human Rights Body Studies Marin City

Herbert Samuels, community consultant for the anti-defamation league in San Francisco, appeared before the Marin County Human Rights Commission last night to explain the San Francisco police department's community relations program and suggest how similar programs might be used by the sheriff's office for Marin City.

Iniece Bailey was named head of a task force to study police problems in Marin City, and San Francisco Police Chief Thomas J. Cahill was invited to the commission's next meeting.

Tam Valley Might Try Incorporation

Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club members last night decided to discuss possible annexation to Mill Valley or incorporation of Tamalpais Valley at their next meeting on July 2, president Daniel C. Mulcahey said today.

All members of the club will be invited to appear, said Mulcahey, with the idea of trying to determine how the people feel. "Afterwards," he added, "we may invite the mayor of Mill Valley and someone from the new City of Tiburon to talk to us."

Club members discussed recent tax reappraisals by the county assessor's office and agreed to invite Homestead Valley and Almonte improvement clubs to meet with them for a discussion. A committee was formed and a member will go to the Sausalito Taxpayers Assn. headquarters in Sausalito to get information on how to officially protest reappraisals.

Members made final plans for a club dance at 8 p.m. today in the clubhouse.

Sheriff's Posse To Join Other Counties In Ride

The Marin County Sheriff's Posse will join sheriff's posses of six other Bay Area counties in an all-day ride Sunday through watershed properties of the San Francisco Water Department in San Mateo County.

It will be the first time the posse members from the seven counties have joined in a ride together. Participating, besides Marin, will be posses from Alameda, Contra Costa, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clar counties.

Defense Loses Dismissal Try

Three Marinites and one Vallejo man must appear in Napa County Superior Court Thursday to enter please on conspiracy charges involving an alleged kick-back scheme on real estate loan transaction.

After a day-long hearing yesterday, Judge William L. Blanckenburg denied motions to dismiss Napa County Grand Jury indictments issued against the four men April 9.

Defendants are Ross E. Kelly of Kentfield, Dan R. Nunan and William R. Atkinson of San Rafael, and Robert E. Skinner of Vallejo. Skinner was former manager of the Silverado Savings and Loan Assn., in Napa.

According to the indictment, Skinner, Nunan and Kelly entered into an agreement whereby Skinner would make loans to Kelly in Excess of the limitations of the state finance code.

Kelly allegedly paid more than $4,000 in kickbacks after loans on Marin County properties. Later Atkinson allegedly borrowed $50,000 and paid $2,500 to Skinner.

Firemen Warn To Dangers

The Marin County Fire Prevention Assn. yesterday urged caution in the use of hair sprays and charcoal lighter fluid, which were labeled dangerous if improperly used.

Hair sprays are flammable and anyone who uses them should be particularly careful if smoking, the association reported.

The group also urged Marin residents to check with their local fire departments on incinerator regulations.

Capt. William Stepp of the Marin County Fire Department assumed the 1964-65 presidency at an association meeting yesterday. He succeeds Capt. James Cameron of the Marinwood Fire Department.

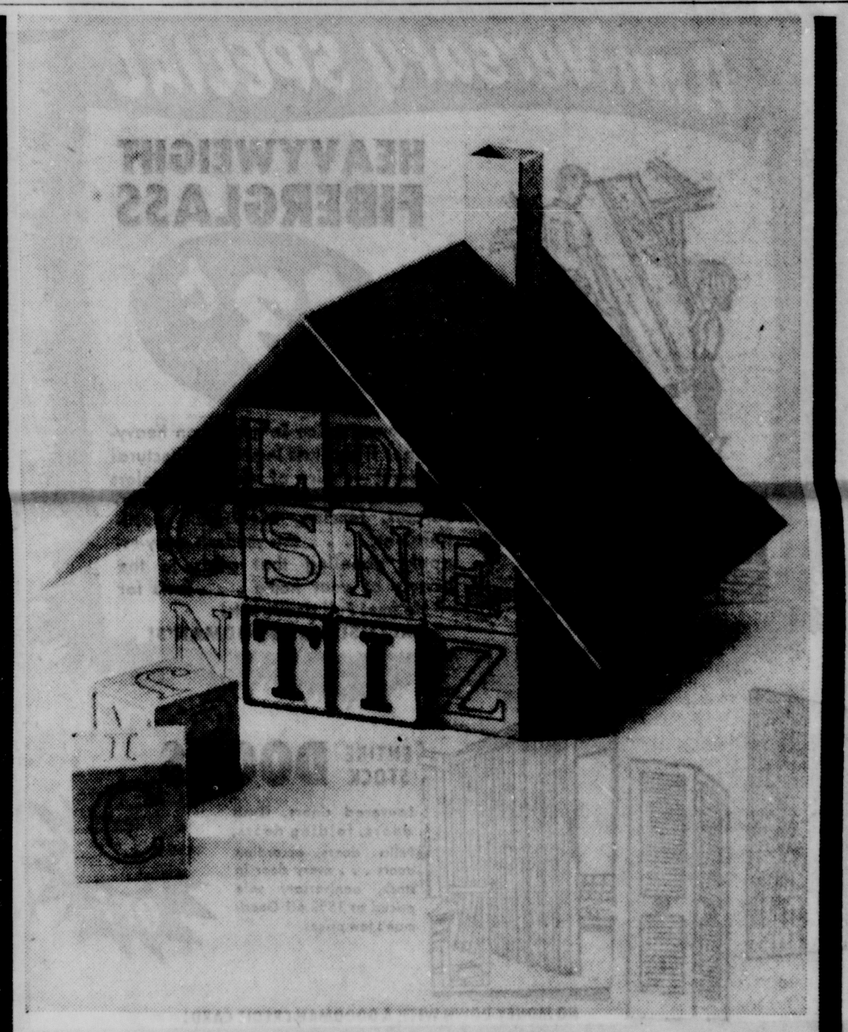
Other 1964-65 officers are Capt. Charles Pruett of Tiburon Fire Department, vice president; Capt. Henry Pierroz of the Mill Valley Fire Department, secretary, and Lee Larson, Corte Madera fire prevention officer, corresponding secretary.

Fire Marshal John K. Mazza of San Rafael, Capt. George Walser of Terra Linda and Capt. Richard Beyer of Novato were named to a research committee to investigate hazardous materials and products.

Captain Pruett was named historian, and Captain Cameron and Fire Marshal Mazza were named to the publicity committee.

Republican Named

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Lyndon B. Johnson today nominated Republican congressman Hamer Budge of Boise, Ida., to be a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission.



The two most important letters in the alphabet when you buy property

Nothing is more important when you buy real property than the title company selected to protect your ownership rights. You want fast title service. You want accurate title service. You want impartial title examination. Most of all you want a title insurance policy that assures you maximum protection.

You get all four with T.I. That's why T.I. is the overwhelming choice of real estate brokers and property buyers alike—and why T.I. protects the ownership rights to more California property than all other title companies.

Only T.I. can offer fast service in 40 California counties with just one local phone call. Only T.I. has complete up-to-date land records available in all 40 counties. And America's largest, most experienced title staff to interpret them.

Next time you buy or sell property, remember: it costs no more to specify T.I. So why settle for less?

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Will Goldwater's Radical Right Backers 'Take Over?'

Senator Goldwater's narrow victory in the California Republican primary election Tuesday places a heavy burden of responsibility on the victorious senator and his chief California backer, former senator Knowland.

Former senator Knowland, as we observed in this space not long before the primary election, is NOT one of these irresponsibles.

He is integrity personified.

But we are afraid he and his victorious candidate are stuck with a lot of irresponsibles among their supporters.

We don't really know if the radical right can be held under control. If anybody can do it, Bill Knowland should be able to. He has our best wishes for success. If he and Senator Goldwater aren't able to control their far-right supporters, we fear for the future of the Republican Party, which even out of office should play a responsible and important part in government as the "loyal opposition" party.

Not All Friendly Skunks Are Rabid

Skunks are normally shy creatures and we are wisely warned to beware of those that act strangely or appear unafraid. This is Marin's big year for rabid skunks.

However, not all friendly skunks are rabid. We once knew a girl who lived in the Claremont Hotel when she was a child and picked up a nice, little black and white kitty around the hotel's garbage cans. She decided to take it up and show it to her mother. She was in the middle of the lobby when it let go with its skunky weapon. According to all reports, despite the best efforts of the management, the lobby was quite skunky for several weeks.

Some Summer Sounds

Besides the humming, clicking and chirping of the summer insects and the chorus of birds at dawn, there are some other distinctive sounds of summer.

The distant Bee-Ohh of a foghorn on the Bay. The tinkling music made by garden hoses. The sighing of trees in the soft, afternoon sea breeze. The splashing and laughter from a neighbor's swimming pool.

The clacking of mowers and clippers. The sizzle of the outdoor barbecue. The buzz of yellowjackets. The shuddering screech of an owl on a moonless night. The distant rumble of traffic on the Freeway, heard only on a warm, quiet evening.

Sounds of summer in Marin.

MARIN POLITICAL VIEWS

Tuesday's Election Filled With Surprises For County, California

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

THE BIG SURPRISE of the election, of course, was Ernest Kettenhofen's upset challenge to veteran Supervisor William Fusselman.

Prior to the election, most political observers would have laughed if you had predicted a Fusselman defeat. In fact, most of them were betting that Fusselman would take both Kettenhofen and Jess France combined.

That's where we disagreed with that feller in the courthouse. Watching Kettenhofen's indefatigable drive with which he pounded both issues and pavement, we figured he would get a good vote. And you can't overlook the quiet efficiency with which campaign manager Peter Goldstein engineered the drive.

Jess France, too, drew a surprising vote, considering the short campaign he waged, added to the fact that he was a virtual unknown politically until a few months ago.

Which way France's supporters will go should be the big factor in the November race between Fusselman and Kettenhofen.

ANOTHER MINOR surprise was young Tom Storer, who matched James Dougan vote for vote. Most experts saw a Ludy-Dougan runoff, but we had a hunch that Storer would be the "dark horse" to watch.

The Salinger-Cranston race, we must admit, fooled us. Pierre Salinger showed up with much more strength in Marin than we thought.

We figure the inheritance tax appraiser issue hurt State Controller Alan Cranston somewhat. The backing given by Jackie Kennedy and by Mrs. Clair Engle must have helped Salinger considerably.

In the Republican presidential race, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller seemed to have the edge over Sen. Barry Goldwater, but we didn't think Marin would go quite so strongly for Rocky.

It all goes to show that political predictions are precarious guesses at best. But that's what makes life interesting.

So, on to the national conventions, and next November.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Unitarians of Marin formally organized as a church and picked Rev. George S. Patterson, retired Berkeley Unitarian minister, as interim minister.

Plans to promote new funds to improve Shoreline Highway were to be discussed at a meeting of the Shoreline Highway Assn. at Stinson Beach.

20 YEARS AGO

Dorothy Erthle became first full-time Marin County Girl Scout executive.

Sausalito City Councilman Randolph Pettersen and Golden Gate Bridge District general manager James Ricketts sponsored resolutions calling for a second approach to the bridge, southward from Sausalito. The resolution was approved at quarterly meeting of North Coast Council, California Chamber of Commerce.

DIFFICULT WAY OUT OF A HOLE

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Here Is Must Reading For Anyone Wishing To Get Insight On LBJ

WASHINGTON — I should like to invite you to ponder four questions about the most publicized man in the United States today:

Do you figure that President Lyndon B. Johnson is so busy doing things that he has no time to think about things?

Is Johnson a "liberal" or a "conservative"?

Has he been so preoccupied with domestic issues that he has little interest in foreign affairs?

What would you say are Johnson's principal goals as president of the United States?

IF YOU ARE quite sure you know the answers to these questions or are reasonably sure you don't—you are in for an exciting and rewarding experience if you will do one thing: read William S. White's book-length profile, "The Professional: Lyndon B. Johnson," published by Houghton Mifflin Co., Boston.

White provides unusually authoritative answers to all these questions and others. He knows the president almost as well as Johnson knows himself. The book reads as good music sounds.

As you read "The Professional," you will discern that White writes with admiration and regard.

SOME WILL FIND White too uncritical. I am not suggesting that White's are the only answers or that his answers are not at points arguable. But he writes with special insight and with the most intimate knowledge of the man and the politician of any correspondent in Washington.

He illumines Johnson's motives and motivations, on his policies and purposes. Like this one, which goes to the heart of what makes the president's actions and thoughts so closely linked that many have proclaimed that LBJ is all action and no thought:

"To proclaim policy," White writes, "is a high presidential function; to effectuate policy is a high presidential art. It is an art which I believe, after 30 years of observation and reflection, to be embodied in him as in no other president of my lifetime."

WHITE SUBMITS that those who tend to view Johnson as only an "operator," as only a "wheeler and dealer" in the legislative process, have failed to perceive that LBJ has been an "effectuator" of political philosophy, not an effectuator of non-philosophy, and have made the mistake of viewing political action as though it were something other than "an extension of political thought."

It is worth noting that Lyndon Johnson and John Kennedy voted exactly the same on all critical phases of civil rights during the eight years they were in the Senate together. The ultra-liberals credited Senator Kennedy with great sincerity of purposes, but Senator Johnson's ultra-liberal critics tended to dismiss him as a mere maneuverer.

I think that White thoroughly demonstrates that Johnson from an early New Deal congressman to president, is a man of conviction and thoughtful purpose, who could vote for the Wagner Act in 1935 and the Taft-Hartley Act in 1946 for the same reasons. This did not show that Johnson had changed as much as circumstances had changed.

It is too early to judge Johnson as president. White provides a valuable preface for future assessment.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Let Marin City Pay For Deputies

Editor, Independent-Journal

The juxtaposition of the stories of May 26 about our supervisors trying to raise added taxes, and the need to put four deputy sheriffs on duty in Marin City is self-explanatory.

Why not raise the rents in Marin City to cover the costs of whatever services are needed above and beyond those normally used in other Marin County districts?

Don't know who to thank for the wonderful editorial on Goodwill's program for the handicapped, but we're truly grateful to the I-J for this help.

It means a great deal to know that Chip Day's generosity in giving his time and talent to help worthy causes is still with the I-J.

Native Of South Speaks Her Mind

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . I was raised and lived in South Carolina, and I am proud of it. I am Caucasian, but if God had meant me to be Negro, then I would have been born of Negro parents.

Californians or anyone in the U.S.A. should search their own souls before passing judgment on the South. If you had as many of one group as we have in some of our towns in South Carolina, then you would know what I am trying to say. You have been getting a little of it by the Sheraton-Palace incident and also the auto row demonstrations in San Francisco. For an example, in one of our towns I am familiar with an incident. A certain factory hired over half Negroes. Almost every week they would have to send some of these people home to clean themselves up. I have also seen this happen to Caucasians in these factories. What I am trying to say is, if any person or persons, Negro or white, would spend as much time being a better, cleaner person, instead of mauling, screaming and trying to make people do what they want them to, then and only then will they get jobs and all these things they are wanting out of life.

I know Southern people are prejudiced, but so are Californians. I have seen more of it in California than I have ever seen in my home town. I have seen it in Alaska, Canada, almost any place I have been.

No, I do not hate Negroes nor anyone. But whether we like it or not, our country is a land of class distinction. . . . If you were in church and a known prostitute, an alcoholic . . . were to come in and sit down by you in church, what would you say? How would you feel? Would you welcome him? Or her? Would you say what on earth is she doing here? It isn't the people that wear the pretty clothes and furs that always need our help. If we would just help one another, this would answer all of our troubles.

I have a daughter almost 20 years old, but I certainly would not want her in San Francisco or any place else making a spectacle of herself like Miss Tracy Sims has been doing. You can call that narrow-minded if you wish, but I know where my daughter is when she goes out. It breaks my heart to see nice-looking young people with long beards and stringy hair being bodily picked up and carried to a paddy wagon. Thank you for listening to me. Thank you also for printing all these letters. I think you should be admired and respected for this.

Painters Union Is Given Thanks

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We, the members of the San Anselmo Cooperative Nursery School, would like to publicly thank the members of the Painters Union San Rafael Local No. 83 who volunteered their services and painted the exterior of the school building.

These gentlemen instead of enjoying their usual Saturday activities donated their time to do a beautiful professional job. The appearance of the building is considerably improved and the children as well as the parents appreciate this unselfish endeavor.

House Tour Helps Foreign Students

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Novato Community Ambassadors extend grateful thanks to the Independent-Journal for the excellent publicity given to our May 21 House Tour. This contributed largely to the success of our tour.

Proceeds to date have gone over $500, which will go toward our foreign student program. You may be interested to know that, so far, 75 young people from 20 countries (and including Novato) have benefitted from our program. This is truly impressive when you think of the far-reaching effects of this contact between people.

May we also take this opportunity to publicly thank the homeowners who so graciously prepared and opened their lovely homes for us: Mr. John Novak, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Leathers, Dr. and Mrs. Alvin Haag, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack West. Especial thanks to the Novato Presbyterian Church, and to the community for the fine support for our program.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

IN SOME FASHION that I do not understand, a Purdue sophomore swallowed a ping-pong ball and was rushed to the infirmary to have it removed. He bore up bravely while the surgeon made an incision, but began to squirm when this was followed by two more jobs. When the surgeon wielded his instrument for a fourth time, the student cried, "What's the big idea of cutting me in so many places?" "Relax, man," suggested the surgeon. "That's the way the ball bounces."

ROOMMATES AT Vassar both had boy friends at Columbia Law School, which worked out very nicely for weekend parties. Suddenly, however, the ardent love letters of both law students ceased, and the girls had to content themselves with dry, noncommittal little notes. "What's the matter with you two goons?" the girls demanded one Saturday afternoon. "Don't you love us any more?" "We do, we do," insisted one of the law students, "but, you see, we're studying breach of promise cases this month."

MRS. GUMBOODLE watched silently as long as she could stand it while her middle-aged husband ogled a striking brunette in a tight-fitting, revealing cocktail dress. Then she hissed in his ear, "I'll bet the sink in her kitchen is well-stacked, too!"

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Tentative Date Set For Warren Report

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The special commission investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy has been forced to set a new target date for completion of its already overdue report — Sept. 1.

Even that is tentative. The seven-member probing group had planned to publish its world-awaited findings by June 1. But a number of important witnesses are still to be heard, and crucial information still is being sought with no certainty when it can be obtained—if ever.

FOR EXAMPLE: Biggest gap in the commission's historic study is a comprehensive account of Lee Harvey Oswald's connections and activities during the three years he was in Russia as a "dedicated Marxist" and avowed defector.

The commission is still very much in the dark on this vital phase of Oswald's life. Records and other material supplied by the Soviet Union have shed little light. The last batch, submitted some weeks ago, was of no material consequence. Similarly, the State Department so far has provided scant significant information.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, who was in Moscow throughout the period Oswald lived in Russia, and members of the embassy's staff who had dealings with him have yet to testify. Several times, Rusk has been slated to appear, but crises and sudden trips to Europe and Southeast Asia necessitated postponements.

ALSO UP IN the air is when Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy will testify. As exclusively disclosed in this column, the former first lady has agreed to do that. But she has not signified when and in what manner—in person or in a written account.

A close friend of hers has told commission members Mrs. Kennedy is "going through a difficult period. She has good days and bad days. Perhaps what she is experiencing can best be described as undergoing the full reaction of what she has gone through. It's just catching up with her. She needs time to prepare herself for this ordeal, which it certainly will be."

Even more indefinite is a statement from President Lyndon B. Johnson. The commission has indicated it will be glad to receive anything he cares to submit. So far there has been no word on what he will do.

ONE OF THE MOST significant aspects of the 10-week-long Senate debate over the civil rights measure is the restraint and decorum that has characterized it.

There have been a few instances of frayed tempers. But they were brief and left no lasting scars. However, the battle is far from over, and as the decisive votes near, the courtly atmosphere may change.

Barber Appointment Is By Long Distance

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Thomas Scott, operator of a hotel barbershop, said he received a call: "This is Patrick Connolly in Minneapolis. Have a chair ready for me at 5:15 this afternoon."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

Politics Is A Great Hobby But Waiting For Results Is A Bore

POLITICS IS A GREAT hobby, even for those, like federal employees and newspapermen, who are not expected generally to participate actively from a partisan position.

But it takes a special kind of nut to enjoy sitting up to weird hours watching election returns. Things become dull as the hours drag on and the missing precincts become fewer and the races are clearly decided.

But election night at the county clerk's office is the raw stuff of politics. It is the actual occurrence which all the ballyhoo and maneuvering and expenditure of money are about.

FROM THE POINT of view of the candidate and his ardent supporters, the night is similar to that endured by Japanese students awaiting results of the university entrance examinations. Except that many Japanese who fail commit suicide. An American, instead, is supposed to smile and wish the victor well.

Counting votes, even for the relatively simple ballot on Tuesday, is a tremendously complicated job. Marin County now uses a computer to aid in the job, although two years ago the computer operations turned out to be a fiasco.

But Tuesday night's results showed two things clearly. The county's elaborate data processing equipment is really much too elaborate for the kind of job required in Marin. And the human factor can foul up any machine operation.

THE COUNTY'S IBM 1401 computer, known as "George," was used to count figures taken from tally sheets and to keep running totals of every race, reporting every half hour or so.

The machine did a fine job, but only used a minute amount of its capacity to do the job. There was simply no challenge. There was even a serious question of increased speed, since tally sheets had to be taken by car from the courthouse to the Civic Center.

It was like shooting a fly with an elephant gun.

On the other hand, the vote tally would have been completed much earlier if it had not been for humans. The count was held up for some time at the end because precinct officers neglected to fill in the section on the tally sheets marked in red with a warning that the spaces must be filled in.

ONE OF THE BLANKS was for the precinct number. In numerous cases officials had to try to match tally sheets with tally books to guess where the sheets came from.

County Clerk George Gnoss predicted he would have the same problems in November, for the general election, mainly because there would be a new batch of precinct officials to make mistakes.

Of course, in November, with at least one more unification measure, three supervisors' runoffs and several state propositions, the precinct level work will be much slower, and will have more opportunities for error.

The problem may be that the machines are in the wrong place. The present computer operation requires that a key punch operator punch an average of 10 cards per precinct. It may be that girls with adding machines might be able to do about the same job at about the same speed.

BUT AT THE PRECINCT level, machines could cut out a lot of nonsense. Voting machines are expensive, but so are the extra poll officials, in the long run.

Voting machines are undergoing changes and are being tested in other areas, so there is a hesitancy in many California areas to commit a county to a major capital expense for a device that may soon be outmoded.

But voting machines are coming. The later a person stays awake on election night, and the following morning, the more convinced he becomes that they are badly needed.

San Geronimo Sets Swimming Classes

Swimming classes for residents of the San Geronimo Valley will be conducted at the Woodacre Improvement Club pool June 15-27.

Diane Schmidt will be the instructor, assisted by Sharon Ravoni, John Burke, Ron Vanbianchi and Robert Ross.

Classes will be from 9 a.m. to noon. The minimum age for swimmers is seven. A housewives' class will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Donald Pederson of Woodacre is in charge of registration.

ART BUCHWALD

Bugging Is Good For You While Visiting In Russia

WASHINGTON — Recently the State Department, in an indignant press conference, revealed that the American Embassy in Moscow had been bugged with tiny microphones. As usual, the press conference, which came out of the blue, raised more questions than it was supposed to answer.

Why did it take 11 years to find out that microphones were in the walls? What did the State Department expect to prove by revealing that the Soviets had been tuned in on them for such a long time? And what is the American public supposed to do about it now that we know what everyone assumed right along — that the Russians have been bugging us for years?

WHEN WE DROVE to Russia several years ago, we were sure that our hotel rooms in the various cities we visited were bugged, but instead of complaining about it we used it to our advantage. At the time we were traveling with a writer named Peter Stone. When we checked in at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow, we found our rooms were very cold.

But instead of complaining to the manager, Peter shouted into the chandelier, "These damn Russian hotel rooms don't have any heat. When I get back to the United States, I'm going to tell everyone that heating in the Soviet Union is terrible and hasn't changed since the days of the Czar."

TWO HOURS LATER the radiators started to clank and three hours later our room was as warm as toast.

We still weren't sure if it was an accident or not, so the next day we stood under the chandelier again.

This time Peter said, "I'm getting sick and tired of having a male Intourist guide. How come everyone else gets good looking blondes and we're stuck with a guy?"

"They're afraid if they give us a girl guide we'll win her over to our side with nylons and lipsticks," we shouted. "Besides, they'd probably fall in love with us."

THE NEXT MORNING we were greeted in the lobby by a girl Intourist guide who explained that our regular guide was sick. The first place she took us to was the GUM department store where she showed us a counter. "You see," she said, "we have nylons and lipsticks in Russia, too."

"Who said you didn't?" Peter asked.

"American men are so conceited," our guide said. "They think any girl will fall in love with them."

"Not all American men," we said. "We don't think so."

She was about to say something, but she caught herself in time.

FROM THEN ON things really moved for us in Russia. Every time we wanted something, we spoke into the chandelier. Once Peter complained that he was disappointed because no one followed us. He felt his trip was wasted if he couldn't go home and say he hadn't been followed by the secret police. The next day we were followed.

Another time the radio in the room was broken and we reported it to the ceiling. In a few hours we had a new radio.

Then we got a brainstorm.

We had tried, without success, through channels, to get an interview with Premier Nikita Khrushchev. Why not ask the chandelier?

For two days we kept saying that the only thing we really wanted was an interview with the Russian premier. But apparently this was too much even for Intourist. When we saw the chief of Intourist on the second day, he said, "I told you you couldn't see the premier. Don't you believe anything I say?"

Parking Tickets Are Growing Crop

By JEFF GREER

Little pink pieces of paper are sprouting on parked cars in Marin County more luxuriantly than ever this year, neatly tucked beneath windshield wipers.

Municipal court records show that almost as many parking citations were handled in the first nine months of fiscal 1963-64 as came into court the whole preceding year.

In the period from last July 1 through March, city police, sheriff's deputies, California Highway Patrol and officers at College of Marin wrote a total of 46,474 motorists the news they were in violation of parking laws. The 12 preceding months saw a total of 46,905 tickets handled by the court.

The biggest jumps show up for Sausalito and San Rafael. But those cities' officials say the reason for the ticket boom is not any sudden crackdown, but rather that both cities are growing, and more shoppers are coming to town every day.

"Our shopping volume is up 16 to 17 per cent over last year," San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Anderson pointed out. He noted that the city employed one extra meter maid during the first-of-the-year heavy sales season, somewhat increasing the number of tickets at that time.

"But that's evened off, now," he said.

Municipal court records indicate that 24,743 San Rafael tickets were processed by the court in the first nine months of this fiscal year — as compared to 26,956 for the entire year before, and 27,852 for fiscal 1961-62. If tickets in the final three months of this year run true to form, the San Rafael total will near 31,000.

Sausalito's parking citations brought 6,134 cases to municipal court in fiscal 1961-62 and 6,834 last year. So far this year, the total on the court books is already 8,694, and it could be a record 10,000 by July 1, it appears.

Countywide, a straight 125 per cent extension of the first nine months' total tickets indicates a potential of nearly 62,000 cases. And the commentary in the proposed 1964-65 county budget now before the county board of supervisors predicts a growth to 70,956 in the next year.

All told, 13 different agencies are writing parking tickets in Marin County this year. The caseload in the court ranges from San Rafael's high down to 20 tickets from College of Marin.

Iguanas, the giant lizards of land and sea, were called "imps of darkness" by Charles Darwin.

Anshen Coroner Inquest Is Set

Coroner's inquest into death of A. Robert Anshen, 54-year-old architect who died the day following an unexplained fire May 25 in his DeSilva Island home in Marin County, is scheduled for 10 a.m. June 18 at Hall of Justice in San Francisco.

San Francisco Coroner Henry Turkel has termed Anshen's death "probably accidental" as result of a combination of bad liver, alcohol and barbiturates.

Evidence of the house fire is at the State Bureau of Investigation and Identification in Sacramento to determine if arson was involved. Marin County Sheriff's Inspector Marco Melovich said results have not yet been learned.

Nehru Opposed Funeral Pomp

NEW DELHI (UPI)—The Hindu funeral performed for Premier Jawaharlal Nehru last week violated his own wish that there be no such rites at his passing, it was reported yesterday.

"I do not believe in any such ceremonies," Nehru said in his will. "To submit to them, even as a matter of form, would be hypocrisy and an attempt to delude ourselves and others."

He asked that a handful of his ashes be thrown into the Ganges River—a ceremony that will be carried out in his native city of Allahabad Sunday—and the rest be scattered from an airplane "so that they might mingle with the dust and soil of India."

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Scribe Brings Out The Question: What Is Wrong With The Giants?

CONNOLLY

It has to be first prize for the answer — what's wrong with the S. F. Giants?

Anyone who has followed the box scores since the season began knows the club has not hit up to expectations. For awhile the pitching wasn't so hot. Then it straightened out and still the club looks impotent. Why?

Clubs built as tenderly and carefully as the Giants shouldn't get out of step so early, stay that way so long, unless there is something wrong, somewhere. Where is it? What is causing it?

FROM TIME to time injuries have crippled the club. Orlando Cepeda, whenever he isn't playing, is a big loss and he's been in and out of the lineup like a sailor on a wild spree.

Jose Pagan and Jim Duffalo ripped rib muscles and both are out like the lights. But before Pagan got hurt he wasn't working up to his expected style nor was Duffalo being allowed to pitch often.

Bad weather, causing a shift of pitching rotation, may be the answer to Duffalo's case. Rain cramped the best laid plans of "Antsy Alvin" Dark.

PAGAN'S fielding has been ragged and he has hit only sparsely. The makeup of the Giant infield, from day to day and week to week, changes like the markings on the stock exchange board. No one ever seems to know who's playing where and when. And this makes for confusion.

Manager Dark has tried hard to keep Jim Hart, the rookie third sacker, in the regular lineup even though he knows the kid isn't quite ready yet. It is no secret that Jesus Alou looks good and bad, and at times great. If he was able to play awhile and look on awhile, he might reach the big league standard expected of him a lot faster.

BUT WILLIE McCovey caused the Alou jam. The big sticker isn't right this year. His swing is off or maybe the other pitchers are finding out where he is weak and thus putting the silencer on his potent club of 1963.

McCovey played too long with a physical handicap that may have thrown him completely out of kilter. His thigh, or groin, injury was treated lightly more because he was desperately needed, than any attempt to minimize the ailment. But with or without McCovey the Giants haven't been clicking

It is hard to point the finger to any individual and blame him for the club's lack of batting strength but we can detect a bit of disorganization that isn't becoming and makes one wonder: Are they playing together? Are they thinking together?

WILLIE MAYS was boosted into the captaincy, it has been said, to bring Alvin Dark closer to his players. They say Alvin felt the players would confide more in Willie than they would in him. How about that?

There have been a lot of silly reports about the Giants being ordered to batting practice right after they played a league contest. Is this supposed to be a morale builder or a bit of Dark discipline?

We've heard so much about how tiredness and misery hit the club since the 23 inning game, that it is becoming quite silly. When does all this cry babying stop and when do the pros on the club pick up their marbles and call this kindergarten stuff off.

THE TURN of events now is quite similar in many respects to the predicament that prevailed just before Bill Rigney got the bounce. And for that reason I'm beginning to wonder if there isn't something going on under the table or behind closed doors.

Trying to determine the best pitching rotation for pitchers who have been together four years is something a manager shouldn't have to debate too long about. He ought to know —not guess. When to rest a ball player and when to remove an ailing player should be the manager's prerogative, not the team captain's.

But it is beginning to seem a big move whenever the ordinary Giant problem comes up. I'm wondering if Alvin is losing that positive thinking he had so much of when he first joined the club.

I'LL ALWAYS maintain McCovey played too much, too often and too long while physically handicapped and I blame that for his bat slump. And I hope I hex him out of it.

But if it was only McCovey it wouldn't matter. Tom Haller, and other good hitters on the team seem to be suffering the same fate. To win a pennant in 1964 the S.F. Giants have to start a winning streak. And come to think of it, maybe that's the answer. Let's start one.

Giants Challenge Phils For N. L. Lead

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, still trying to get a little more muscle in their batting attack, open a three-game series at Philadelphia tonight with first place the prize at stake.

The Giants and Phils hardly looked like the league's best last night as San Francisco made another young pitcher look good while losing at Pittsburgh, 4-2. As for the Phils, they were on the receiving end of a no-hitter by Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers.

The Giants were completely held in check by rookie Steve Blass, who only arrived from the Bucs' Columbus farm club late last month.

He surrendered five hits, including three in the fifth when San Francisco scored its runs. Jim Hart walked and Cap Peterson singled. Hits by Jesus Alou and Willie Mays brought in the tallies.

Pittsburgh made even more use of the big inning, however, when it sent 10 men to the plate in a four-run outburst off loser Bob Bolin, now 1-2. Willie Stargell's single, Bill Mazeroski's two-run poke, and Bolin's walk to Dick Schofield with the bases loaded brought in the tallies.

Relievers Gaylord Perry, Billy O'Dell, and Bob Shaw held the Pirates in check the rest of the way, but the Giants could not generate any offense.

In the night's least surprising news, manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pirates announced he was withdrawing his protest over Wednesday's 3-0 loss to the Giants. The hassle regarded a batted ball that struck Willie Mays. The umpires decreed that Mays was in foul territory at the time and Murtaugh didn't think so.

San Francisco sends its best pitcher, Juan Marichal (8-1) against the Phils tonight. The league leaders, who are 1½ games up on the San Franciscans, have a hard thrower of their own ready to go in Art Mahaffey (4-2), who has given the Giants fits through the years.

Koufax Only 'Practicing' In Perfecto

Experiments While Handcuffing Phils

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sandy Koufax has finished practicing.

He finished about halfway through the third no-hitter of his major league career, allowing only one walk in a 3-0 victory over Philadelphia last night and joining Bob Feller as the only triple no-hit hurlers in modern baseball history.

Minutes later, in the Los Angeles Dodgers' dressing room, the unshaven Koufax made a startling revelation—in the first few innings he was just trying to adjust his motion.

"I have been studying pictures in magazines of my form," Koufax explained, "and suddenly realized that I had been stepping too far to the left with the right foot across my body.

"So in the first few innings I concentrated on making an adjustment, stepping more to the right. It felt fine. I had the old pitching rhythm back."

No one knew it was missing. Koufax had not been the sensational pitcher he was last year when he won Most-Valuable-Player honors and the Cy Young Award as the best pitcher in the majors. But everyone presumed he was still shaking off an early season injury.

Against the Phillies, it was difficult to tell where Koufax corrected his mistake. Only four balls were hit to the outfield and the closest thing to a hit was Richie Allen's slow grounder in the seventh inning, scooped up by third baseman Jim Gilliam, who quickly fired to first for the out.

LONE BASERUNNER

Allen also was the lone Phillies' baserunner but was thrown out attempting to steal after walking on a 3-2 pitch in the fourth inning.

Feller, the only other pitcher to hurl three no-hitters, in post-1900 action, was in Cleveland last night as the Indians played the Chicago White Sox. He wasn't at all surprised that Koufax had matched his three no-hitters.

"Why, the way this guy's going," said Feller, "he may get three more of them before he's through."

Feller didn't see his favor-

Venturi's 67 Second In Tourney

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—For Perry Magee, golf has been better than a poke in the eye with a rockey stick. But not much.

The husky Canadian made $24 in official money on the tour last year, and he hasn't topped the $1,000 mark yet this campaign.

For that kind of money he gave up thoughts of a pro hockey career some years ago, but only after he got poked in the eye with a hockey stick. He was left with a bad right eye, and some second thoughts.

"There have been times when I wondered if I gave up the right game," said Magee.

But today the 30-year-old Toronto pro, whose hair is already greying a little from standing over three-foot putts, led the $100,000 Thunderbird Tournament with a first-round six-under-par 66 for the 6,573-yard Westchester Country Club course.

VENTURI'S 67

He had a one-stroke lead over Phil Rodgers and Ken Venturi, whose game went to pieces three years ago when he suffered a back injury and who has only recently returned to form. Venturi and Rodgers had 67, with Rodgers playing the last 10 holes seven under par after a rocky start.

The touring pros, sharpening up for the U.S. Open in two weeks, wrecked the short course on a fine day for golf. A gusty wind blew in mid-day but it seemed to help as much as it hurt.

In all, 43 players broke par 72.

There were nine at 68, including last year's winner, Arnold Palmer, and the man he beat in a playoff, Paul Harney.

Several More No-Hitters In Sandy's Future, Says Feller

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bob Feller, onetime Cleveland Indians' fireballer who pitched three no-hitters, thinks Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers will taste the thrill of maybe three more no-hitters before he hangs up his uniform.

"Why the way this guy is going he has a good chance to pitch several more," Feller said last night after Koufax tied the ex-Tribe hurler's modern ERA mark of three career no-hitters.

Sandy has a wonderful future ahead of him mainly because of his fast ball and his excellent control."

Feller, now a successful insurance executive, was at the Cleveland - Chicago American League game when he heard about Koufax's feat.

GOOD HOP

The former American League strikeout king thinks Koufax' fast ball has good hop to it— "the kind that takes off when he lets it go."

The 45-year-old Feller said he thought Koufax now has better control than "I had when I was throwing as hard as he is."

The one thing Koufax does different, Feller explained, is that he concentrates more and works harder on his control. "I got into difficulty walking too many batters," said Feller. "Every other game I lost was due to a base on balls."

Feller said he considers Koufax faster than Lefty Gomez and "Sandy is one of the best around today when he's right."

After a hurler hits 30, Feller thinks he's got to change from a thrower to a pitcher and he doesn't feel Koufax, now 28, will "have any trouble making that switch."

EQUALS RECORD

Koufax struck out 12, the 54th time he has fanned 10 or more in a game, to equal another record held by Feller and Rube Waddell, famed left-hander of the old Philadelphia Athletics.

"No I wasn't surprised about this either," said Feller. "I thought the strikeout record would have been broken before this and I felt Herb Score had the best chance of doing it before he got hurt."

Feller, a right-hander, tossed his no-hitters against the Chicago White Sox in April 1940; the New York Yankees in April, 1946, and the Detroit Tigers in July, 1951. He also pitched 12 one-hitters, a feat unparalleled. "I think I could have pitched more no-hitters if my career hadn't been broken up by Navy service for four years when I was really going strong," said Feller. " I came close several times but that only counts in horseshoes."

America's Cup Elimination Series Slated

NEW YORK (AP)—American Eagle will sail against Nefertiti and Constellation against Columbia in the first of a series of races to determine the United States' defender of the America's Cup yachting trophy against a British challenge.

The pairing for the races for the four candidates were drawn up last night and the races will start Monday on Long Island Sound with the eventual winner to face the British challenger—as yet unchosen—for the battered old cup in a series off Newport, R.I., in September.

Santa Clara 9th In College Poll

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — In a thrilling race to the wire, Missouri nipped Arizona State University and ranks as the No. 1 collegiate baseball club in the land.

The final poll of the season conducted by the newspaper, Collegiate Baseball, showed Missouri and Arizona State with 19 first-place votes each, but Missouri nipped the Sun Devils by three points, 349 to 346, when the total points were tabulated.

Rounding out the top 10, in order, were Mississippi, USC, Texas A&M, Minnesota, Seton Hall, Oregon, Santa Clara and North Carolina.

MARIN COLLEGE AWARDS

Riemcke, Sparrow, Honored

A basketball coach and a football quarterback shared the spotlight yesterday at the College of Marin sports awards assembly.

Cal Riemcke, head cage coach at the Kentfield school, was presented a special plaque by the college's Associated Students for winning the Golden Valley Conference championship in seven of the past eight seasons.

Pregenzer Is Hoping For A Return Trip To S.F. Giants

AWAITING RETURN—John Pregenzer, a 6-5, 220-pound schoolteacher, is pitching for the Tacoma Giants, a San Francisco farm club, with high hopes of returning to the varsity. (AP Wirephoto)

It Would Mean A Rebirth For His Fan Club

By JACK HEWINS

TACOMA (AP)—Big John Pregenzer is putting a little extra into every pitch these days — he's in a hurry to get back to the San Francisco Giants and his fan club.

"I'll be back," he says confidently. "I guess — I hope — they'll be waiting."

John Arthur Pregenzer, a 6-foot-5, 220-pound school teacher, is perhaps the only player ever to have a fan club before he pitched an inning in the major leagues.

$100 PURCHASE

It happened when Novella O'Hara, a roving photographer and feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle, read that the Giants had bought Pregenzer from the Pocatello club for $100.

She didn't know big, strong athletes could be bought so cheaply. So she telephoned Chub Feeney, vice president of the Giants, and offered him $125 for the pitcher—a 25 per cent profit.

"He's not for sale," Feeney said, a bit shaken by the incident. "This man is no freak. Don't make a character out of him."

FORMS CLUB

Miss O'Hara could not be deterred. Unable to buy the pitcher, she did the next best thing. She formed a Pregenzer Fan Club, which mushroomed with thousands of members, including such promient people as Pierre Salinger and Pete Rozelle.

There was one trouble. He couldn't make it with the Giants. He pitched in six games without a decision. Then he was shipped to Tacoma.

FIVE WINS

Big John liked this. He decided that San Francisco was the place for him. He finished the season at Tacoma, where he pitched in 62 games and had a 6-2 record. So far this year he has won five and lost two and has an earned run average of 2.39.

Charley Fox, manager of the Tacoma team in the Pacific Coast League, thinks he has found the proper role for Big John—a short term relief specialist.

"He keeps the ball low—makes 'em hit on the ground," says Fox.

ites win, the Indians losing to the White Sox 5-1. In the only other American League game played, the New York Yankees defeated Minnesota 9-7.

In other National League action, Pittsburgh whipped San Francisco 4-2, the Chicago Cubs edged St. Louis 2-1, Cincinnati downed Milwaukee 6-3 and Houston beat the New York Mets 7-3.

Koufax, bringing his record to 6-4 with the 99th victory of his career, struck out 12 Phillies, and thus tied another record. It was the 54th time in his career he had struck out 10 or more batters, equalling the mark previously shared by Feller and Rube Waddell.

Koufax got the only runs he needed when Frank Howard hit his 14th homer in the seventh inning off Chris Short following singles by Gilliam and Tommy Davis.

FASTEST GAME

The Cubs and Cardinals played the season's fastest game in the N.L., 1 hour, 42 minutes, Ron Santo's two-run homer in the fourth providing Chicago's runs while Charley James homered for St. Louis. It was Santo's third homer in three games and gave Dick Ellsworth, 7-4, the edge against Bob Gibson, 5-2, in a battle of six-hitters.

Frank Robinson's second home run of the game, a three-run shot in the ninth, gave the Reds their victory. The Braves pulled off a triple play in the second inning when Leo Cardenas lined to Mike de la Hoz with two men on. The second baseman flipped to shortstop Denis Menke for the second out and the relay to first nailed No. 3.

Dick Farrell brought his record to 8-1 against the Mets with 3⅔ innings of no-hit relief work by Don Larson. The Colts, meanwhile, collected 15 hits—four each by Bob Lillis and Eddie Kasko—and were aided by four New York errors.

Yacht Clubs Will Race For SYRA Perpetual Trophy

Racing for the Small Yacht Racing Assn. Perpetual Challenge Trophy will be held this weekend.

The Sausalito Yacht Club has accepted the challenge from the St. Francis Yacht Club. The affair will be a best two-out-of-three series. Two races will be held tomorrow in Richardson Bay and if necessary, the third race will be held off the St. Francis Yacht Club on Sunday.

Pete Sutter in his Mercury "Gusto" is the challenger with Tom Blackhaller crewing for him. Jim Enzensperger will defend for Sausalito with his Mercury "Frenzy Too" with Mark Shafer crewing.

The Sausalito Yacht Club has successfully defended the trophy against all comers since its donation by Phil Wallace in 1958. Past challengers have been made in Stars, 110's and Mercuries.

A Big Catch

Don Bissattini of 11 Willow Avenue, Larkspur, struck it rich fishing at Kent Lake Wednesday, bringing in three rainbow trout. The weights were six, four and three and one-half pounds.

Fishing Stamp Picture Confusing; Salmon Trolling Is Sizzling Hot

STEVENS

The Chinese have a saying: "One picture is worth ten thousand words." But Audrey Payne of the San Lorenzo Bait and Tackle takes exception. For the 10th time last week she had to use many words to convince a buyer of a sport-fishing license that the picture on the fishing stamps doesn't mean a thing. "They insist," she said, "that the fact that the picture on the stamp for inland fish depicts (and is titled) 'Steelhead' and the stamp for trout also has the picture of a steelhead. It confuses people!" I agree, Audrey! Seems they could have the pix of, say a brook trout instead of a steelhead. We all know that a steelhead is a trout, but the stamp allowing one to take any inland waters fish such as a catfish, black bass, crappie etc. INCLUDES the steelhead. So, pay no attention to the picture. You still must have two stamps in addition to your basic license if you would fish for all species of fish or mollusks and crustaceans, including all trout EXCEPT steelhead. Savy?

OKAY, NOW let's have a look-see at the current fishing in the local areas. Salmon trolling is apparently sizzling hot. Tony Caruso of Sausalito reported limit catches the rule for all boats out of his place. Suggested I listen to radio report by skipper of Salmon Queen—Al Collins' broadcast on KSFO. I did. The skipper was on the way back with limits of salmon, all nice fish, bigger than usual. Looks mighty good for as long as the many large schools stick around between Light Ship and Islands.

BASS TROLLING, as well as live bait fishing in the upper San Pablo is paying off in great shape, early in the mornings and late in the evenings. Carl Bennett reported best results this year. Limits and near limits over the weekend by party boats and skiffs. Best by Union Oil Wharf but also very good in deeper water. Bennett was aboard the Bluefish with others, all using live bait and was back in port by 11:30 a.m. with limits. That was on Tuesday, the same day in the same area, but trolling with jigs and spoons, the Two Dares was also back in port at 11:30 with seven limits of nice stripers. Nadine Lessley of Dowrelio's Crockett Harbor was very enthusiastic over the swell fishing being had by the party boats from her place.

"Lots of fish taken by late trollers over the weekend," she told me. On Sunday, the Happy Days was in with limits all around by 1 p.m. On Monday the Happy Days unloaded 16 nice bass to 16 pounds trolling between the Center Pier and Oleum. At the same time the Sunfish, in the same area, netted six limits of bass in the 8-to-10 pound class. On Tuesday only four trollers showed up but they all had limits, and two private boats trolled the Center Pier area and brought in limits of dandy bass.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Gracie Quan for the two nice 10-pound stripers she landed Tuesday night trolling near the Brothers. Alice Quan mentioned that bait fishing is very slow but some nice catches have been made by trollers in the very early morning or the late evening in the Sisters sector.

So prospects look very good for weekend fishing.

Denver Invaders May Be Moved As Ticket Sales Lag

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—The ticket sale designed to keep the Denver Invaders in the Western Hockey League appears to be falling short of the mark, Stafford Smythe said yesterday.

Smythe is owner of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League with which the Invaders are affiliated.

The WHL at its annual meeting last month gave the invaders until June 30 to sell 2,000 season tickets.

Smythe said only 700 have been sold so far and that it doesn't look as if the rest will be sold.

The WHL said if the Denver sales campaign fell short "other arrangements will be made."

Smythe said he would consider moving the club to Victoria, B.C.

By ALFRED MATSON

After a three week respite for the majority of the yacht racing fraternity, the action resumes this weekend, with a full-blown, two-day, regatta under the two-fold sponsorship of the Richmond and Berkeley yacht clubs.

That is the setup for many classes and divisions which race under the aegis of the Yacht Racing Assn. of San Francisco Bay. Boats racing in the Cruising Club and Division categorys will furnish the nautical drama tomorrow and the Classes will have to bide their time until Sunday. All starts, and finishes, will be between the Southampton Turn Buoy and the Committee Boat. Said buoy lies near mid center in the bay between Angel Island and the Berkeley shoreline and, needless to say, the spectators will be sparse.

Cruising Club "A" will head tomorrow's contingent with a 11:30 a.m. start, on Sunday it will be the International One Design class first in the line of battle with a start at 10:30 a.m.

Once again, the lads and lassie, less than 18 years old, will match wits, and tiller dexterity, for the Delmas Cup, symbolic of the Bay Junior Championship. Each yacht club may enter a team, of skipper and one crewman, and a Blue Jay class sloop. A series of races will be held tomorrow and Sunday at the Richmond Y. C. and the winning team will be presented with the Delmas Perpetual Trophy.

In commemoration of the completion of its extensive remodeling project, the Corinthian Y. C. is holding open house for all bay area yachtsmen tomorrow and Sunday.

Lightweights Vie In Video Fight Tonight

Both are aiming high. Bizzarro, rated No. 1 or No. 2 in the junior lightweight—130 pounds—class by the various rankings, is anxious for another shot at Flash Elorde's title. Narvaez, No. 7 or No. 8 in the rankings among Carlos Ortiz' contenders in the lightweight class, hopes to graduate to a championship bout.

Bizzarro has a 46-7-2 record dating back to 1958.

The 10-round match will be carried on network (ABC) television at 10 p.m., PDT.

Molina Wins Nod—Booed

OAKLAND (AP)—Junior welterweight Luis Molina of San Jose won the referee but didn't influence many people in defeating Tony Perez last night in Oakland Auditorium.

The hard-hitting Molina got the nod over Perez after a brawling 10-round scrap. But the decision was greeted by boos by most of the 2,000 paying customers.

HOT NEWS FROM DILLON'S POINT

Plug casting at Dillon's Point has revived. Suetta Lagrone of the point called Ralph Stevens, the Fishin' Fool, to enthuse over sudden improvement in plug casting.

"A number of limits of bass to 19 pounds have been taken the past few days. Get yourselves a Creek Club Pikie Minnow No. 703 and give it a go," says Suetta.

Artist Pablo Picasso spent no more than five minutes and drew only 14 lines in this sketch of William Shakespeare, but London art patron Roland Penrose values the drawing at $2,800, as a magnificent art work. The 8x10-inch sketch will be copied and enlarged to 5x4-foot size to be hung in the Shakespeare exhibition at the Bard's birthplace in Stratford-on-Avon. (AP Wirephoto)

West Marin Livestock Parade Attracts Entries

William Thompson, parade chairman again this year, reports the event is going to be at least as big and colorful as in past years, probably more so.

He is still encouraging and taking entries. Band masters, drill team captains, drum majors, owners of old cars, funny costumes and anyone else interested may call or write him at Inverness Store.

There are already five drum corps signed up, including the St. Mary's Chinese Girls' Drum Corps and the State champion Blue Devils.

There will be at least two antique fire engines and several old cars.

The 22nd Army Band of Oakland and the Tomales High School Band will be among the marchers. Also providing spirited music will be the Canadian Legion Piper Band. The Golden Knights of Richmond, the Treasure Island Drill Team and the Travis Air Force Base Drill Team will also march.

A horse-drawn hearse belonging to Frank J. Keaton will be among the many horse and horse and carriage entries.

"I figure it's about an hour long already, and the entries are still coming in," Thompson said.

THE FIRST two-story house to be built in Lucas Valley, that of the Jerry Huffs at 872 Appleberry will also be a stop on the June 13 afternoon tour to benefit the Sunny Hills Home in San Anselmo. Previewing the tour of homes and gardens are, Mrs. Lawrence G. Williams, top, and Mesdames David A. Hurd, left, and James H. Ray. "The Valley Then and Now" is the theme of the benefit event. (Independent-Journal photos by Bob Hax)

'Valley Then, Now' House Tour Theme

"The Valley Then and Now" is the theme for the house tour in Lucas Valley to be held June 13 from 3 to 5 p.m. Sponsor of the sixth annual tour is the Lucas Valley Guild of Sunny Hills.

ONE OF THE tour highlights will be the school house built in 1886, one of the oldest buildings in Lucas Valley. In 1952 it was converted into a home by the R. L. Barbers, who are the current owners.

Another home on the tour is that of the D. R. MacWilliams, whose is the first model Eichler home in the area. Next will be the Jerry Huff Eichler house, which was the first to have a second floor in the Lucas Valley area.

ALSO ON THE tour route are two of newest to be built in upper Lucas Valley, those of the J. M. Hamerens and H. A. Browns.

Tour guests are invited to enjoy refreshments in the gardens of the Wellington Glovers, while the Mannequin League of Marin presents a fashion showing.

The Marinwood Garden Club will do the flower arrangements to be set in each of the tour homes.

MRS. WELLINGTON Glover and Mrs. Richard O'Brien are chairmen for the tour, which will take a grape theme to mark the 65th anniversary of Sunny Hills home in San Anselmo.

Tickets are available from Mrs. William Lane of Lucas Valley and at each home.

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Until the model stepped into the New York-Christian Dior showroom in a costume hemmed at midcalf, the chic audience previewing the fall collection was relaxed and gay.

Then the buyers here for Fashion Market Week stiffened to attention. Yet this length, reminiscent of the no longer New Look length, was not meant for daytime wear and there were only a scattered few in the large collection.

IT WAS NOT even new. Designers Pauline Trigere and Vera Maxwell are proponents of this intermediate skirt length for theater and at-home wear. But one buyer shivered, saying, "I'd hate for this to happen again."

Obviously a dropped hemline in a Dior collection still has a traumatic effect, even in New York by a protege of the late Dior, Gaston Berthelet, many years after this drastic fashion change made wardrobes obselete overnight.

THE NEWS AT the preview was a diversified and sophisticated collection focused around a silhouette spare at the shoulders, eased or loosely belted at the waist, slim over the hips, and then pleated or gored jauntily at the knee.

DARK STOCKINGS or Jacquard-patterned silk ones, low-heeled walking shoes as well as snoods and byzantine-twisted dome hats that made hairdos absolutely unnecessary, were part of the daytime story.

Senior Citizens To Hold Fashion Show On Thursday

The Senior Citizens of San Rafael will hold their annual fashion show on Thursday at 1 p.m. in the San Rafael Community Center, 7 Union St., San Rafael.

Mrs. Joseph Foran is models chairman. Showing fashions will be Mesdames Vreeland March, Andrew Curtin, Ralph Schubert, Harry Smith, Chris Hillers, August Vanderyerk and Ernest Janusch.

Reservations may be made at the Community Center.

Canton Auxiliary To Have Luncheon

A hot dish and salad luncheon will be served June 12 in Odd Fellows Temple, San Rafael by the Ladies Auxiliary to Canton San Rafael 39, Patriarchs Militant. Hours for the luncheon will be 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.

Proceeds will be donated to the Odd Fellows Eye Bank and to Guide Dogs for the Blind in San Rafael.

Mrs. Alexander Walker, president, is luncheon chairman, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth Irwin and the membership.

Tiny Tot Graduation Planned For Tomorrow

The Tiny Tot Music School in Mill Valley will have its first graduation program tomorrow at 1 p.m. at the home of the teacher, Mrs. L. F. Parada. Participating will be Glenn Himebaugh, Timmy Breece, Lisa Lannen, Odette Heideman, Nanette Vogelheim, Carol Einevoldsen, Louise and David Robinson, Jeff Collor, Kenneth Burkhard, Kathy Ringen, Bob and Diane Gaskill and Anne and Marie Maxton.

HOLDING THE LADDER

Cost Of Getting Married Has Risen Sharply In Past Decade

By MARGERY McELHENY
United Press International

The cost of getting married has risen so sharply in the past decade that the father of the bride couldn't be blamed much for holding the ladder while daughter elopes.

By the time the bride gets ready to toss her bouquet, the average dad will be lucky to have only $800 worth of bills stacked on his desk, according to a survey of wedding costs in 10 cities by United Press International.

AND, IF THE invitation list mounts to more than the average 200 guests, dad can add a minimum of $3.00 for each additional person.

However, most people choose church weddings rather than ceremonies at city hall, the survey showed, and usually receptions are held for relatives and friends afterwards.

THE RECEPTION, including food and liquor costs, is where the real expenses mount, and any economies on weddings today are concentrated more on paring the guest list rather than cutting costs of wedding gowns, flowers or photographers.

But limiting the guest list carn be a touchy task, especially since the engaged couple's parents frequently view the wedding reception as an occasion to repay business and social obligations, and hesitate to eliminate acquaintances for fear of slighting them.

THE TOTAL cost of weddings, therefore, depends more on the type of reception given, where it is held, what kind of food and liquor are served and how many guests are invited.

Receptions held in hotels were much more costly than those held in banquet halls or large suburban restaurants.

BRIDES CONTINUE to wear the traditional white bridal gown but they are paying more money for less quality than 10 years ago, the survey showed.

A New York City bridal shop buyer said average prices ranged from $200-300. "Brides definitely are interested in fashion," the buyer said, "And for this reason are paying more for imported gowns than they used to."

A Chicago department store reported selling more gowns in the $300-500 range" but most girls spend $150 for their dresses.

Add the costs of shoes, veil, gloves and other accessories and the average bride will be wearing more than $200 worth of clothes as she walks down the aisle.

FLORAL COSTS depend on whether flowers are used to decorate the church and the reception site in addition to those used in the wedding party.

Florists in San Francisco said most couples spend $75 on flowers. A Marion, Ill., florist said he supplied $25 of flowers for most weddings 10 years ago but that the average order now is $80.

A Chicago florist said the average order was $75-$100 but that "Flowers cost up to $3,000 in very fine weddings."

A Detroit fad is to decorate cars in the wedding motorcade with artificial flowers made out of facial tissue.

Photographers costs started at $50 but the average order, including black and white candid shots, was $150. In Denver, black and white albums sold for $60 each and color for $90.

A Chicago photographer said 60 per cent of all wedding pictures were done in color today, compared to 10 years ago when almost all were in black and white.

It is still traditional in most cities for the bride's family to assume most of the costs, but the bride herself is paying for more of the wedding, the survey showed.

Brides, especially those who have been employed for several years before their marriage, often pay for the invitations, the dress and the pictures, but dad still gets stuck with the reception bills, the survey showed.

Marin Women

Construction Women Will Elect Officers At Meeting

The second meeting of the future chapter of Women in Construction of Marin will be held on Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Ghilotti Brothers, 525 Jacoby St., San Rafael.

Membership is open for the charter group in Marin, announces Barbara Stamper of San Rafael, who explains that it is a business organization for women actively employed in the construction industry.

A group of 25 women met for the initial meeting May 27 at Miss Stamper's home, when three members of the San Francisco chapter were on hand to answer questions about the group. They were Evelyn Hertzberg, national treasurer of the organization, Agnes Purvis and Marie Lustig, region 10 officers.

At the Wednesday meeting officers will be elected and bylaws approved.

THE BETTER HALF By Bob Barnes

Clark-Smith Vows Traded

At a double ring ceremony in San Anselmo at the Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church Ruth R. Smith became the bride of Forrest Buckley Clark of Hialeah, Fla. The bride is the mother of Mrs. Barbara Fenston of Sleepy Hollow.

The Rev. Gene W. Burris was the officiating minister at the May 23 rites. Escorted to the altar by her grandson, Steve Fenston, and daughter, Mrs. Fenston, the bride wore a light blue sheath dress.

DUCKING THE CLOUDS

San Rafael Bethel To Install Officers At Ceremony Sunday

Elizabeth Ann Denison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Denison of San Rafael, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 48, International Order of Job's Daughters on Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, San Rafael.

A junior at San Rafael High School, Elizabeth has served on the student congress and is a member of the choir.

Appointed officers to be installed are Jane Fairweather, outer guard; Carla Hansen, inner guard; Janita Ringchap, junior custodian; Suzzanne Leisure, senior custodian; Doris Austin, librarian; Laurel Bardleson, musician; Jean Douglas, recorder; Catherine Del Pino, treasurer; Deana Bertch, chaplain; and Sandra Miller, Ellen Ostern, Deane Bowman, Pamela Aubel and Susan Scott, messengers.

ELIZABETH DENISON

Hostess for the evening will be Jeanette Hill.

Karen Peterson, retiring honored queen, will be the installing officer. Assisting will be Prudence Parker, Wylma Black, Carolyn Weiss, Patricia Slayton, Christine Janda, Beverly Breithaupt and Dorrie Ericson.

A reception and dance will follow the ceremony. Mrs. Millicent Denison is guardian and Henry Aubel, associate guardian of Bethel 48.

Store On Top

It's best to store those clean and fluffy blankets on top of the storage stack over the summer months. If crushed, the tiny air spaces in the "nap" which retain body warmth as you lie under them will disappear and the blanket will lose its warming power.

Eight Marinites Capped At Sonoma

They include Mesdames Jack Greenfield, H. A. Woolhouse, Gerard Carney, Albert Vanbianchi, Paul Mackey, Robert Caughell, A. H. Laidlaw and Miss Margaret Niederer.

Mrs. Thomas Brown of San Rafael, Marin delegate to the North Bay Council, announced that volunteers are needed to sew garments for the hospital. Any group interested in doing the sewing may contact Mrs. Brown at the Marin American Red Cross headquarters in San Rafael.

Mt. Carmel's Club Planning Installation

Highlights of Wednesday's meeting of the Mount Carmel Women's Club in Mill Valley will be installation of officers in a candlelight ceremony and a talk by Mrs. William George Fahy.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in the lower meeting hall of the church.

Mrs. Fahy will show colored slides of Formosa, the home of her missionary son, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene E. Fahy, S. J., who planned and built the first Catholic church in Hsinchy.

The Rev. Francis Scanlon, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, will also address the group.

Mrs. William Trewatha of the National Council of Catholic Women will conduct the installation ceremony.

Marin MAGAZINE
Bright reading for the whole week

Featured this Saturday:

The Marin Magazine tomorrow introduces a new series, "Your County Parks," to acquaint Marinites with the facilities available to them in their county owned and maintained parks. Tomorrow's subject — The Paradise Beach County Park. Other recreational spots in the county park system will be spotlighted in the weeks to come.

While many of us relax during the vacation months ahead, one band of young Marinites will be living under primitive conditions while performing strenuous work—without compensation other than personal satisfaction. Marin Magazine editor Don Keown reports on these young International Student Worker Corps recruits in tomorrow's I-J supplement.

Nobody laughs when 6-year-old Tommy Macfarlane of Tiburon sits down at the piano. Not when he plays Bach, Beethoven and Tchaikovski with the skill and confidence of an adult virtuoso. This piano prodigy has been amazing Marin's music lovers with his recital performances. I-J music writer Maybelle Speckman tells you about him tomorrow.

Marin's own magazine . . . picturing and reporting life in Marin today . . . personalities, recreation, coming events, book reviews, gardening, music, home improvement, weekly TV log. A week of good reading. Look for it, Saturdays.

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1950, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled unanimously that segregation practices in southern railroad dining cars and in two southern universities were invalid.

In 1962, an Air France 707 jet airliner crashed at Paris, killing 130, including 121 from Atlanta, Ga., on an European art study visit.

In 1963, British War Secretary John Profumo resigned after admitting he had lied to Parliament in denying "impropriety" with Christine Keeler.

South	West	North	East
1 ♠	2 ♣	2 ♠	Pass
Pass	3 ♣	3 ♠	All Pass

Opening lead — ♣ K

West opens the king of clubs, and East can, if he chooses, begin a signal with the eight of clubs.

CLUB QUEEN

This will induce West to continue with the queen of clubs, on which East will play the four to show that he started with only two clubs.

Upon being given this information, West will surely lead a third club, permitting East to over-ruff the dummy. After this brisk beginning, however, the defense grinds to a halt. East can take only one heart trick.

If he fails to take it at once, East will get his one heart trick later but he can get nothing else. South will make the contact.

POOR SIGNAL

If the contract is made in this way East has only himself to blame. East should not begin a high-low signal in clubs when he really doesn't want a club continuation.

He should suppress the information about the doubleton in clubs.

East must play the four of clubs at the first trick, thus discouraging a club continuation. West will naturally shift to the ten of hearts, which produces three heart tricks for the defenders.

HEART TRICKS

After taking three heart tricks East can switch back to clubs, after which West can still give East the club ruff. This defense defeats the contract two tricks instead of letting South make it.

The point is that East must signal only for what he wants, not merely to give his partner useless information.

QUESTION

♠ J
♥ 10 9 3
♦ 9 6 4
♣ A K Q 7 5 3.
What do you say?

Answer: Pass.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid despite the excellence of the club suit. There would be some excuse for opening bid despite the excellence of the club suit. There would be some excuse for opening the bidding if your long suit were spades or hearts.

Charming Older Home
Absolute Privacy

Listed this Friday — this charming 3-bedrm., 2-bath home is set on a wooded, yet open and sunny lot, with a magnificent view of wooded hills. The patio is most unusual and peaceful. Wisteria vines, small waterfall, red brick, old gnarled tree trunks are some of its ingredients. If desired the home could quite easily be converted to 2 living units, and would show an excellent return.

NOTICE OF INTENT TO SELL SURPLUS PROPERTY

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN of the adoption by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin on the 26th day of May, 1964, of a resolution to dispose of real property hereinafter described.

Conditions of said sale are as follows:

1. Minimum acceptable price is $1,000.00.

2. Terms: Cash or certified check in the amount of ten per cent (10%) of the bid price payable at time of acceptance by the Board; the remainder to be paid within thirty (30) days.

3. No real estate commission shall be paid by the County of Marin in connection with said sale.

NOTICE IS FURTHER GIVEN that a public meeting of the Board of Supervisors will be held at its regular place of meeting, to wit: Board of Supervisors Chambers, Civic Center, San Rafael, California, on the 9th day of June, 1964, at 1:30 o'clock P.M., for public hearing upon said matter, at which time sealed proposals to purchase said property will be received and considered. All written proposals for the purchase of said property must be received by the Clerk of the Board of Supervisors on or before the time and date heretofore set for hearing upon said matter.

The property which is the subject of said sale is located within the County of Marin, State of California, and is known as the Old Capella Property, and is described as follows:

Beginning at the southeast corner of the northeast one-quarter of Section 25, Township 4 North, Range 8 West, M.D.B. and M., said point also being the most southerly corner of the tract of land conveyed to the County of Marin by grant deed recorded March 14, 1964, in book 1666 at page 533, Official Records of Marin County, State of California; thence along the easterly line of said section North 1° West, 235.00 feet to the true point of beginning; thence still along the said easterly line North 1° West, 253.40 feet to post in fence; thence leaving said Section line South 82° 15' West, 132.00 feet to a stake; thence South 54° West 753.06 feet to a stake on the south boundary of the northeast one-quarter of said section; thence along said line South 87° 45' East, 80.00 feet; thence North 72° 26' 43" East, 696.97 feet to the true point of beginning.

Persons interested in the purchase of said property are directed to Section 25363 of the Government Code of the State of California.

NOTICE TO PAY ASSESSMENTS PARADISE CAY MAP NO. 2

NOTICE IS HEREBY GIVEN that all owners of real property liable to be assessed to pay the costs and expenses of the acquisitions and improvements described in Resolution of Intention No. 7964-B, adopted by the Board of Supervisors of the County of Marin on March 31, 1964, are hereby notified that on May 14, 1964, the assessment and diagram to pay the costs and expenses of said acquisitions and improvements was recorded in my office.

Said assessments are due and payable immediately at Treasurer-Tax Collector's Office, Civic Center, San Rafael, California, and must be paid within the period expiring June 15, 1964.

In the event of the failure to pay before the expiration of said period, serial bonds to represent the unpaid assessments and bearing interest at the rate of not to exceed six per cent (6%) per annum will be issued pursuant to the Improvement Act of 1911, and the last installment of such bonds shall mature not to exceed fourteen (14) years from the second day of January next succeeding the next September 1st following their date. Said bonds shall be made payable to bearer and provide a premium of 5% of the unmatured principal thereof on call.

To the Honorable Sanitary Board of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District of Marin County, State of California

The undersigned Petitioners respectfully represent:

That they are the owners of real property within the territory hereinafter described, which real property represents at least seventy-five per cent (75%) of the total assessed valuation of the territory as shown by the last equalized County assessment roll, and do hereby petition that all of the territory be annexed to the Richardson Bay Sanitary District, Marin County, State of California;

That the territory proposed to be annexed is not within any other sanitary district and is in the same County as the Richardson Bay Sanitary District, to-wit: County of Marin;

That the territory is contiguous to the District and that its exterior boundaries are particularly described in Exhibit "A" hereto attached and by reference made a part hereof;

That the total assessed valuation of the territory proposed to be annexed as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Marin, is $160,740.00;

That the assessed valuation of the portions thereof owned by the undersigned Petitioners as shown by said roll is set opposite their respective names and that the total assessed valuation of all portions owned by them is $157,320.00, which is at least seventy-five per cent (75%) of the total assessed valuation of the territory proposed to be annexed as shown by said roll.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners pray that the territory be annexed to said District in the manner provided in Article 3 of Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Sweating feet is a common problem during warm, humid weather. Many disregard the condition because they think relief is out of the question. Cure may be difficult but it is surprising how much can be done to keep it under control.

Dusting powder and lightweight summer shoes help but most victims have tried this simple plan with little success. These people will benefit from a new foot powder containing 2 per cent Prantal, applied twice a day. A cream containing this chemical also is available. Prantal has been used orally to inhibit sweating, but the effect is fleeting and users complain of dryness of the mouth and blurring of vision. These symptoms do not occur when the product is incorporated into a dusting powder or cream.

FOOT POWDERS containing aluminum chloride also are useful. On the other hand, an attempt should be made to determine the cause of excessive sweating.

Some sufferers are high-strung or under an emotional strain. Others have a skin eruption on the feet. Contact dermatitis, for example, may be due to one or more of the dozens of plastics and chemicals used in footwear. The possibility should be considered when redness, rash, and excessive perspiration develop shortly after wearing new shoes. Ringworm also is associated with profuse sweating and here fungicides are needed.

SWEAT, AS secreted, is odorless but it may acquire a fetid smell (bromhidrosis) as it mixes with the products of bacterial decomposition. Various micro-organisms growing on the wet skin produce punfent fatty acids and other compounds. Now and then the odor stems from food substances or chemicals that are absorbed by the blood and excreted by the sweat glands.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CARBON MONOXIDE

G. K. writes: Does chronic carbon monoxide poisoning leave lasting bad effect on the body?

REPLY

No. Chronic exposure does not produce chronic poisoning; it causes repeated episodes of mild acute poisoning. These intermittent day-to-day exposures are not cumulative—that is, the gas does not build up in the system and damage the brain.

SHAVING BEFORE SURGERY

B. F. writes: Does a woman's face have to be shaved before plastic surgery is started?

REPLY

Only women with beards. If face lifting is to be done, for example, it may be necessary to shave the hair line of the scalp when an incision is made in this area. The hair grows back and hides the scar.

Blast Sends Rock Through Patio Door

A dynamite blast on a Highway 101 construction project sent a rock crashing through a patio door into a Marinwood home shortly after 11 a.m. yesterday.

At that time rocks smashed through the top part of Gazdik's fence and rolled into the yard within a few feet of Mrs. Gazdik and her three-year-old son, Johnny.

Mrs. Gezdik said she and her two children were not in the yard yesterday when the blast occurred. "We were out there earlier but we came into the house when it started to drizzle."

She said she did not receive any warning yesterday that there would be a blast. The neighbors were alerted to a blast Wednesday afternoon which did not send any rocks their way, she said.

The blasting is being conducted at the Highway 101 widening and realignment along St. Vincent's Hill by contractors Syar-Harms and Gordon H. Ball Inc.

A Novato dynamite blast for a septic tank hole in June, 1962, led to a Marin Conuty Grand Jury recommendation for proper licensing and restriction of persons doing blasting in the county.

A study of regulations was made by County Administrator Alan Bruce, after which he reported the state is responsible for control over contractors doing blasting.

Redwood High Named As Brazilian Stand-In

This year in its first appearance at the conference, Redwood represented Algeria. The most important and controversial countries are assigned to schools with the best past performance, preparation, and experience, said Mrs. Marge Neubauer, American Government teacher at Redwood.

An all-time high of 1.76 billion dollars worth of property was destroyed by fire in this country in 1963.

Shaggy Dog Plagues Young Lovers

By LES DARD

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Fun is the fare in the double bill on Sunday:

"Wild and Wonderful" is a shaggy dog story, of a poodle named Monsieur Cognac. The dog is a French film star and the bread and butter of beauteous Christine Kaufman, her domineering father and her ugly uncle.

When Christine meets jazz musician Tony Curtis, the wily dog and papa join to make their romance a bumpy one—right up to and including the wedding night, where the sassy pup is an unwelcome third.

Finally Curtis solves the problem by introducing the poodle to a showgirl dog of the same breed, and thereafter M. Cognac is too preoccupied with his own love affair to interfere with others.

Co-featured is "The Dream Maker," a pleasant, lightweight British musical that ambles along a well trodden path. Tommy Steele, a young promoter in a big recording company, stoges a benefit to save an orphanage threatened by money troubles.

The story serves as a showcase for English recording artists. Its glimpses into the world of pop music-making are interesting. There are many appealing tunes, well delivered.

MOTOR MOVIES

Another returnee is "It's Only Money," in which harebrained Jerry Lewis romps as a TV repairman with a yen to be a private detective.

His first case is to uncover the heir to a fortune. It turns out to be—you guessed it—Jerry himself.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Elizabeth Montgomery, Jill St. John and Carol Burnett are worked into the fluff.

ONE LEG of the triangle in Universal's Tony Curtis-Christine Kaufmann romantic comedy in color, "Wild and Wonderful," is provided by Monsieur Cognac, who is introduced through this role playing an imbibing canine jealous of his Mistress's boy friend, opening Sunday at the Tamalpais.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Peter Sellers moves to Mill Valley Sunday in "The World of Henry Orient," which is made the more engaging by the pixyish presence of two teenage girls, Tippy Walker and Merrie Spaeth.

RAFAEL THEATER

The hero, of course, is Fleming's intrepid James Bond, British secret agent 007—played again by Sean Connery.

Spectre, an international crime syndicate, sets out to trap Bond. They tip the British about a Russian cipher machine in the embassy in Istanbul. For bait they supply lovely Daniela Bianchi.

Bond isn't fooled—naturally —but gambles he can get the code machine and get away, too.

101 DRIVE-IN

Reeves plays a Roman centurion sent by Caesar under the guise of an ambassador to spy on the court of the treacherous Grassus. Secretly, he also leads a revolt of slaves, in the tradition of his father, Spartacus.

Making headquarters in a desert city and disguised in his father's face-concealing helmet, he makes raids in the cause of justice.

NOVATO THEATER

"Lilies of the Field" earned Sidney Poitier his Best Actor award. He plays a wandering Negro handyman who helps a group of refugee nuns build a chapel on a desolate plot of land in Arizona.

This film's charm defies description, but don't miss it.

"Hud," the co-feature, won the Best Actress award for Patricia Neal, Best Supporting Actor for Melvyn Douglas and a nomination for its star, Paul Newman.

FAIRFAX THEATER

With us for another rich weekend is the Best Picture of 1963, "Tom Jones," bawdy comedy triumph that takes us romping back to 18th century England.

Albert Finney plays the title role of Squire Alworthy's adopted son. He is rebellious, amusing and brave—an irresistible to the ladies.

There are moments of laughter that will bring tears to your eyes.

For adults.

LARK THEATER

Downtown Plans Due Hub Council

Proposals for minor downtown improvements will be presented to the San Anselmo City Council Tuesday by a representative of the San Anselmo Homes Assn.

William A. Clark, chairman of the association's town center committee, said yesterday he is going to propose that the council consider action on several "immediate and relatively small' projects that will be compatible with long range plans.

The association is seeking to have the Campbell Master Plan for downtown San Anselmo carried out by the city.

Plan Is Approved

Sausalito planning commissioners Wednesday approved the tentative map of Mead Terrace, a re-subdivision of four lots to nine lots on Prospect Avenue, Chairman Robert L. Nissen said today.

Marinwood Directors Vote Landscape Delay

The board of the Marinwood Community Services District last night decided to turf the area near the community swimming pool, now under construction, but to delay other landscaping until at least fall.

The board decided to keep the community center open during the summer from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. A tiny tot program for children 3 to 5 years old was approved, to start probably in July. Sign-up days at the center for pool memberships were changed from June 13 and 14 to June 20 and 21.

Church, School Shared-Time Plan Backed

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Council of Churches, a major Protestant and Orthodox agency, has endorsed an experimental shared-time program under which Roman Catholic children attend both parochial and public schools.

The program is intended to lighten the financial burden on parents whose children attend Church-operated schools.

The council's General Board said in a policy statement yesterday the shared time program is "a viable provision for those who, for conscience sake, maintain separate schools." It is used in 300 schools in 35 states.

The statement noted that increasing costs of education had caused Roman Catholics to ask for public funds for parochial schools and that in general Protestants have opposed the request.

Leydecker Taking Trip To Mexico

Marin County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker left Marin County for a vacation in Mexico today. He will return on June 17.

The board of supervisors is scheduled to hold a hearing on county salaries on June 15, but Leydecker said he hoped the rest of the board would delay decision until he returns.

The supervisor said he plans to spend his time at Puerto Vallarto on the west coast of Mexico. He said he chose the location partly because there are no telephones there.

Sailor To School

Cities' Merger Squeaks Through

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A ballot proposal calling for the merger of the cities of North Sacramento and Sacramento squeaked through by only 22 votes, a recheck of the returns showed yesterday.

Absentee ballots were to be counted.

The recheck put the official tally at 2,025 for the merger and 2,002 against it, including one absentee ballot. An earlier court had the proposed merger passing by more than 200 votes.

Larkspur's Chamber Backs Apartment Plan

Larkspur Chamber of Commerce voted yesterday to support the five-million-dollar, 12-story retirement center to be built on the south side of Bon Air Hill.

Dr. John C. Siemens, head of the developers, Valley Investment Co., described the project to chamber directors. The Larkspur City Council early yesterday granted a variance to permit the 140-foot high structure, and declared its intention to grant a use permit.

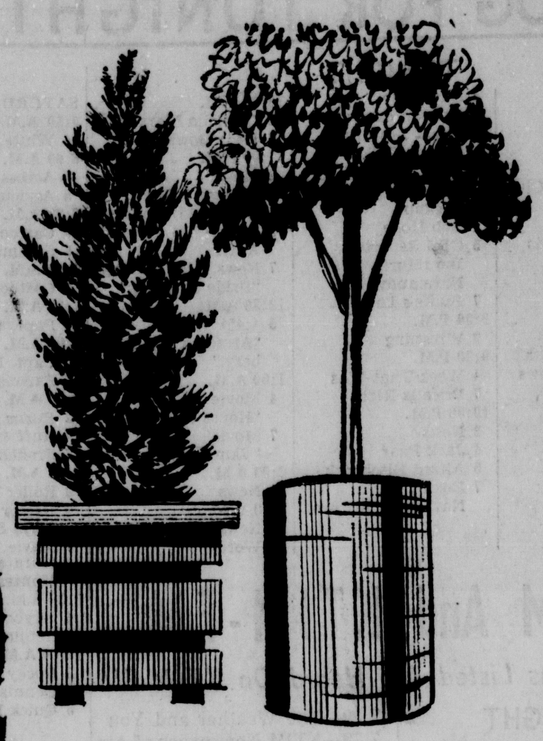
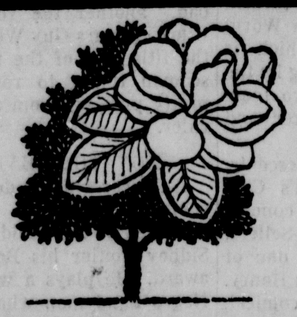
Tree Sale



These specials good thru Sunday, June 14

• SHADE TREES • FLOWERING TREES
• GROUND COVERS • ESPALIERS



FLOWERING TREES

Southern Magnolia

A magnificent addition to a garden. Plant as a specimen and protect from the wind. Will bear large, white, fragrant blossoms set off by the rich, dark, glossy green foliage. Prefers moist, rich, well drained soil.

Crabapple

Can be used as lawn specimen or for mass planting. Loads of blossoms make this favorite a thing of beauty in the spring. An extremely hardy, adaptable tree. Will flourish in a wide variety of conditions. Flowers range in color from white to carmine.

Flowering Japanese Plum

Graceful form, reddish-bronze leaves. In spring branches will be covered with pink or white blossoms before the leaves appear. Almost any soil condition will do. Lots of sunshine will ensure good leaf color.

SHADE TREES

European White Birch

One of the most desirable "specimen trees" for a lawn area. Light color of foliage and trunk especially effective against background of darker greens. Graceful, delicate and lacy in appearance. Upright branching with weeping side branches. Try planting as a clump (three trees in a hole) or, if you have the space, as a screen along the property line or driveway. Plant in irregular, "natural" intervals. White birch likes moist soil.

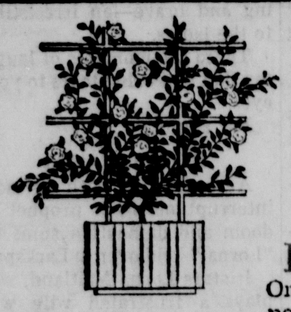
Liquidambar

(SWEET GUM)

This is the tree that provides the exciting fall display of color from yellow to deep red even in the warmest areas. A beautifully formed tree that never looks "crowded." Use as a lawn tree, a street tree—or make a tall screen or line a driveway. Likes non-alkaline, moist, rich soil. Withstands salt air extremely well.

Olive

A slow, bushy grower. Delicate grayish branches, willow-shaped leaves, dull green with a silver underside. Can be selected and trained to achieve a beautiful see-through quality. Effective on the large patio or in a small garden. Very hardy, requires no pruning and very little spraying.



Espalier

We have a wide range of espalier material. All plants are of vigorous, exhibition quality. Espalier offers a very decorative answer to the problems of today's style trends and lack of garden space. Decorate a blank wall, create a living fence, a wind baffle—redesign a patio and at the same time, enjoy flowers, fruit and beautiful decorative foliage effect.

Espalier Fruit
Oranges, lemons, limes, apples, pears.

Espalier in the Sun
Pyracanthus, loquat, magnolia, bottle brush.

Espalier in the Shade
Camellias, azaleas, star jasmine, fatshedera

Also available many novelty items. In a wide range of size and price. Investigate this exciting way to put a new spark in your garden!

PROMENADE — University of California student sketch shows how pedestrian walkway, with sidewalk-type commercial development, might give access to Richardson Bay which is now denied along most of its shoreline.

Richardson Bay Visions Revealed

By BRUCE COLEMAN

Richardson Bay was seen under 10 sets of "outside eyes" last night when 10 University of California graduate students told how they would plan the long arm of water which touches Sausalito, Marin City, Tamalpais Valley, Mill Valley, Strawberry and the new City of Tiburon.

Rapp also suggested scooping out filled land near Miller Avenue and Camina Alto instead of adding more fill, a motel-boatel near the mouth of Tamalpais Valley, an amusemen area and houseboats.

The crest of Enchanted Knolls should be kept open to the public, said another student.

One student projected a golf course built in the close shore of the bay near Kappas yacht harbor. Most planned to include rapid transit. One suggested a promenade along the Northwestern Pacific Railroad right-of-way.

All students agreed the water's edge should be preserved, and that the bay should be planned for water-oriented communities.

About 75 persons attended the presentation held by the Mill Valley Planning Commission in the Outdoor Art Club, and documented with slides, charts and drawings plus talks by some students.

Projects, which took each student 200 hours, concerned the area the City of Mill Valley recently proposed for annexation. Royston said that annexation, which he favors, was "just missed," and that it is a topographical unit, belongs to Mill

WHY COMPUTERS ERRED ON VOTING

If the early "results" used by television networks in projecting Tuesday's election outcome while polls were still open turned out to be a little inaccurate, there's a reason.

There was an example in Marin County of how these results from sample precincts in sample counties were obtained. A check showed today that it did not mirror the county vote as a whole with much accuracy.

According to Betty Rogers of 103 Portofino Riviera, Sausalito, supervisor for the Harris survey in Marin, "Several people refused to answer one or more of the questions. No effort was made to persuade them to answer." Miss Harris so wrote County Clerk George H. Gnoss, in a letter explaining there was no "electioneering" involved in what she and her assistant were doing.

Even if all had answered—and truthfully—the Scout Hall precinct would not have provided an accurate picture of Marin voting. At that polling place, Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller got 31 votes to Barry Goldwates's 16—a two-to-one edge. County-wide, the vote was 19,696 for Rockefeller and 6,592 for Goldwater—a three-to-one advantage. The same precinct gave Pierre Salinger 42 votes to 20 for Alan Cranston in the race for Democratic senate nomination, a two-to-one lead; but county-wide, Salinger outpolled Cranston 11,279 to 10,527 — a narrow margin slightly under 11-to-10.

Using this system with 42 pre-selected precincts throughout California, Harris provided data which was used in Columbia Broadcasting System in its television coverage on election night. With such data, CBS announced at 7:22 p.m.—38 minutes before the polls closed in San Francisco—that Goldwater had won with 53 per cent of the vote. (He won with 51 per cent.)

Boos, Cheers Punctuate Sausalito Tax Forum

Several cheers — and one lusty boo—resounded from an audience of 400 Sausalito citizens as three top Marin County officials strove last night to explain why some Southern Marin property assessments are being raised 70 to 100 per cent.

No unified action resulted from the three-hour session, presided over by Sausalito Citizens Council chairman Glenn T. Hall. Few if any Sausalitans went away any more satisfied with their lot.

"What's being overlooked here," County Assessor Bert W. Broemmel remarked late in the session, "is that I have been giving you people a tax break for the last few years—not because I wanted to . . ."

Boos interrupted him before he could add that the "break" came because of the county's policy of "cyclic" reappraisal, in which assessor's office manpower concentrates on one area at a time.

Broemmel, County Supervisor Peter H. Behr and County Administrator Alan Bruce repeatedly attempted, through varied analogies, to explain why Sausalito property valuations should nearly double if the county needs only 16 per cent more tax income for its next year's budget.

The assessor stressed that most of Marin is appraised at least 88 per cent of market value, but that until his crews re-evaluated Sausalito in recent

Hollis Proposes Three-Way Split For Tam High District

County Schools Supt. Virgil S. Hollis today proposed a new unification vote for creation of three unified districts in the Tamalpais School District area, but saw little hope for holding it.

He apologized for the fact that the unification vote was not counted on election night, saying he accepted responsibility for the delay. He promised such a delay in the count could not happen again on a school election measure.

Hollis, who had been silent on his views on unification in the Tamalpais area, said today he has always favored a three-way split of the district.

A preliminary count, which turned out to be slightly inaccurate in some precincts, indicated that the unification passed in the Fairfax, Lagunitas, Larkspur, Mill Valley and Sausalito districts, but failed in Bolinas-Stinson, Kentfield, Nicasio, Reed and Ross districts.

The biggest margin in favor came in San Anselmo. But the opposing areas downed the measure by much greater margins, better than 2-to-1 in Reed and Ross.

Hollis said he doubted the proposal for a three-way division of the Tamalpais District for unification would be approved by the state board of education.

He said he opposed splitting the district into two parts because he doubted whether voters in Mill Valley and Sausalito would approve construction of a new high school soon on the Tiburon Peninsula.

Hollis said he felt any measure would have a better chance if voted on at the time of election of school trustees in April.

Sour Grapes, Maybe?

Mrs. Carl Hepp of Mill Valley reported to police yesterday that during the early hours of the morning someone trampled down the flowers at her home at 155 Elm Avenue in an attempt to remove a political sign, "Goldwater," from her property.

Partly Cloudy Skies, Drizzle Over Marin

Light mist filtered through partly cloudy skies this morning throughout Marin County.

Warm temperatures and high humidity were reported in several areas. Night and morning fog is forecast along the coast tonight and tomorrow and cloudy skies are expected to continue through Saturday.

How Votes Went On Tam Proposal

Unification—Yes 13,941; No 15,725.

Bonded Indebtedness — Yes 13,601; No 16,290.

San Quentin Man Turns Self Into Human Torch

Struggles To Thwart Rescuers

BATTLES RESCUERS

He struggled against two men who tried to snuff the flames with blankets, fleeing from them and fighting them off, according to Associate Warden Dale B. Frady.

Smith, who was returned to San Quentin Saturday from Alameda County after violating parole, evidently got the paint thinner from the prison paint shop.

At 10 a.m. today, soaked in thinner, he stuck a match at the entrance to the prison handicraft shop.

Officer E. E. Papke and H. E. Bailey, machine shop instructor, saw the fire and tried to snuff it with blankets. Frady said Smith fled from them, trailing flame. The two men succeeded in catching him, but the inmate struggled against their rescue efforts.

Frady could not recall a

Judge Refuses Bail Plea In Nevada Murder Case

A Corte Madera doctor and his woman companion yesterday were held to answer murder charges in Storey County District Court for the fatal shooting of Virginia City contractor Richard Ghilotti, 59.

Dr. Sherman Wirt, 58, and Helen Calani, 44, also of Corte Madera, were the last to be seen with Ghilotti on the night of his death May 23. The three left a bar to go to Ghilotti's home, all evidently on friendly terms. Ghilotti invited them to his home to see his antiques.

Ghilotti, a widower, was shot four times with a .38 caliber revolver belonging to Dr. Wirt.

After a preliminary hearing that continued until 8:30 p.m. yesterday, Virginia City Justice of the Peace Edward Coletti ordered Dr. Wirt and Mrs. Calani held without bail until the trial.

This was over the protest of defense attorneys. Dr. Wirt was represented by Reno attorney John Squire Drendel and his partner William Bradley. Also appearing for Dr. Wirt's defense was Harry Wainwright of Sausalito.

Mrs. Calani was represented by Reno attorney Lester Frye.

Railroad Tunnel Hearing Postponed For Four Days

A California Public Utilities Commission hearing into failure of Northwestern Pacific Railroad to reopen its Puerto Suello tunnel has been postponed from Monday to next Friday.

The hearing will be held at 10 a.m. in the planning commission room at the Marin County Civic Center. Commission Chairman William M. Bennett and examiner Thomas E. Daly will preside.

The PUC called the hearing on its own initiative to inquire into NWP's failure to reopen the tunnel and restore San Rafael main line rail service despite being ordered to do so by the Interstate Commerce Commission and Federal District Court.

The railroad has until June 16 to file an appeal to the U.S. Supreme Court from the U.S. District Court's April order upholding the ICC ruling that the line must be reopened. No appeal has yet been filed. If one is filed between now and June 16, it could not be considered until the supreme court's October term.

Boris H. Lakusta, attorney for San Rafael, Marin County and several shippers in the successful fight before the ICC against NWP's attempt to permanently abandon the line, said today he will be present at the PUC hearing.

Sally Stanford Libel Suit: $100,000

Glenn T. Hall, presiding last night at a town meeting held by Sausalito Citizens Council in Sausalito Central School, had two more front row listeners in his audience than he may have wanted.

They were Mrs. Marsha Owen (also known as Sally Stanford) and a process server bearing notice to Hall that he was defendant in a $100,000 libel suit filed by Mrs. Owen yesterday in Marin Superior Court.

During a brief lull in the meeting — a property assessment protest gathering — the process server stepped onto the speaker's platform and handed Hall the notice.

Hall, council president, libeled Mrs. Owen in an April 10 council news report by insinuating that she, as a candidate for the April 14 city council election, was not a bonafide resident of Sausalito, the suit alleges.

Mrs. Owen, who was fourth highest vote-getter for the three council posts open, alleges this and other statements in an election leaflet distributed by the citizens council exposed her to hatred, contempt, ridicule and obloquy."

Swim Season Is Slightly Delayed

Don't plan on getting into the swin too soon this summer.

The San Rafael Recreation Department announced today that the pools at Terra Linda and San Rafael high schools will not be open this weekend, as hoped, because of repairs.

The troublesome Terra Linda High School pool is in for repair, and recreation swimming will not start there until 1 p.m. Wednesday.

The San Rafael High School pool will be closed until June 16 to permit boiler repair on the heating system.

WORLD NEWS IN BRIEF

Marlene, With Love

MOSCOW (AP)—Kisses, flowers and 40 minutes of encores closed Marlene Dietrich's first Russian tour. Hundreds stood outside the packed auditorium in Moscow for the final concert of the two-week tour by the German-born singer.

Judy Garland Mends

Typhoid May Spread

ABERDEEN, Scotland (UPI)—The alarming increase in Aberdeen's typhoid fever epidemic posed a serious threat today to the rest of the British Isles. Officials said the outbreak already has contributed to one death, that of an alderly woman who died shortly after the outbreak was reported 16 days ago.

Carr Takes S.F. Job

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI) — James Carr, under secretary of the interior, has accepted appointment as San Francisco utilities manager. Carr, 50, a native of Redding, will succeed Robert C. Kirkwood in the $23,000-a-year job. Kirkwood died May 5.

Indians Like Bill

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The National Congress of American Indians yesterday endorsed the civil rights bill pending in the Senate. Robert Burnette, executive director of the congress, said the endorsement carried the backing of the leaders of 450,000 Indians in 96 tribes scattered through 23 states.

Beatles Mobbed

AMSTERDAM, The Netherlands (UPI)—Two photographers, one seriously injured, were hospitalized today when a mob scene greeted the arrival of the Beatles here. About 5,000 young Beatle fans screamed and jumped as the group arrived here.

Subway Violence

NEW YORK (UPI)—A subway rider trying to read his newspaper and ignore a Negro man lying on the car floor was stabbed early today when the man lurched to his feet and slashed out wildly with a knife. The knifing was the fifth incident of subway violence this week and occurred as 200 Transit Authority police went on emergency overtime patrol duty. The victim, a white taxicab driver, was reported in serious condition.

U.S.-France Parley

L.A. Taxes Smokes

LOS ANGELES (UPI) — The city council yesterday tentatively approved a cigarette tax of two cents per pack that would add an estimated six million dollars per year in revenue.

Ethiopian Envoy Survives Bullets

STOCKHOLM, Sweden (AP)—Ethiopian Ambassador Abate Agede, who was shot twice by his chauffeur yesterday, was reported out of danger today.

Agede

Agede, 40, underwent eight hours of surgery for wounds in the shoulder and abdomen.

Police held the chauffeur, Polish-born Vincent Krupsky, 61, on suspicion of attempted manslaughter.

But the case may raise complications because the shooting during an argument occurred inside the embassy, which technically is foreign territory.

Youth Accused Of Threat To LBJ

CAMDEN, N.J. (UPI) — Michael Allen Young, a "confused" 18-year-old grocery clerk was held in $20,000 bail last night on charges of sending a threatening note to President Lyndon B. Johnson.

Young

Young, of Rio Grande, N.J., was arrested by Secret Service agents yesterday, just five days before the president was scheduled to visit nearby Swarthmore, Pa., for a college commencement address.

Secret Service special agent Donald C. Brett said they found two rifles, a pistol and a five-inch hunting knife in the youth's room at the time of his arrest. He said the boy admitted engaging in target practice with the guns.

Authorities charged that Young mailed an anonymous note to the president from Rio Grande last May 27.

Brett testified the boy admitted writing the note and the agent added, "I think he's a confused person."

South Korea Party Leader Quits

Kim

Kim, long considered the second most influential man in South Korea, had been the target of the student demonstrations which have swept the nation this week.

Hundreds of students demonstrated against the government outside Seoul today. Park ordered all universities and colleges to start their summer vacations immediately, rather than in mid-July as is normal.

Martial law was declared in the capital two days ago.

Suit Follows Fire

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The Roman Catholic Archdiocese of San Francisco has been sued for 1.7 million dollars by five injured survivors and the family of a man killed in the All Hallows Parish Hall fire last month. The suit, filed yesterday in Superior Court, charges "negligently and carelessly" in allowing more than 200 persons into the hall to watch a Samoan fire dance.

Assassination Probe

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The Warren Commission says it has not yet reached or even discussed "final conclusions" about the circumstances surrounding the assassination of President John F. Kennedy. A spokesman said yesterday the panel is now considering "the content and form" of its report on the assassination. Sources have said there is some hesitation within the commission to rule out the possibility that the assassin may have been linked to other persons.

LBJ-Kennedy Huddle

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Atty. Gen. Robert F. Kennedy conferred with President Lyndon B. Johnson for an hour yesterday. The White House said there was no discussion of politics or talk of Kennedy resigning. A Justice Department source said they discussed the civil rights bill.

Ruby Taking Pills

DALLAS (AP) — Condemned slayer Jack Ruby has started taking tranquilizer pills recommended by psychiatrists for what they called his "psychotic depression," a doctor said yesterday.

Magazine Banned

MANILA (AP)—The Philippine Post Office has banned the current issue of Time magazine from the mails because it carries a reproduction of Goya's famous painting "The Naked Maja." A spokesman said that the painting is considered obscene under the postal law.

Former Colonel Found Hanged

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Col. Manley B. Gibson, who was found hanged yesterday, left a note saying he had spent all his money in a one-man crusade to convert America to the metric system.

The 68-year-old former Army officer also left a note for the Internal Revenue Service, saying, "This failure is all my fault. We have spent all my money and insurance loans to establish the metric system USA. My death should be in full payment."

IRS officials said they were puzzled by the note to them.

Flood Control Hearing Set On Gallinas Creek

The Las Gallinas Valley Sanitary District has scheduled a special public hearing on flood control for the Gallinas Creek watershed at 8 p.m., June 24 at the Civic Center.

At the meeting a proposal that the district take over flood control activities for the area from the county will be discussed, along with a review of present county plans.

Attorney Gives Nod To Limited Crossing Study

The Golden Gate Bridge and Highway District may use its funds to study the feasibility of a second bay crossing, but with strict limitations, according to a legal opinion by the bridge district's attorney.

Jerome B. White, the attorney for the bridge district, points out that bridge funds may be used for engineering and/or economic feasibility studies of crossings "across the Golden Gate."

RESTRICTIONS

If the proposed crossing is from San Francisco to Marin and not technically across the Golden Gate, then use of district funds would be justified only on the following grounds: That the study is needed to determine the feasibility of providing enlargements or additions to the existing Golden Gate Bridge or a new span across the area commonly known as the Golden Gate.

Attorney White further opines that the bridge district cannot make loans or turn funds over to another agency to make such a study. "The district must make the study itself or through the State Department of Public Works, acting in a consulting capacity for, and under contract with, the district," he held.

TOLL USES

How about the use of bridge revenues for actual construction of a second toll highway crossing between San Francisco and Marin?

Yes, but only for a second toll crossing bridging the Golden Gate and constructed by the bridge district, says attorney White.

The bridge attorney gave this written opinion at the request of James Adam, general manager of the bridge district. Adam asked for the opinion because of recent suggestions that bridge funds be used for feasibility studies for a second bay crossing.

Filipino Girls Kiss Sukarno

MANILA (UPI) — Several Filipino girls who said they were night club hostesses unexpectedly joined the reception line for Indonesian President Sukarno today and each planted a kiss on the visitor's cheek.

Their presence apparently caught protocol officials and the reception committee unaware. After the girls bussed Sukarno, secretary Alejandro Roces, chairman of the national committee on visits, dodged newsmen's questions on their identity.

When newsmen approached the girls, who were dressed in sarongs and in native Filipino woman costumes, they said they were from "Bayside," a night club along the boulevard fronting Manila Bay.

British Rocket Short Of Mark

ADELAIDE, Australia (AP) — After four launch failures in two weeks, Britain's Blue Streak rocket was sent up for the first time today at the Woomera Range but fell 209 miles short of its 1,000-mile target.

The 90-ton rocket, which Britain abandoned as a strategic weapon in 1960, is being developed to supply the first stage of a rocket to send aloft satellites in 1967 or 1968 for the nine-nation European Space Research Organization.

Coast Guard Warns Bullets Will Whiz Over Bay June 28

A temporary danger zone will be established in San Pablo Bay for Coast Guard Reserve training June 28 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m., involving the firing of .30 caliber light machine guns at land-based targets.

The training session, originally scheduled for June 14, was postponed until June 28, the Army Corps of Engineers announced yesterday.

The training area will be north of Pinole Shoal Channel between the mouth of the Petaluma River at the Marin-Sonoma County line and Sonoma Creek.

Red markers will indicate the danger zone and the area will be patrolled during the training. Boaters are requested to avoid the area during the exercises.

Similar training exercises are scheduled in the area during the same hours July 26 and Aug. 23, the Army Corps of Engineers reported.

SUSAN RUTH KALMAN

Ross Girl Still Missing, Kin Seek Return

She was last seen at 10 p.m. April 22 at home. When her mother, Diana Kalman, went to the girl's bedroom the next morning to awaken her for school, she was gone.

"She is a highly intelligent girl who has done a lot of reading and has a nice singing voice and is interested in drama and art. If she wanted a job, she would apply for employment in a bookstore," her mother said today.

Susan had become very depressed since her father had a stroke in February. She had lost interest in singing and became unable to tolerate discipline, Mrs. Kalman said.

Susan, who looks about 21 years old when dressed up, weighs approximately 145 pounds, is five feet, five inches tall in bare feet, and has dark brown eyes and neck-length hair.

Anyone having information about Susan's whereabouts has been asked to notify the Marin County Sheriff's Department.

Tam Graduation Seating Limited

Due to the large number of graduates this year at Tamalpais High School, seating will be limited at the graduation exercises June 14, it was announced today by Principal Robert H. Prather.

Each of the 333 graduates will be given six tickets to be used by his family and friends. In all past graduation exercises at Tam, tickets were not needed.

The exercises will start at 5 p.m. in Mead Theater.

Mill Valley Soldier Home From Europe

Pfc. John A. Ruef, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lee McVae, 34 Meadow Drive, Mill Valley, is scheduled to arrive home on leave tomorrow after 23 months overseas duty with the Army.

Private Ruef, stationed with the 32nd Armored Division in Germany, will return to his unit after a 30-day leave. He recently re-enlisted for a second three-year tour of duty.

Senator Warns On Aged Housing

State Sen. Samuel R. Geddes (D-Napa) last night warned members of the Committee for Housing of Marin's Elderly to beware of building programs which were for the greedy and not the needy.

He told the committee there were none of these programs yet in Marin County but in several other areas developers had taken advantage of older people's desire for housing.

John P. Boswell, president of Boswell-Alliance, a San Francisco construction company, recommended two plans for federally-assisted free enterprise housing programs for the elderly.

One is a program in which the federal government insures a loan made by a bank to a private contractor. Under the plan, according to Boswell, studio apartment rentals could be provided at a cost of $90 per month.

The second is a direct loan program of the government to a limited dividend corporation which would provide studio apartments for the elderly for about $70 per month. Under the program, since the corporation was limited by the government to making only two-thirds of one per cent profit, if more profit was realized, the rents would be decreased.

The third speaker was Niels Schultz Jr., co-owner of the site on which a 12-story, five-million-dollar retirement center is planned in Larkspur, who told the citizens committee about plans for the development.

The next meeting of the committee will be held at 8 p.m. June 11 at the county courthouse in San Rafael when low cost housing and mobile homes will be discussed.

Dixie School Head Voted New Contract

Supt. Dennie B. Willis of Dixie School District, last night was voted a new four-year contract by the district board, with a $1,000 a year salary increase to $17,000. Willis, who started with the district in 1954, is now completing a four-year contract.

The board voted to give Asst. Supt. Joseph Goff a new two-year contract, increasing his salary from $13,750 to $14,500 a year. The pay of curriculum consultant Penrod Moss was raised from $13,000 to $14,000.

The board also agreed to increase the budget for instructional equipment and materials by $3 a pupil for the next fiscal year. The time to be spent by library clerks in each school was increased sharply, by about 100 per cent in most cases.

The annual added pay for teaching vice principals was increased from $400 to $500. Teachers William Van Winkle at Lucas Valley, Daisy Hatten at Mary E. Silveira and Charles Warfield at Bernard Hoffman schools were reappointed vice principals.

Teachers Jack Neiger at Vallecito, John Grantz at Santa Margarita and Mogens Kristensen at Don Timoteo schools were appointed new vice principals.

Joseph Curatilo was reappointed music director. A new position, administrative assistant, was authorized, with a salary range of $7,200 to $9,600 a year.

San Rafael Doctor, Mother Arrested In Traffic Death

A San Rafael doctor and his mother were arrested by San Francisco police yesterday on charges arising from a traffic death there May 24.

Dr. George M. Burnell, 34, of 363 Devon Drive, was accused of making a false report and allowing an unlicensed person to drive.

His mother, Mrs. Bertha Meyer, 64, operator of a San Francisco rest home, was charged with misdemeanor manslaughter and driving without a license.

Mrs. Ng Young Gum Won, 70, of San Francisco was killed when a car occupied by Burnell and his mother jumped a curb and struck her.

Police said Burnell claimed he was driver of the car, but later said his mother was behind the wheel and he was teaching her to drive.

Sleepy Hollow Will Heat Pool

Heater in the pool at the Sleepy Hollow Home Owners Assn. clubhouse will be in operation June 13, it was announced last night at the board of directors meeting.

The pool will be open from 11 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Saturday and Sunday until June 13 when it will be open for association members every day, according to Roland L. Hauck Jr., president.

More than 30 new members have joined the group and approximately two-thirds of old members have renewed their membership. Renewals should be made before June 30, Hauck said.

Johnson To Speak

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Lyndon B. Johnson will address a Democratic fund-raising dinner in San Francisco on June 19.

Inefficient Thief's Damage Outstrips Amount Of Loot

It was discovered at 9 a.m. when Dorothy Fricke, manager of the Junior Vogue Shop, found about $200 damage in the shop and $13.80 missing from the cash register.

Upstairs in the John Robert Powers School of Self Improvement for Women, the burglar pried open a cash box to make off with $79 of the day's receipts.

Smith entered San Quentin originally from Los Angeles County in 1956 after being convicted of narcotics possession. He returned after an earlier parole violation and was paroled again in July 1963.

Frady said Smith also was held in a state mental hospital for some time. However, there was no previous record of attempted suicide.

4th Fireworks Aides Named

Mrs. David E. Swanson has been named coordinator for the Larkspur-Corte Madera Joint Recreation Commission Fourth of July fireworks program.

Working on her committee are Mrs. Phillip Trau Jr., collection chairman; Mrs. Norman Eaton, publicity; Harold Kelly, licensed pyrotechnic operator; Albert E. Kogler, chairman of the joint commission, and Fred E. Banducci, past chairman.

The fireworks display is supported financially by Corte Madera and Larkspur and by business firms and organizations of Corte Madera, Larkspur and Greenbrae.

Search Fails To Find Span Leaper

Two Coast Guard boats searched for an hour yesterday near the Golden Gate Bridge before calling off the search for the body of Joseph J. Kakez, 50, of Livermore.

Kakez leaped off the west rail of the span at 10:17 a.m. He was positively identified from a driver's license photo by Jack McMillan, a bridge maintenance worker. McMillan saw him jump backward and hit the water.

Kakez's wife, Mildred, told the California Highway Patrol he had not been despondent, but was unhappy with a new job he started two months ago.

months, that city's homes were appraised at an average of 66 per cent of market.

Presenting a series of large charts, Broemmel reviewed the state's power to order a blanket assessment increase in counties falling below the state norm. Such increases, he stressed, penalize owners of property already appraised near market value, while allowing the under-valued properties to escape part of the tax load.

County re-appraisal procedures, he explained, spread the load more equitably, but are rigidly controlled by state law.

Assessments cannot take into consideration the retired property owner's ability to pay; state law requires him to compute the roll on the property's fair market value, Broemmel said. If he did otherwise, he would be guilty of illegal "discrimination," he explained.

County Administrator Bruce reviewed what the last four years have done to the tax bill for a "typical" $30,000 home of 1964 valuation which has climbed from $20,000 in 1960, then went into figures on next year's budget.

The 1960 tax bill on such a Sausalito home was about $386.80, Bruce said, with the tax income split nine ways. Schools got 54 per cent of the taxes. In 1964, the tax bill is $638.60, with the schools' share jumping to 60 per cent, but the county's share declining 1½ per cent, to 24 per cent.

Increases in a property owner's tax bill next year, if the budget is adopted as is, will total 2.2 per cent if the assessment remains equal, Bruce said.

Turning to costs of services such as welfare, he commented:

"Admittedly, there is no relationship between what the customer needs and what he pays for . . . Next year's 36 per cent budget increase in welfare is very alarming" but state and federal funds will pay most of the increase.

Superisor Behr drew applause with his opening statement that "the attempt to justify cyclic re-assessment has failed, in my mind—especially since it brings re-assessment into my district every election year!"

Behr emphasized his belief in "the complete honesty" of Broemmel's attempts to do his job legally and fairly.

Much of Behr's discussion was aimed at suggesting a search for other solutions to increased property taxes.

He cited a current study aimed at finding ways of attracting new industry to broaden the Marin tax base. He said "you weren't there to help me" when het ried but failed to persuade his fellow supervisors to hire a retired general to "proselyte" new industry.

Attracting more vacation visitors to Marin would increase the area income without greatly adding to the tax load for services, he suggested.

He reiterated his demand for public participation in budget hearings before supervisors, school boards and city councils. "How many of you have ever gone to budget hearings?" he asked. "I have only one vote."

Behr also sounded a call for "an honest-to-God first class working taxpayers' association" and urged Marin's public accountants to take the lead in organizing one.

He extensively reviewed proposed state legislation to permit deferment of taxes on homes owned by elderly persons of fixed, low income, and his suggestion for a property transactions tax.

He flatly rejected an audience suggestion that the board "declare a moratorium" on Sausalito's appraisal increases until "we see hom much you raise the rest of the county." The board has no such power, and can only equalize individual assessments, he pointed out.

Suspect Jailed On Check Boost

James Lee Skaggs, 23, whose last address was in Point Reyes Station, was arrested by San Rafael police yesterday for allegedly altering a check, increasing the amount from $5 to $750.

Inspector Richard Camper said that Skaggs did yard work for Anne M. McCarthy of 210 Laurel Place, San Rafael, on April 15. She began writing a check to him for $5 for the work. She was distracted, however, and Skaggs allegedly got the check before she had completed filling in the amount.

He was held at county jail on a forgery charge today in lieu of $1,650 bail.

$314,984 Settlement On College Gym Is Reached

County Counsel Douglas J. Maloney announced last night that a $314,984 insurance settlement had been reached for the College of Marin gymnasium which was destroyed by fire on Dec. 16, 1963.

Included in the settlement was $271,467 estimated replacement cost, $32,671 for the contents of the building which were destroyed, and $1,846 for personal property of students and employees in the gymnasium at the time of the fire.

Maloney told the College of Marin board of trustees that the insurance adjustors had treated the college very fairly and that the negotiations proceeded without major disagreements.

The board directed the administration to issue checks to students and faculty members who had filed claims as a result of the blaze.

"This is a fair and reasonable agreement which is within range of acceptable settlements," Maloney said.

Approval of the settlement ended negotiations which began in January when the board first agreed to prepare a contract for employment of a public insurance adjuster, John B. Lewellen of San Francisco, and two weeks later reversed its decision.

The reversal came after Leroy F. Wilkie of San Rafael, the college's insurance agent, said there was no need for hiring an adjuster because the board and the administration could determine the replacement cost of the building and discuss any differences in the estimate with the insurance companies.

Valley in heart and by its contiguous connections.

The students are W. E. Coates of Cleveland; James E. Johst of Syracuse, N.Y.; Richard Muldee of Walpole, Mass.; Rapp of Hartsdale, N.Y.; Parker Smith of Holliston, Mass.; Bernal of Mexico City; Cameron Man of Winnipeg, Canada; Armin Der Hohannesian of Boston, and John Lyle of Berkeley.

Coates explained the students began with field trips, making three and covering Strawberry, Alto, Lytton Square, Enchanted Knolls, Tiburon, Waldo and Sausalito.

In personal interviews, said Coates, they learned economic, legal and political viewpoints from Supervisor Peter H. Behr, learned that William L. Desmond, county sanitation director, is interested in substituting modern houseboats for present boats at Waldo, that "the Army Corps of Engineers tends to treat Richardson Bay as classified information.

Dr. Harold K. Graves, president of Golden Gate Baptist Seminary, told students he does not want to develop the seminary's shoreline or underwater lots but feels economics may force development.

Shirley Morgan, co-owner of Clipper Yacht Harbor in Sausalito, said the main deterrent in shoreline development now is absence of a bulkhead line. Francis Newton of the Marin County Real Estate Board told students he favors a top quality convention center in the vicinity of Enchanted Knolls.

The Mill Valley Chamber of Commerce considers Mill Valley the entrance to the Redwood Empire and, as such, "in disgraceful condition." Sausalito chamber of commerce favors an anti-fill regulation and feels there is not nearly enough communication with adjoining cities regarding planning.

Slides were shown depicting the Kappas yacht harbor installation, which extends close to Strawberry Point and Tamalpais junction developments. Royston said commuters ride by every day but few ever seem to question the type of developments there.

"There's no vitality and no coordination of uses now," said Rapp. "There is no definite edge (to the bay). Traffic flow is quite hazardous. A driver gets an occasional peek at the water but not very good ones. There is no thought of pedestrian traffic, which should be considered. At present Mill Valley has substandard recreational development."

Der Hohannesian said "101 is a distinct barrier and should be transversed other than the little pedestrian way (at Alto). East Blithedale," he said, "should be a parkway." He recommended use of some cluster housing.

Realign Miller Avenue through the Irving Shapiro property, suggested Coates. Buildings on Enchanted Knolls should be permitted but only two stories, he urged.

Johnst said he would like to see a barrier built near Almonte to hold water from the four creeks for a fresh water basin such as Belvedere's lagoon.

In summary, Royston listed 15 points: (1) Preservation of the water's edge for public use, uarks and recreation activities; (2) Preservation and increase of water service on both sides of Highway 101; (3) Study of circulation patters for cycle, pedestrian ways and possibly for use of trollies, electrical vehicles, boat taxis; (4) Modeling the shoreline to reflect the natural terrain; (5) Preservation of patterns pleasant to look down on from hillsides; (6) A consistent planting pattern over all; (7) Consider the new "city" of Marincello (near Sausalito) which is "getting off the ground"; (8) Connections up Old Mill Creek to Mill Valley; (9) Explore cluster development with open space in between, prevent strip development; (10) Location of future rapid transit; (11) Provide visitors with high quality accommodations; (12) Explore new imaginative uses of the shoreline; (13) Preserve special areas in natural tideland conditions; (14) Recognize the space in connection with growth of Bay Area to come, and (15) Explore use of flood basins and multi-use of parking lots.

Royston also mentioned possible purchase by city or county of development rights and scenic easements, and purchase of land throughout Richardson Bay area. He suggested that Sausalito, Tamalpais and Homestead valleys, Mill Valley and the county work together.

He said Richardson Bay is "a very beautiful area giving a lot of satisfaction to a great many people" and could be developed into a much more beautiful area.

Robert C. Mountjoy, commission chairman, welcomed the audience, Leland Vaughan, professor of landscape architecture at the university, and John D. Erickson, Mill Valley planning consultant, spoke briefly.

Wife Screams; Attacker Flees

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—The wife of Giants baseball player Harvey Kuenn was slugged by an intruder in her bedroom early today

Kuenn was out of town with the team, which opens a series in Philadelphia tonight.

Mrs. Kuenn, 29, told police she awoke shortly after midnight to find a slightly-built young man standing beside her bed. He grabbed her and she screamed.

The commotion awakened the children in the next room and they began to cry and the intruder fled.

Burglar Loots Gas Station Safe

San Rafael police today were investigating the reported burglary of $39.95 from the locked floor safe of the J and S Wilshire Service Station at 1320 Second Street, San Rafael.

Co-owner James Benjamin Johnson of Tiburon told police yesterday that the burglary occurred sometime between 10 p.m. Wednesday and 3:15 a.m. yesterday while both the station and the safe were locked.

A total of $107 was in the cash bag in the safe, but only $39.95 was taken, he said.

OBITUARIES

Harriett Diedrich Succumbs

Harriett Perry Diedrich of 1001 Adrian Way, Santa Venetia, a retired cashier, died in a local hospital yesterday after a brief illness. She was 76 years old.

A native of Davenport, Iowa, she resided there most of her life. Her husband, Claus O. Diedrich, a barber in Davenport, died nine years ago.

Mrs. Diedrich was a a member of the Order of Eastern Star in Davenport.

She had lived in Marin County a year and one-half, staying with her son, R. Norman Diedrich. In addition to him, she is survived by a brother, Vernon L. Perry of Davenport, and three grandchildren.

Funeral will be at the Runge Mortuary in Davenport on Monday. Burial will be in Memorial Park in Davenport. Local arrangements were made by Keaton's Mortuary.

Father Halts Girl In Try To Leap From Balcony

Officers were called at 11:10 a.m.

Her father, A. J. Bauer of Daly City, reportedly grabbed her, they wrestled, and Miss Bauer knocked over a table, breaking a glass dish.

With the dish she slashed both arms and hands, police reported, then cut a large gash on her father's neck.

Sausalitlo firemen gave first aid to Bauer and he said he would see his own physician. Miss Bauer was taken to Marin General Hospital for treatment and was to be committed to Napa State Hospital for 72 hours.

Last Monday, said police, she was reported to have taken an overdose of sleeping medication at her home.

Brewer-Driver Talks Continue

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — Spokesmen for the California Brewers Assn. and for the Teamsters Union met again today for discussions of a dispute that has closed most of California's major breweries.

In talks yesterday there was no agreement on contract terms.

The dispute, which has dried up the drought beer taps in many bars, is in its third week.

Gas Drained Out

Alvin Joseph Dolan of 1618 Grand Avenue, San Rafael, told police yesterday that someone had siphoned a tank of gas from his car while it was parked at his home during the past five days.

First Tiburon Need—Find City Manager

Hiring a city manager is considered a first priority item of business by all five of Tiburon's newly elected city council members, who will hold their first unofficial council meeting tonight.

All five believe police protection should be contracted temporarily from the county sheriff's office, but three think the new city should hire its own building inspector as soon as possible and four of the five are definitely for hiring a part-time planning consultant at once.

The City of Tiburon will not come into being until some time next week. First the county board of supervisors must certify election results and adopt a resolution recognizing the new city. This will be sent to Sacramento, where the secretary of state will officially record it.

In the meantime, the elected council members plan to meet at 8 p.m. today in the Del Mar School library to get the wheels turning for Marin's 11th city.

The five—Gordon W. Strawbridge, John S. Hoffmire Jr., Anne Ellinwood, Fred C. Hannahs and Leo Souza—were interviewed by an Independent-Journal reporter on their opinions regarding the initial scope of the new government's activities. It must operate for a year without property tax, incorporation coming too late for this year's tax rolls.

FIRST HIRING

All agreed that a city manager should be hired immediately, or as soon as possible. Hoffmire said he was already receiving names of potential city managers from the League of California Cities.

Miss Ellinwood pointed out the city manager would have little to manage for awhile, but felt he would be needed to serve as coordinator. "Good government demands separation of administrative and policy-making functions," she declared.

As to police protection, Strawbridge suggested a study should start at once as to the amount needed and a gradual transition from county to city services should follow. Others all felt a contract with the sheriff's office would suffice initially.

Sheriff Louis P. Mountanos has said the present level of protection by his force could be provided for $20,800 per year.

None of the five wishes to continue county planning service. Dissatisfaction with county planning for the area figured in the drive for incorporation.

Hannahs and Hoffmire said a highly qualified planning consultant should be hired immediately. Souza said one should be engaged "as soon as the money is there to do it." Strawbridge said a part-time consultant would be needed "rather soon."

While not committing herself on how soon a professional planner should be hired, Miss Ellinwood put as an item of first priority passage of ordinances making effective all parts of the county master plan. "Then begins the period of revising the master plan," she said.

All think a city planning commission should be appointed at once. Souza, Hannahs and Miss Ellinwood favor a seven-man commission; Strawbridge and Hoffmire advocate five members.

BUILDING INSPECTOR

As to building inspection, Strawbridge feels "there is no emergency" about such services and they could be contracted from the county. Miss Ellinwood agrees. Hoffmire and Souza think the city should hire its own inspector as soon as a qualified person can be found, but need not be in too great a hurry. Hannahs feels county contract will suffice although he is not averse to hiring a city inspector if a qualified person is available.

None of the five wishes to plunge the newborn city immediately into public works, preferring to contract with the county for street construction and maintenance in the first year of the City of Tiburon's existence.

STARTING INCOME

A projection of the new city's expectable first-year revenues by County Auditor Michael Mitchell gave a total of $112,800. The incorporation committee's finance committee — of which Hannahs and Souza were members — figured revenues would total $130,000.

Mitchell listed costs of contracting with the county for the various services as $14,209 for engineering, $17,672 for road maintenance, $16,983 for planning, and $6,455 for building inspection. In all except building inspection, costs would be considerably higher if the city set up its own departments, he figured.

The finance committee figured building inspection and engineering would about pay their own way through fees. Some $37,000 of state subventions from gasoline taxes, motor vehicle licenses, etc., would by law have to go to road building and maintenance. The new city, the committee figured, will have about $93,000 of unrestricted funds in its first fiscal year.

In its tentative first-year budget, the committee set up $28,800 for administration — an item for which it could not contract with the county. Included in that is the office of the city manager who the five council members agree should be the city's first employee.

Boys Sought For Torturing Parade Horse

The animal's heartbroken owner, Art Viargues, said he rode the horse, Chief, in President Dwight D. Eisenhower's inaugural parade in 1953.

Reports said the boys climbed over a five-foot-high fence yesterday, in the San Francisco slaughterhouse area known as Butchertown, and methodically maimed the 17-year-old gelding.

"I'll never have a horse like that one," grieved Viargeus, who said he must decide whether to put his proud mount out of his misery.

Police said the boys, who were spotted but whose deed was not witnessed, apparently lassoed the horse's head, pulled it down, and smashed him at eye level with a brick.

Delayed Fallout

WASHINGTON (AP) — A Senate subcommittee approved yesterday a payment of about $11,000 to each of the 82 residents of Rongelap Island affected by fallout from the Bikini nuclear test of March 1, 1954.

Cities Cooperate On Arrest Of Hit-Run Suspect

San Rafael and Novato police and witnesses cooperated Wednesday to bring about the arrest of a hit-run driving suspect within a half hour of the accident.

Ki Lim Wong of 22 Brookdale Avenue, San Rafael, reported at 6:07 p.m. that someone drove into the rear of his car at the Greyhound Bus Depot, Third Street and Tamalpais Avenue, San Rafael, then drove away.

Witnesses provided a license number and San Rafael police notified Novato police to watch for the car owner, Ralph Montague Jr., 42, of 1274 Leafwood Drive, Novato.

At 6:30 p.m. Novato Police Officer Richard Courier arrested Montague at his home. He was charged with drunken driving and hit-run property damage.

Prowler, Thief Visit Project

San Rafael police received two reports Wednesday centering on an apartment house construction project at 24 Valencia Street, one involving a burglary and the other a prowler.

Andrew A. Wallace of Vallejo, job foreman for James L. Warren Construction Co. of Concord, said material and tools valued at $200 have been stolen from the apartments under construction.

Louise M. Cooper of 22 Valencia Street report that a prowler in the area knocked at her door about 3 a.m. yesterday, and that between 3 and 4 a.m. last Friday she saw a prowler in the area.

A Thank You from Bill

Cordially,

Bill Furnaman

East-West Trade Presents Pitfalls

By SAM DAWSON

NEW YORK (AP) — American business is taking a new look at trade with the Communist nations. It also is assessing its manner of dealing with Communist threats to its markets in other lands. The Red bloc offers both opportunities and pitfalls to American business planners as well as to shapers of political policy.

Romania and the United States have just widened the door to trade between them — with the final dollar volume yet to become apparent.

The Soviet Union is reported seeking more North American wheat, chiefly in Canada where it hopes for better terms.

Western European nations are pushing sales to Eastern Europe, some of which Washington frowns upon; and also to Cuba, which Washington deplores. All this leads many American businessmen to want a slice of the pie.

But in exploring trade opportunities with the Communists, U.S. industrialists have two problems in particular: How they'll be paid, since the Red bloc is short on foreign exchange; and what products this country could take in barter, since the Soviet Union especially has little that the American market wants.

In the wider field of competition in world markets, American business has still other problems. The Soviets can, and sometimes do, dump commodities such as oil on carefully chosen markets at prices that the American profit system can't match.

And Communist propaganda in some developing countries where Americans have traditional markets can upset Yankee sales, and even lead to appropriation of American investments. How to counter this propaganda?

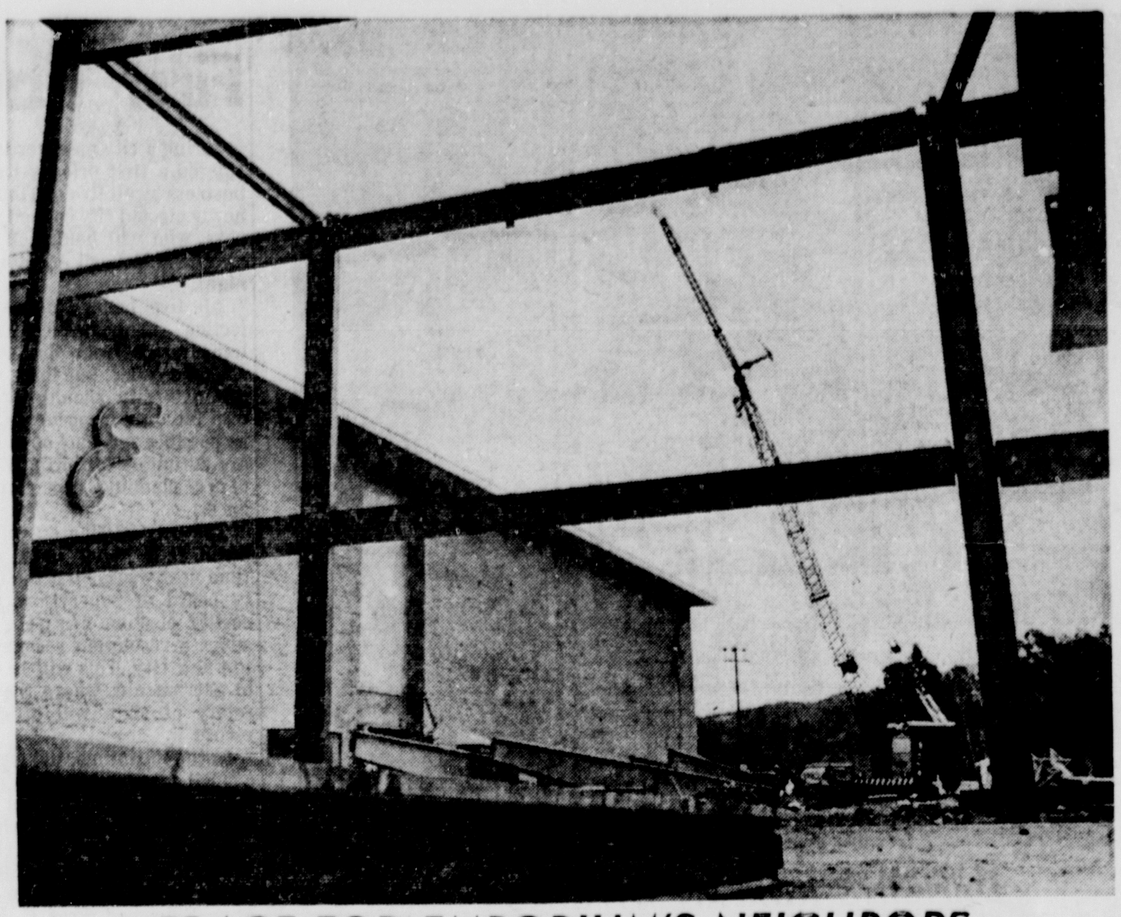
"We try to outsell communism, not out-yell it," says M. J. Rathbone, board chairman of Jersey Standard Oil with stakes in many lands.

"We believe our best contribution against communism is to do our job well, thereby helping to strengthen the economy of the host country and showing what free enterprise can do for free people.

Emporium Executive To Speak In Marin

Robert G. Wilhelm, general manager and vice president of the Emporium, will speak at the 10th annual meeting of the Marin County Development Assn. at Peacock Gap Country Club June 18.

A no-host reception will be held at 11:30 a.m., with lunch served at 12:15 p.m. After lunch, Wilhelm will speak on "Where Are the Big E and Marin Headed?"



SPACE FOR EMPORIUM'S NEIGHBORS

While the Emporium is scheduled to open its doors for business on the 26th of this month, arrival of its immediate neighbors to the west and south will be delayed until early next year. More than a dozen firms have signed store leases in Unit 'Two of the Northgate Regional Shopping Center. Buildings to house them are now under construction.

Corte Madera To Gain Auto Firm

Corte Madera will soon have its first automobile sales agency.

Campbell-Bishop Chevrolet will move from Mill Valley to new headquarters under construction at the Corte Madera Wye at 5880 Paradise Drive. An auto service building will have about 71,000 square feet, and a separate retail sales office will have 21,000 square feet.

Permits for the buildings were among 17 issued by the Corte Madera building department during May. The two Campbell - Bishop buildings have an estimated valuation of $228,080. Total permits for the month are valued at $301,331.

Cars Set Record

DETROIT — Dodge dealers last month set a new sales record for the eighth month in a row, Dodge general manager Byron J. Nichols has reported. Nichols said retail sales of Dodge cars in May totaled 43,704—13 per cent more than in the same month a year ago. That is the highest May in Dodge history.

Tideland Oil Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown today signed a bill giving the state 85 per cent of Long Beach tidelands oil revenues, expected to net 2.5 billion dollars over the next 35 years.

Stock Market Closes Higher In A Rebound

NEW YORK (AP)—The stock market closed higher today in a rebound from yesterday's sharp selloff. Trading was moderate.

Early gains were sharp but these were trimmed in late profit taking.

Most sections of the list rose vigorously in the first few hours. The average still remained well ahead at the end.

Volume for the day was estimated at 4.4 million shares compared with 4.88 million yesterday.

Key stocks gained from fractions to a point or more. Some of the more volatile or higher priced issues did much better.

IBM added 4. Xerox and Northwest Airlines rose more than 2 each. Avon Products averaged more than 3, Lukens Steel, Bristol-Myers and Polaroid about 2 each.

Airlines, which have been subjected to sereve profit taking, were up strongly.

Steels, motors, oils, chemicals, utilities, tobaccos, selected rails and electronics rebounded smartly. Rails made an irregular advance.

Texas Gulf Sulphur, up more than a point, again loomed as the most active stock. Sperry Rand was second in activity, rising more than a point.

Ahead about a point were such stocks as General Motors, Du Pont, Sears Rosebuck, Standard Oil of Indiana, Korvette, Litton Industries, CBS, Time Inc., Boeing and Air Reduction.

Prices advanced on the American Stock Exchange.

Rambler Sales

DETROIT — Rambler U.S. retail sales in the final 10 days of May were the highest for any 10 day period in the current model year. Thomas A. Coupe, automotive sales vice president of American Motors Corp., said sales for the period totaled 16,012 units. This compares with 12,714 in the final period of April, an increase of 26 per cent.

Chrysler Planning Venture In England

NEW YORK (UPI) — Chrysler Corp. has announced it plans to move into the lucrative British automobile market with the proposed purchase of a major interest in Rootes Motors Ltd.

Rootes and Chrysler, the nation's third largest auto maker, announced agreement on Chrysler's proposal to buy 30 per cent interest in the ordinary, or voting, shares and a 50 per cent interest in the Class A, or non-voting, shares of the British firm. The deal would involve an outlay of about $34,440,000.

Judge Steps Down In Murder Trial

Marin Superior Court Judge Richard M. Sims Jr. yesterday disqualified himself as judge in next Tuesday's murder trial of Robert Lee Jones and John Lee King, and scheduled it in extra sessions court before Municipal Court Judge Joseph G. Wilson.

The action came on a motion by Jones's attorney, Thomas P. Boyd, that Judge Sims should not preside because Jones felt the magistrate had a prejudice in the guilt or innocence of the defendant.

Judge Sims, however, said he was "swayed" by Boyd's closing argument of appeal implications because the motion has no exact precedent. Since there exists no comparable case in which legal appellate decision has been made where a judge has sat on preliminary matters of a case, Boyd said, there is possibility that everything during the trial would be in error and conceiveably be ruled as such by an appeal court.

Peter Allen Smith, public defender representing King, had joined Boyd's motion. Another motion by both defense attorneys for severance of armed robbery counts from the murder count in Tuesday's 10 a.m. jury trial is expected to be heard that day by Judge Wilson.

Judge Sims later pointed out that extra sessions court will be used because Superior Court Judge Thomas F. Keating will be on vacation and Superior Court Judge N. Charles Brusatori has another trial scheduled.

The defendants are accused of the March 27 icepick and bludgeoning slaying of Donald G. Corbett Jr. in his Sausalito apartment.

Junior High Pays Honors To Boy, Girl

Bartlett Anderson and Christine Sundborg were honored last night as the outstanding boy and girl student in the eighth grade graduating class of San Rafael's Davidson Junior High School.

Bart, son of Dr. and Mrs. Samuel T. D. Anderson of 43 Palm Avenue, received a plaque awarded by the San Rafael Optimist Club at the school's graduation exercises at Albert Field. Chris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbard Sundborg of 100 Bayo Vista, received a plaque from the San Rafael Elks Lodge.

In addition to being honored as outstanding boy, Bart led the class honor roll, having been a straight-A student throughout his two years at the school. Principal Hanlon P. Tharp announced this was the first time in four years that any student had completed two years at Davidson with straight-A grades.

Eighteen others were also honored for outstanding scholarship during their two years at the school. They are:

400 Marin Youngsters To Vie In Event

More than 400 Marin County 4-H Club members will travel to the Marin-Sonoma District fairgrounds in Petaluma tomorrow for annual 4-H exhibit day.

Events will start at 8:30 a.m. with livestock judging beginning at 10:30 a.m. At the exhibit, one boy and one girl will be named "4-H'er of the Year."

Club members will exhibit home and farm items ranging from lemon meringue pies to beef cattle. About 100 dairy cows and 40 horses will be shown. Some 300 items of clothing and 200 food preparations and preservation exhibits are expected.

Highlight of the day will be the round robbin showmanship contest, with leading club members required to run other members' animals through their paces before judges. Last year's winner, Sara Lee McClelland, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert McClelland, 495 Olive Street, Novato, will be trying to keep her title.

A contest in how to judge agriculture contests is also scheduled. In the afternoon will be a fashion show featuring gold medal winners of last month's 4-H dress review.

Department Store Tells Of Earnings Increase

The Emporium Capwell Co. reports net earnings of $839,531 for the quarter ended April 30, 1964. Earnings for the same period a year ago were $660,781.

For the 12-month period that ended April 30, earnings were $6,056,665 as against $5,164,380 for the previous year. Quarterly earnings per share of common stock were 34 cents, compared to 27 cents in 1963. Annual per share earnings amounted to $2.47, compared to $2.11 for the preceding year.

Realty Firm Files Papers In State Hearings

Kaehler-Farrar Inc. of San Rafael filed stipulations yesterday at a Real Estate Commission hearing in San Francisco on charges that the firm misrepresented sales prices to obtain larger loans.

W. J. Thomas, attorney with the San Francisco district office of the California Real Estate Division, said the nature of the stipulations would not be revealed until the commission reaches a decision on the charges.

As a result of yesterday's session, Hearing Officer Jerome Herst will submit his findings to the commission.

Kaehler-Farrar Inc. faces possible suspension or revocation of its real estate broker's license as a result of the charges filed in March by Real Estate Commissioner Milton G. Gordon.

Thomas said the only witness testifying at the hearing was John J. Farrar Jr., company vice president.

Perhaps She Needs Some Target Practice

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A kick that missed its target brought a 21-year-old woman into Ohio State University Hospital, police said.

She was treated for a severe foot laceration, they reported, and explained that, in trying to kick her husband, her foot went wide of the mark and through a storm door.

Wenderings To Celebrate Anniversary

Luncheon at a Mill Valley restaurant, followed by a reception attended by some 60 friends and neighbors, will highlight the 50th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Gerard T. Wendering of 51 Catalpa Avenue, Mill Valley, Monday.

Hostesses for the celebration will be the couple's three daughters, Mrs. Robert H. Jones of Mill Valley, Helen Wendering of San Francisco and Mrs. Howard J. Lawler of Palo Alto.

Wendering retired as athletic director of Tamalpais High School in 1948, ending a 31-year career in which he coached baseball, football, basketball, tennis, track and swimming. His efforts were partially responsible for the building of the school's gymnasium and several other campus buildings.

He has been involved in real estate development since his retirement.

The Wenderings have four grandchildren and two great-grandchildren.

Airline Increases Quarterly Dividend

Pacific Southwest Airlines has increased its quarterly dividend payable July 1 to 16 cents per share.

The dividend applies to the 826,062 shares currently outstanding and is payable to stockholders of record June 17.

In the prior quarter, the company paid 14 cents per share. This is the fourth consecutive quarter in which the quarterly rate has been increased since the initial dividend in July, 1963.

Pacific Southwest Airlines recently announced a 20-per cent increase in regular flight scheduling, effective June 12, between San Francisco, Los Angeles and San Diego.

College Orders Work On Marine Study Labs

College of Marin's marine biology laboratory at Bolinas came closer to realization last night when the Marin Junior College District board awarded a $52,566 contract to North Bay Electric Works, Inc., of San Rafael for remodeling the two buildings at the site.

The project is expected to be completed this summer so classes may be held there in September. A course in marine biology will be taught there in summer school, but laboratory work will be done on the Kentfield campus.

The board deleted several items in the contract so the total amount of the remodeling work will be $47,518.

Dr. Stephen C. Epler, college president, said additional matching funds would be available under the National Defense Education Act for purchase of equipment for the laboratory. The board asked that the faculty review its requests and present a report at the next board meeting at 8 p.m., June 11, when use of the additional money would be considered.

The Marin Junior College District board also:

1. Appointed Harold C. Day of San Rafael to inspect the remodeling work in Bolinas and other projects on the Kentfield campus.
2. Employed James C. Dunn, director of the San Jose Theater Guild since 1961, as a drama instructor at $7,850 per year, effective Sept. 1.
3. Agreed to devote an entire board meeting to discussion of the tentative budget for 1964-65 before June 30 when the preliminary budget must be approved. The time of the meeting will be set next week.
4. Discussed a recommended master plan for technical education at the college which was presented by Frank T. Jacobs, chairman of the technical education program. The board agreed that such programs should be a continuation of high school curriculum. Continued discussion of the recommendations will be held next Thursday.
5. Decided not to engage Eric Fromm to present a lecture Oct. 17 and Stewart Alsop to speak March 17 at a cost of $700 and $600, respectively. Further study on scheduling speakers for the 1964-65 concert and lecture series was agreed upon in hope that interesting speakers could be engaged without great cost to the college.

Last Quad Dies In New York City

The boy died shortly before noon, Wednesday, the three girls late Wednesday night within 40 minutes.

Authorities at Long Island Jewish Hospital, Queens, said the boy and one of the girls had respiratory troubles and the other two "died quite suddenly." No cause was given.

The quads were born to Mrs. Salvatore Peloro, 30, of Brooklyn, who was reported doing fine. Peloro, 35, a plumber who has been out of work since November, had an offer of a job at a housing project.

Here Is Your Chance To Own An Alligator

An alligator from the Louise A. Boyd Natural Science Museum in San Rafael visited the St. Francis Hotel in San Francisco yesterday.

The alligator, all four feet of him, was on the way to Television KQED's annual auction. He was the first alligator to be offered in the listener-supported station's history of auctions.

The alligator was delivered to the big hotel because hotel manager David N. Plant is also president of the museum board. He accepted delivery of the reptile.

The museum's gift does not deplete the stock of alligators too desperately in San Rafael. There is another one still living at the museum.

Motorcycle Stolen

San Anselmo police today were looking for a new Honda motorcycle stolen from the parking lot at Sir Francis Drake High School sometime Wednesday. Owner Scott A. Sibbald of 150 Crane Drive, San Anselmo, reported the theft yesterday.

Bagley Declares He'll Back Any Choice Of GOP

Assemblyman William T. Bagley (R-San Rafael) said today he will support "Senator Goldwater or any other Republican convention choice."

"I certainly will perform any campaign duties requested on behalf of our nominee, consistent with the conduct of my own fall campaign," said the Marin-Sonoma assemblyman.

At the same time, Bagley commented that the vote in his district showed that better than two-third of the Republicans in the two counties agree with him on "necessity of a broad-based, unified Republican party and a broad platform responsive and appealing to the needs and views of a majority of the voters."

He said he would continue his effort "to continue this broad direction for a winning Republican party."

Have you ever seen 7,000 grown men cry? You'd think success would make them happy, but ever since Mustang came out, seven thousand Ford Dealers all over the country have been weeping and wringing their hands. They can't get as many Mustangs as they would like. All this would upset us, too, except it's happened to us before. You see, this was the hottest sales year in Ford Division history even before Mustang came out. At the beginning of the model-year, dealers couldn't get enough of our big, hot Super Torque Ford Hardtops (sales up 54%)... or luxurious Thunderbirds (sales up 68%). Falcon sales are almost as big as Chevy II and Valiant combined. Fairlane continues to be a leader in its field. So, even though some people would like us to put all our plants to work on Mustang, we can't let down our hundreds of thousands of Ford, Thunderbird, Falcon and Fairlane lovers. Why don't you come see what all the shouting's about? Ask your Ford Dealer for a test drive. (You might even get him to smile.)

Restaurants aren't as numerous in Marin County as they are in other parts of the Bay Area, but by and large they appear to do more business. That's the conclusion you're bound to reach after reading over a few figures from the State Board of Equalization.

MORE THAN 20 million dollars was spent in taxable sales at Marin food and drinking places last year, and that was about 8.5 per cent more than the year before. Since Marin's population gain for the year was estimated at only 5.4 per cent, it would seem to follow that either the county's residents are eating better or eating out more often. There's also the possibility more business is coming in from the outside.

Marin County at the end of 1963 had 242 eating establishments of all kinds — or one for approximately each 726 persons. San Francisco had more than 10 times as many— one for each 306 persons. It goes without saying that the city has more visitors who stay to chat and chew than we do, but Marin establishments manage to do better with what they have—about $9,000 a year better for each one, on the average. This may be why the restaurant mortality rate — as heavy as it is—is still lower in Marin than in the city.

SAN MATEO COUNTY has one establishment for each 704 persons — but their average gross sales are little better than San Francisco's. Santa Clara County's 1,151 establishments (one for each 709 persons) have lower average annual food sales than either of them.

Sonoma County, with a population only a little less than ours (173,200 compared to 175,600), has more than twice as many eating and drinking places (518), or about one for each 334 persons. But our establishments do two and one-third times the average sales for each place.

And don't tell me it's because restaurant prices are higher here than elsewhere. There isn't that much difference.

Of Marin's 242 eating places, 95 serve no alcoholic beverages, 38 sell only wine or beer and 109 sell all types of liquor. About 64 places are located in San Rafael — but Sausalito, with less than half that many, does 84 per cent as much business.

HERE'S A TIP for a good time to eat at one of Tiburon's restaurants—next Wednesday night. But make it early. There's a Korla Pandit program at the Tiburon Playhouse at 8:30 p.m. It's his first public appearance in Tiburon since he moved his studio down that way, I understand. Should be worth taking in.

ONE OF THE HOMEY attractions of some of our Marin dineries is the frequency with which they expose you to the company of your friends and people you know. These are the "comfortable" places and there are a number of them. I imagine few people would be in complete agreement on a common list, but preferences must be much alike — otherwise paths would cross less often.

One I'm thinking about right now is Franchini's Chateau, and I know it must be on the visiting list of many of my friends, because I see them there so much. Food and service have something to do with it, they tell me.

But another category of visitors here is that age group which may not have mastered all the fine points of eating out yet—but is certainly enthusiastic when it comes to duck a la Franchini. Served on the adjoining lake, that is—not on the menu.

All you have to do to get the kids to eat their dinner is to insist that a visit to the duck pond afterward with sundry crusts of bread (provided by Franchini's) is contingent upon a clean plate.

MRS PHYLLIS MENDOZA has moved from San Francisco to Marin—the better to give more of her personal attention to the Casa Linda restaurant in San Rafael. She's now supervising the cooking here.

The troubadours are back, Friday and Saturday nights from 5 to 10 p. .m There's a 50 cents cover charge per table at those times—but here's a tip: A glass of wine goes with the regular meal after 9 p.m. Friday and Saturday nights.

There's an unannounced surprise special dinner now on Monday nights. The only way you'll find out what it is will be to go there — changed each week. Last Monday's special must have been good. I hear it was a sellout, and the place was crowded.

FRED GENNERT has decided to continue his late evening jazz concerts at the Blue Rock Inn on weekends—last week's response was so encouraging. The full group will appear tonight; a smaller group will play tomorrow night. No minors. Time is from 10 p.m.

JAZZ PIANIST Bill Evans brings his trio to the Trident, Sausalito for four weeks beginning next Tuesday. He'll perform on a nine-foot Baldwin grand piano and will be accompanied by long-time associates Paul Motian (drummer) and bassist Chuck Israels. They'll perform nightly except Mondays from 9 p.m. to 2 a.m. Special session with guest artists Sundays from 3 p.m. Minors are admitted.

CATERING MANAGER Rae Ward at Peacock Gap Country Club reports that 7,210 meals were served there during the month of May. Of course that includes parties and banquets, but it's still good.

WINE CONSCIOUS? Authority Leon D. Adams of Sausalito is presenting a series of half-hour programs on wine appreciation over Berkeley's FM radio station KPFA for the next seven Wednesdays at 9:30 p.m.

LIN FA GARDENS at Northgate Shopping Center is adding new screens (this should allow more than one group in the banquet area) and new tropical plantings.

Oysters Being Raised In Waters Of Tiburon

It's not so much because of the oysters, Dr. Victor Loosanoff explains; it's because of the water. His experiment proves that the water is good enough to culture all kinds of marine life.

He explained that oysters are among the most sensitive of marine organisms when it comes to water pollution.

Dr. Loosanoff, who has planted eastern oysters in Tomales Bay, started some of the oysters at Tiburon to test the water.

"They're doing very well," he reported today.

The scientist has run other tests of the water on plankton, the microscopic organisms that provide food for many larger organisms. He found the plankton both plentiful and varied, indicating that Tiburon can cover a wide range of research.

Dr. Loosanoff was aided in his recent research by Mrs. Curtis Webb, his assistant.

Tam Aero Club Elects Officers

Other officers are Ronald L. Johnston of San Anselmo, first vice president; William L. Kapranos of San Anselmo, second vice president; Mrs. Dorothy Kapranos of San Anselmo, recording and corresponding secretary; Mrs. Maureen Pederson of San Rafael, treasurer, and Donald Myers, of Santa Venetia, flying officer.

Members of the club will fly to the Red Shoe Ranch at Arbuckle, Colusa County, June 27 where they will be guests of Mrs. Pederson.

JUST ENJOY LIFE

Food, Drink Lovers Can Take Heart . . .

ROSETO, Pa. (AP) — "We have peace of mind."

That's the answer Mayor George Giaquinto, 50, of Roseto has for medical experts who are somewhat puzzled by the low incident of heart attacks in this little Italian-American community of fat, yet healthy and happy people.

A seven-year medical study conducted in the northeastern Pennsylvania community made up of 1,630 has shown a death rate from heart attacks that is strikingly low—despite a passionate love for fattening foods and wine.

Medical researchers, who yesterday published their report on the eating habits and social behavior of the residents of Roseto, said the most striking feature of the community "was the way in which people seemed to enjoy life. They were gay, boisterous and unpretentious.

"Whether or not their sensible way of life contributed to their good health is still to be determined," the report added.

Roseto's mayor tends to agree with the tentative conclusions of the report.

"We're a cultural people. The main thing is that we have peace of mind. I guess there's a little bit of heredity in it, too," said the mayor.

In Roseto, 95 per cent of the residents are first, second or third generation Italians who have maintained many of their traditional Italian customs.

Yet the incidence of death due to heart attacks among these people overweight by medical standards, was considerably less than ethnically-different neighboring towns—Banger, Nazareth, Stroudsburg, and East Stroudsburg.

It's a puzzle to scientists who have been pointing at America's rich diet as a prime factor in arterial diseases and heart attacks.

Nearly a million persons annually are made ill as a result of accidental food poisoning in the United States.

Liberties Group Offers Grants

Three scholarships are being offered by the Marin Chapter of the American Civil Liberties Union for a one-week workshop on "Teaching the Bill of Rights," to be presented by University of California Extension in San Francisco June 29 to July 3.

The scholarships are open to Marin County teachers, board of education members, advanced teaching students, and members of the clergy. Applications may be made to Mrs. Libby Ginsberg, 60 Redwood Road, San Anselmo.

Girl Athletes Elect At Redwood High

BATS ABOUT VAMPIRES?

If you like vampires and their friends you will find Theater V's production of "Dracula" a hair raising experience. The show goes on at 8:30 p.m. tomorrow at Brown's Hall in Mill Valley. It will be staged again the following Friday and Saturday. John Rechtfertig portrays Count Dracula. Faith Kindell is one of his victims.

2 Truant Inmates Back In Custody

Two of the three recent work furlough escapees from Marin County jail were back in custody today, but sheriff's officers said one threatened suicide twice and has been transferred to Napa State Hospital for psychiatric examination.

John Lyle Mead, 47, contacted officers yesterday and said he would surrender to a "plainclothesman" in unmarked police car at 3 p.m. yesterday at his home, 7 Napa Street, Fairfax.

Chief Deputy Ellis Seibert and Jim Soetaert, adult division supervisor of Marin County Probation Office, arrived but Mead was not there. They said shortly after they found him at Fairfax police department, where he had surrendered.

He was booked at county jail at 4:20 p.m., but deputies said shortly after he informed them by note he intended to commit suicide. They said he had acquired an electrical extension cord, and was found seated on his cell bunk with the cord around his neck.

The cord was removed, they said, and shortly after Mead made a noose of his T-shirt and again indicated a suicide attempt.

He was then taken to Napa.

Mead, serving 90 days for passing a worthless $30 check, failed to reappear on work furlough last Saturday. A man identifying himself as Mead later telephoned he was departing San Francisco International Airport for Iowa, but officers said Mead apparently had not left the state.

Second apprehension is Louis Barton Pettijohn, 28, of 42 Bolinas Avenue, Fairfax. Deputies said they acted on information that Pettijohn would visit an acquaintance in Lake County, where he once lived, and notified the sheriff's office there.

A stakeout was made, and Pettijohn arrested at a cabin shortly after. Seibert said he would be returned today. Pettijohn failed to return to Marin County jail last Friday. He was serving a year sentence for passing a worthless check.

Still missing is Lester Ray Finn, 28, Oakland man serving a year for burglary and also missing since last Friday.

All face a felony escape charge.

Utilities Board Argues Over Phone 'Bugs'

SAN FRANCISCO (AP) — William M. Bennett of Kentfield, president of the California Public Utilities Commission, says monitoring services offered by telephone companies should be outlawed."

Bennett made the statement yesterday after four other members of the commission signed an order initiating a statewide probe of telephone company monitoring practices.

Bennett refused to sign, however, calling the order "an idle act" and stating that he would elaborate on his reasons in a minority report later on.

In its orders, the PUC said: "Such equipment may have been used or may be used in a manner contrary to the laws of the United States of America and the State of California, or in a manner inimical to the maintenance of privacy of communication over the telephone net work in California."

The PUC said it will set times and places of public hearings on the issue later.

Monitoring practices have been defended by Pacific Telephone Co. as being in the interests of establishing better customer treatment by employees of business firms.

Driver Fined $149

John Moss, 44, San Francisco, was fined $149 yesterday in Marin Municipal Court for drunken driving. He was arrested Tuesday near the intersection of Highway 101 and North San Pedro Road.

Appreciation Dinner Set For Rep. Clausen June 15

About 500 persons are expected to attend an appreciation dinner for Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) on June 15 at Peacock Gap Country Club in San Rafael.

The dinner, sponsored by the Marin County Republican Central Committee, will begin at 7:30 p.m., preceded by a cocktail hour.

Edwin W. Thomas is general chairman of the event. He will be assisted by Mrs. J. Lee Chaille, Calvin P. Horn, Robert D. Huber, Matthew A. Graham, James McNab, Charles Michals, Mrs. Geraldine Olinger and Mrs. Edwin W. Thomas.

Dr. Gaylord Parkinson, San Diego physician and vice chairman of the Republican State Central Committee, will be a special guest.

Entertainment by the Forientals, a Marin County barbershop quartet, also will be featured.

"A limited number of tickets is still available for the dinner," Thomas announced. Tickets may be obtained from Thomas or from Marin Republican headquarters.

Hub City Firm Wins State Bids

Watkin and Sibbald, San Anselmo landscape company, was announced today as low bidder on two State Division of Highways landscaping projects.

The San Anselmo company was low at $109,437.95 on landscaping and installing an irrigation system along the U.S. Highway 101 southern freeway between the James Lick Memorial Freeway bypass and Mission Street in San Francisco. Two bids were received.

Watkin and Sibbald also was low on landscaping and installing irrigation system along 1.8 miles of State Highway 105 in and near San Mateo. Its bid on this job, which includes 4,511 shrubs, 1,110 trees, and 447,400 ground cover plants, was $178,300.

Collision Cuts Head

Wendell H. Sanford, 60, of 380 Johnstone Drive, Marinwood, was cut on the head when his car struck the rear bumper of a tank truck yesterday on a Highway 101 connector road just south of the Novato city limits. He told the California Highway Patrol his head struck the sun visor bracket.

Clausen Lauds House Passage Of Highway Act

Rep. Don H. Clausen (R-Crescent City) today praised House passage of the Highway Construction Act, including 170 million dollars for Forest Service access roads.

The House approved the bill this week by a 294-0 vote and sent it to the Senate.

The Act authorizes construction of federal aid primary and secondary highways throughout the nation for fiscal years 1966 and 1967, including 85 million dollars for forest access roads for each of those years.

Seminary Head To Talk At Academy

Dr. Theodore A. Gill, president of San Francisco Theological Seminary in San Anselmo, will be principal speaker at the baccalaureate service of San Rafael Military Academy at 2 p.m. tomorrow in the academy chapel.

Rev. Eric Jackson, academy chaplain, will conduct the service.

Dr. Sumner Walters, rector and headmaster of the academy, noted that furnishing the baccalaureate speaker is one of the many ways in which the Presbyterian seminary and the Episcopal academy have cooperated this year. A principal activity by the seminary at the academy has been furnishing of 10 students to serve as dormitory masters. The 10 also have been active in organizing extra-curricular activities for academy students, Doctor Walters noted, among the most successful being the academy's first drama club, which recently presented "Out of the Frying Pan" by Francis Swann.

Tiburon Fire Tax Rate Holds Line; Annexation Voted

Tiburon Fire Protection district directors last night adopted the final budget for the 1964-65 year in the amount of $103,483, calling for a tax rate of 66 cents per $100 assessed valuation.

This year's budget was for $101,340 with the same tax rate.

The board adopted a resolution to annex tidelands property to the nine-foot depth at lowest tide from the stone tower all the way to the Corte Madera city line, according to Frank J. Buscher, fire chief.

A committee was appointed to study salaries of firemen throughout the county, members of which are Harry M. Bragg, Kelly J. Wheeler and Buscher.

Buscher was authorized to attend an arson and fire investigation seminar at University of California, June 15-19.

Human Rights Body Studies Marin City

Herbert Samuels, community consultant for the anti-defamation league in San Francisco, appeared before the Marin County Human Rights Commission last night to explain the San Francisco police department's community relations program and suggest how similar programs might be used by the sheriff's office for Marin City.

Iniece Bailey was named head of a task force to study police problems in Marin City, and San Francisco Police Chief Thomas J. Cahill was invited to the commission's next meeting.

Tam Valley Might Try Incorporation

Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club members last night decided to discuss possible annexation to Mill Valley or incorporation of Tamalpais Valley at their next meeting on July 2, president Daniel C. Mulcahey said today.

All members of the club will be invited to appear, said Mulcahey, with the idea of trying to determine how the people feel. "Afterwards," he added, "we may invite the mayor of Mill Valley and someone from the new City of Tiburon to talk to us."

Club members discussed recent tax reappraisals by the county assessor's office and agreed to invite Homestead Valley and Almonte improvement clubs to meet with them for a discussion. A committee was formed and a member will go to the Sausalito Taxpayers Assn. headquarters in Sausalito to get information on how to officially protest reappraisals.

Members made final plans for a club dance at 8 p.m. today in the clubhouse.

Sheriff's Posse To Join Other Counties In Ride

The Marin County Sheriff's Posse will join sheriff's posses of six other Bay Area counties in an all-day ride Sunday through watershed properties of the San Francisco Water Department in San Mateo County.

It will be the first time the posse members from the seven counties have joined in a ride together. Participating, besides Marin, will be posses from Alameda, Contra Costa, Napa, San Francisco, San Mateo and Santa Clar counties.

Defense Loses Dismissal Try

Three Marinites and one Vallejo man must appear in Napa County Superior Court Thursday to enter please on conspiracy charges involving an alleged kick-back scheme on real estate loan transaction.

Defendants are Ross E. Kelly of Kentfield, Dan R. Nunan and William R. Atkinson of San Rafael, and Robert E. Skinner of Vallejo. Skinner was former manager of the Silverado Savings and Loan Assn., in Napa.

According to the indictment, Skinner, Nunan and Kelly entered into an agreement whereby Skinner would make loans to Kelly in Excess of the limitations of the state finance code.

Kelly allegedly paid more than $4,000 in kickbacks after loans on Marin County properties. Later Atkinson allegedly borrowed $50,000 and paid $2,500 to Skinner.

Firemen Warn To Dangers

The Marin County Fire Prevention Assn. yesterday urged caution in the use of hair sprays and charcoal lighter fluid, which were labeled dangerous if improperly used.

Hair sprays are flammable and anyone who uses them should be particularly careful if smoking, the association reported.

The group also urged Marin residents to check with their local fire departments on incinerator regulations.

Capt. William Stepp of the Marin County Fire Department assumed the 1964-65 presidency at an association meeting yesterday. He succeeds Capt. James Cameron of the Marinwood Fire Department.

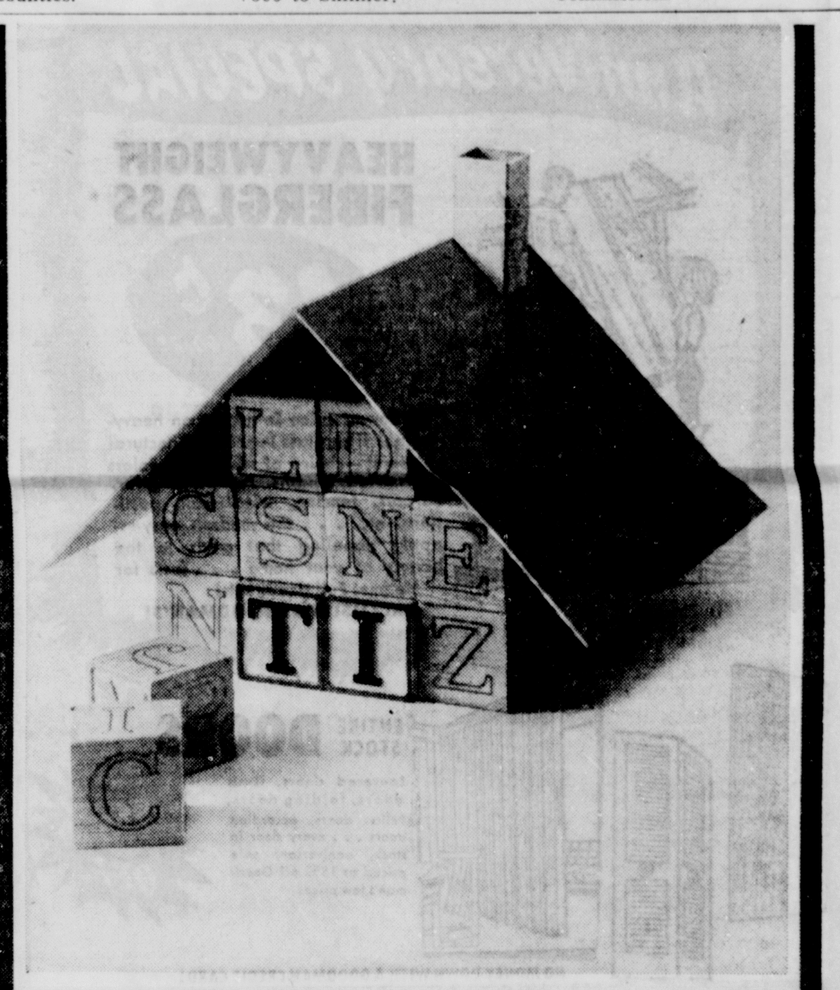
Other 1964-65 officers are Capt. Charles Pruett of Tiburon Fire Department, vice president; Capt. Henry Pierroz of the Mill Valley Fire Department, secretary, and Lee Larson, Corte Madera fire prevention officer, corresponding secretary.

Fire Marshal John K. Mazza of San Rafael, Capt. George Walser of Terra Linda and Capt. Richard Beyer of Novato were named to a research committee to investigate hazardous materials and products.

Captain Pruett was named historian, and Captain Cameron and Fire Marshal Mazza were named to the publicity committee.

Republican Named

WASHINGTON (UPI)—President Lyndon B. Johnson today nominated Republican congressman Hamer Budge of Boise, Ida., to be a member of the Securities and Exchange Commission.



The two most important letters in the alphabet when you buy property

Nothing is more important when you buy real property than the title company selected to protect your ownership rights. You want fast title service. You want accurate title service. You want impartial title examination. Most of all you want a title insurance policy that assures you maximum protection.

You get all four with T.I. That's why T.I. is the overwhelming choice of real estate brokers and property buyers alike—and why T.I. protects the ownership rights to more California property than all other title companies.

Only T.I. can offer fast service in 40 California counties with just one local phone call. Only T.I. has complete up-to-date land records available in all 40 counties. And America's largest, most experienced title staff to interpret them.

Next time you buy or sell property, remember: it costs no more to specify T.I. So why settle for less?

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Will Goldwater's Radical Right Backers 'Take Over?'

Senator Goldwater's narrow victory in the California Republican primary election Tuesday places a heavy burden of responsibility on the victorious senator and his chief California backer, former senator Knowland.

Former senator Knowland, as we observed in this space not long before the primary election, is NOT one of these irresponsibles.

He is integrity personified.

But we are afraid he and his victorious candidate are stuck with a lot of irresponsibles among their supporters.

We don't really know if the radical right can be held under control. If anybody can do it, Bill Knowland should be able to. He has our best wishes for success. If he and Senator Goldwater aren't able to control their far-right supporters, we fear for the future of the Republican Party, which even out of office should play a responsible and important part in government as the "loyal opposition" party.

Not All Friendly Skunks Are Rabid

Skunks are normally shy creatures and we are wisely warned to beware of those that act strangely or appear unafraid. This is Marin's big year for rabid skunks.

However, not all friendly skunks are rabid. We once knew a girl who lived in the Claremont Hotel when she was a child and picked up a nice, little black and white kitty around the hotel's garbage cans. She decided to take it up and show it to her mother. She was in the middle of the lobby when it let go with its skunky weapon. According to all reports, despite the best efforts of the management, the lobby was quite skunky for several weeks.

Some Summer Sounds

Besides the humming, clicking and chirping of the summer insects and the chorus of birds at dawn, there are some other distinctive sounds of summer.

The distant Bee-Ohh of a foghorn on the Bay. The tinkling music made by garden hoses. The sighing of trees in the soft, afternoon sea breeze. The splashing and laughter from a neighbor's swimming pool.

The clacking of mowers and clippers. The sizzle of the outdoor barbecue. The buzz of yellowjackets. The shuddering screech of an owl on a moonless night. The distant rumble of traffic on the Freeway, heard only on a warm, quiet evening.

Sounds of summer in Marin.

By WAT TAKESHITA

TAKESHITA

THE BIG SURPRISE of the election, of course, was Ernest Kettenhofen's upset challenge to veteran Supervisor William Fusselman.

Prior to the election, most political observers would have laughed if you had predicted a Fusselman defeat. In fact, most of them were betting that Fusselman would take both Kettenhofen and Jess France combined.

That's where we disagreed with that feller in the courthouse. Watching Kettenhofen's indefatigable drive with which he pounded both issues and pavement, we figured he would get a good vote. And you can't overlook the quiet efficiency with which campaign manager Peter Goldstein engineered the drive.

Jess France, too, drew a surprising vote, considering the short campaign he waged, added to the fact that he was a virtual unknown politically until a few months ago.

Which way France's supporters will go should be the big factor in the November race between Fusselman and Kettenhofen.

ANOTHER MINOR surprise was young Tom Storer, who matched James Dougan vote for vote. Most experts saw a Ludy-Dougan runoff, but we had a hunch that Storer would be the "dark horse" to watch.

The Salinger-Cranston race, we must admit, fooled us. Pierre Salinger showed up with much more strength in Marin than we thought.

We figure the inheritance tax appraiser issue hurt State Controller Alan Cranston somewhat. The backing given by Jackie Kennedy and by Mrs. Clair Engle must have helped Salinger considerably.

In the Republican presidential race, Gov. Nelson Rockefeller seemed to have the edge over Sen. Barry Goldwater, but we didn't think Marin would go quite so strongly for Rocky.

It all goes to show that political predictions are precarious guesses at best. But that's what makes life interesting.

So, on to the national conventions, and next November.

THE CYNIC'S CORNER By Interlandi

REMEMBER WHEN?

10 YEARS AGO

Plans to promote new funds to improve Shoreline Highway were to be discussed at a meeting of the Shoreline Highway Assn. at Stinson Beach.

20 YEARS AGO

Sausalito City Councilman Randolph Pettersen and Golden Gate Bridge District general manager James Ricketts sponsored resolutions calling for a second approach to the bridge, southward from Sausalito. The resolution was approved at quarterly meeting of North Coast Council, California Chamber of Commerce.

WHAT OUR READERS SAY

Let Marin City Pay For Deputies

Editor, Independent-Journal

The juxtaposition of the stories of May 26 about our supervisors trying to raise added taxes, and the need to put four deputy sheriffs on duty in Marin City is self-explanatory.

Why not raise the rents in Marin City to cover the costs of whatever services are needed above and beyond those normally used in other Marin County districts?

Native Of South Speaks Her Mind

Editor, Independent-Journal:

. . . I was raised and lived in South Carolina, and I am proud of it. I am Caucasian, but if God had meant me to be Negro, then I would have been born of Negro parents.

Californians or anyone in the U.S.A. should search their own souls before passing judgment on the South. If you had as many of one group as we have in some of our towns in South Carolina, then you would know what I am trying to say. You have been getting a little of it by the Sheraton-Palace incident and also the auto row demonstrations in San Francisco. For an example, in one of our towns I am familiar with an incident. A certain factory hired over half Negroes. Almost every week they would have to send some of these people home to clean themselves up. I have also seen this happen to Caucasians in these factories. What I am trying to say is, if any person or persons, Negro or white, would spend as much time being a better, cleaner person, instead of mauling, screaming and trying to make people do what they want them to, then and only then will they get jobs and all these things they are wanting out of life.

I know Southern people are prejudiced, but so are Californians. I have seen more of it in California than I have ever seen in my home town. I have seen it in Alaska, Canada, almost any place I have been.

No, I do not hate Negroes nor anyone. But whether we like it or not, our country is a land of class distinction. . . . If you were in church and a known prostitute, an alcoholic . . . were to come in and sit down by you in church, what would you say? How would you feel? Would you welcome him? Or her? Would you say what on earth is she doing here? It isn't the people that wear the pretty clothes and furs that always need our help. If we would just help one another, this would answer all of our troubles.

I have a daughter almost 20 years old, but I certainly would not want her in San Francisco or any place else making a spectacle of herself like Miss Tracy Sims has been doing. You can call that narrow-minded if you wish, but I know where my daughter is when she goes out. It breaks my heart to see nice-looking young people with long beards and stringy hair being bodily picked up and carried to a paddy wagon. Thank you for listening to me. Thank you also for printing all these letters. I think you should be admired and respected for this.

Painters Union Is Given Thanks

Editor, Independent-Journal:

We, the members of the San Anselmo Cooperative Nursery School, would like to publicly thank the members of the Painters Union San Rafael Local No. 83 who volunteered their services and painted the exterior of the school building.

These gentlemen instead of enjoying their usual Saturday activities donated their time to do a beautiful professional job. The appearance of the building is considerably improved and the children as well as the parents appreciate this unselfish endeavor.

House Tour Helps Foreign Students

Editor, Independent-Journal:

Novato Community Ambassadors extend grateful thanks to the Independent-Journal for the excellent publicity given to our May 21 House Tour. This contributed largely to the success of our tour.

Proceeds to date have gone over $500, which will go toward our foreign student program. You may be interested to know that, so far, 75 young people from 20 countries (and including Novato) have benefitted from our program. This is truly impressive when you think of the far-reaching effects of this contact between people.

May we also take this opportunity to publicly thank the homeowners who so graciously prepared and opened their lovely homes for us: Mr. John Novak, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bishop, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davies, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Leathers, Dr. and Mrs. Alvin Haag, Mr. and Mrs. Gordon Walker, Mr. and Mrs. Jack West. Especial thanks to the Novato Presbyterian Church, and to the community for the fine support for our program.

TRY AND STOP ME

BENNETT CERF

IN SOME FASHION that I do not understand, a Purdue sophomore swallowed a ping-pong ball and was rushed to the infirmary to have it removed. He bore up bravely while the surgeon made an incision, but began to squirm when this was followed by two more jobs. When the surgeon wielded his instrument for a fourth time, the student cried, "What's the big idea of cutting me in so many places?" "Relax, man," suggested the surgeon. "That's the way the ball bounces."

ROOMMATES AT Vassar both had boy friends at Columbia Law School, which worked out very nicely for weekend parties. Suddenly, however, the ardent love letters of both law students ceased, and the girls had to content themselves with dry, noncommittal little notes. "What's the matter with you two goons?" the girls demanded one Saturday afternoon. "Don't you love us any more?" "We do, we do," insisted one of the law students, "but, you see, we're studying breach of promise cases this month."

MRS. GUMBOODLE watched silently as long as she could stand it while her middle-aged husband ogled a striking brunette in a tight-fitting, revealing cocktail dress. Then she hissed in his ear, "I'll bet the sink in her kitchen is well-stacked, too!"

ROSCOE DRUMMOND

Here Is Must Reading For Anyone Wishing To Get Insight On LBJ

WASHINGTON — I should like to invite you to ponder four questions about the most publicized man in the United States today:

Do you figure that President Lyndon B. Johnson is so busy doing things that he has no time to think about things?

Is Johnson a "liberal" or a "conservative"?

Has he been so preoccupied with domestic issues that he has little interest in foreign affairs?

What would you say are Johnson's principal goals as president of the United States?

IF YOU ARE quite sure you know the answers to these questions or are reasonably sure you don't—you are in for an exciting and rewarding experience if you will do one thing: read William S. White's book-length profile, "The Professional: Lyndon B. Johnson," published by Houghton Mifflin Co., Boston.

White provides unusually authoritative answers to all these questions and others. He knows the president almost as well as Johnson knows himself. The book reads as good music sounds.

As you read "The Professional," you will discern that White writes with admiration and regard.

SOME WILL FIND White too uncritical. I am not suggesting that White's are the only answers or that his answers are not at points arguable. But he writes with special insight and with the most intimate knowledge of the man and the politician of any correspondent in Washington.

He illumines Johnson's motives and motivations, on his policies and purposes. Like this one, which goes to the heart of what makes the president's actions and thoughts so closely linked that many have proclaimed that LBJ is all action and no thought:

"To proclaim policy," White writes, "is a high presidential function; to effectuate policy is a high presidential art. It is an art which I believe, after 30 years of observation and reflection, to be embodied in him as in no other president of my lifetime."

WHITE SUBMITS that those who tend to view Johnson as only an "operator," as only a "wheeler and dealer" in the legislative process, have failed to perceive that LBJ has been an "effectuator" of political philosophy, not an effectuator of non-philosophy, and have made the mistake of viewing political action as though it were something other than "an extension of political thought."

It is worth noting that Lyndon Johnson and John Kennedy voted exactly the same on all critical phases of civil rights during the eight years they were in the Senate together. The ultra-liberals credited Senator Kennedy with great sincerity of purposes, but Senator Johnson's ultra-liberal critics tended to dismiss him as a mere maneuverer.

I think that White thoroughly demonstrates that Johnson from an early New Deal congressman to president, is a man of conviction and thoughtful purpose, who could vote for the Wagner Act in 1935 and the Taft-Hartley Act in 1946 for the same reasons. This did not show that Johnson had changed as much as circumstances had changed.

It is too early to judge Johnson as president. White provides a valuable preface for future assessment.

THE ALLEN-SCOTT REPORT

Tentative Date Set For Warren Report

By ROBERT S. ALLEN and PAUL SCOTT

WASHINGTON — The special commission investigating the assassination of President John F. Kennedy has been forced to set a new target date for completion of its already overdue report — Sept. 1.

Even that is tentative. The seven-member probing group had planned to publish its world-awaited findings by June 1. But a number of important witnesses are still to be heard, and crucial information still is being sought with no certainty when it can be obtained—if ever.

FOR EXAMPLE: Biggest gap in the commission's historic study is a comprehensive account of Lee Harvey Oswald's connections and activities during the three years he was in Russia as a "dedicated Marxist" and avowed defector.

The commission is still very much in the dark on this vital phase of Oswald's life. Records and other material supplied by the Soviet Union have shed little light. The last batch, submitted some weeks ago, was of no material consequence. Similarly, the State Department so far has provided scant significant information.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk, Ambassador Llewellyn Thompson, who was in Moscow throughout the period Oswald lived in Russia, and members of the embassy's staff who had dealings with him have yet to testify. Several times, Rusk has been slated to appear, but crises and sudden trips to Europe and Southeast Asia necessitated postponements.

ALSO UP IN the air is when Mrs. Jacqueline Kennedy will testify. As exclusively disclosed in this column, the former first lady has agreed to do that. But she has not signified when and in what manner—in person or in a written account.

A close friend of hers has told commission members Mrs. Kennedy is "going through a difficult period. She has good days and bad days. Perhaps what she is experiencing can best be described as undergoing the full reaction of what she has gone through. It's just catching up with her. She needs time to prepare herself for this ordeal, which it certainly will be."

Even more indefinite is a statement from President Lyndon B. Johnson. The commission has indicated it will be glad to receive anything he cares to submit. So far there has been no word on what he will do.

ONE OF THE MOST significant aspects of the 10-week-long Senate debate over the civil rights measure is the restraint and decorum that has characterized it.

There have been a few instances of frayed tempers. But they were brief and left no lasting scars. However, the battle is far from over, and as the decisive votes near, the courtly atmosphere may change.

The Country Parson

Barber Appointment Is By Long Distance

MIAMI BEACH, Fla. (AP) — Thomas Scott, operator of a hotel barbershop, said he received a call: "This is Patrick Connolly in Minneapolis. Have a chair ready for me at 5:15 this afternoon."

"So help me," Scott said, "At 5:15 the door opened, he walked in and sat down."

I-J REPORTER'S NOTEBOOK

By ROBERT M. COPPOCK

Politics Is A Great Hobby But Waiting For Results Is A Bore

POLITICS IS A GREAT hobby, even for those, like federal employees and newspapermen, who are not expected generally to participate actively from a partisan position.

But it takes a special kind of nut to enjoy sitting up to weird hours watching election returns. Things become dull as the hours drag on and the missing precincts become fewer and the races are clearly decided.

But election night at the county clerk's office is the raw stuff of politics. It is the actual occurrence which all the ballyhoo and maneuvering and expenditure of money are about.

FROM THE POINT of view of the candidate and his ardent supporters, the night is similar to that endured by Japanese students awaiting results of the university entrance examinations. Except that many Japanese who fail commit suicide. An American, instead, is supposed to smile and wish the victor well.

Counting votes, even for the relatively simple ballot on Tuesday, is a tremendously complicated job. Marin County now uses a computer to aid in the job, although two years ago the computer operations turned out to be a fiasco.

But Tuesday night's results showed two things clearly. The county's elaborate data processing equipment is really much too elaborate for the kind of job required in Marin. And the human factor can foul up any machine operation.

THE COUNTY'S IBM 1401 computer, known as "George," was used to count figures taken from tally sheets and to keep running totals of every race, reporting every half hour or so.

The machine did a fine job, but only used a minute amount of its capacity to do the job. There was simply no challenge. There was even a serious question of increased speed, since tally sheets had to be taken by car from the courthouse to the Civic Center.

It was like shooting a fly with an elephant gun.

On the other hand, the vote tally would have been completed much earlier if it had not been for humans. The count was held up for some time at the end because precinct officers neglected to fill in the section on the tally sheets marked in red with a warning that the spaces must be filled in.

ONE OF THE BLANKS was for the precinct number. In numerous cases officials had to try to match tally sheets with tally books to guess where the sheets came from.

County Clerk George Gnoss predicted he would have the same problems in November, for the general election, mainly because there would be a new batch of precinct officials to make mistakes.

Of course, in November, with at least one more unification measure, three supervisors' runoffs and several state propositions, the precinct level work will be much slower, and will have more opportunities for error.

The problem may be that the machines are in the wrong place. The present computer operation requires that a key punch operator punch an average of 10 cards per precinct. It may be that girls with adding machines might be able to do about the same job at about the same speed.

BUT AT THE PRECINCT level, machines could cut out a lot of nonsense. Voting machines are expensive, but so are the extra poll officials, in the long run.

Voting machines are undergoing changes and are being tested in other areas, so there is a hesitancy in many California areas to commit a county to a major capital expense for a device that may soon be outmoded.

But voting machines are coming. The later a person stays awake on election night, and the following morning, the more convinced he becomes that they are badly needed.

San Geronimo Sets Swimming Classes

Swimming classes for residents of the San Geronimo Valley will be conducted at the Woodacre Improvement Club pool June 15-27.

Diane Schmidt will be the instructor, assisted by Sharon Ravoni, John Burke, Ron Vanbianchi and Robert Ross.

Classes will be from 9 a.m. to noon. The minimum age for swimmers is seven. A housewives' class will be conducted at 11:30 a.m. Mrs. Donald Pederson of Woodacre is in charge of registration.

Bugging Is Good For You While Visiting In Russia

WASHINGTON — Recently the State Department, in an indignant press conference, revealed that the American Embassy in Moscow had been bugged with tiny microphones. As usual, the press conference, which came out of the blue, raised more questions than it was supposed to answer.

Why did it take 11 years to find out that microphones were in the walls? What did the State Department expect to prove by revealing that the Soviets had been tuned in on them for such a long time? And what is the American public supposed to do about it now that we know what everyone assumed right along — that the Russians have been bugging us for years?

WHEN WE DROVE to Russia several years ago, we were sure that our hotel rooms in the various cities we visited were bugged, but instead of complaining about it we used it to our advantage. At the time we were traveling with a writer named Peter Stone. When we checked in at the Metropole Hotel in Moscow, we found our rooms were very cold.

But instead of complaining to the manager, Peter shouted into the chandelier, "These damn Russian hotel rooms don't have any heat. When I get back to the United States, I'm going to tell everyone that heating in the Soviet Union is terrible and hasn't changed since the days of the Czar."

TWO HOURS LATER the radiators started to clank and three hours later our room was as warm as toast.

We still weren't sure if it was an accident or not, so the next day we stood under the chandelier again.

This time Peter said, "I'm getting sick and tired of having a male Intourist guide. How come everyone else gets good looking blondes and we're stuck with a guy?"

"They're afraid if they give us a girl guide we'll win her over to our side with nylons and lipsticks," we shouted. "Besides, they'd probably fall in love with us."

THE NEXT MORNING we were greeted in the lobby by a girl Intourist guide who explained that our regular guide was sick. The first place she took us to was the GUM department store where she showed us a counter. "You see," she said, "we have nylons and lipsticks in Russia, too."

"Who said you didn't?" Peter asked.

"American men are so conceited," our guide said. "They think any girl will fall in love with them."

"Not all American men," we said. "We don't think so."

She was about to say something, but she caught herself in time.

FROM THEN ON things really moved for us in Russia. Every time we wanted something, we spoke into the chandelier. Once Peter complained that he was disappointed because no one followed us. He felt his trip was wasted if he couldn't go home and say he hadn't been followed by the secret police. The next day we were followed.

Another time the radio in the room was broken and we reported it to the ceiling. In a few hours we had a new radio.

Then we got a brainstorm.

We had tried, without success, through channels, to get an interview with Premier Nikita Khrushchev. Why not ask the chandelier?

For two days we kept saying that the only thing we really wanted was an interview with the Russian premier. But apparently this was too much even for Intourist. When we saw the chief of Intourist on the second day, he said, "I told you you couldn't see the premier. Don't you believe anything I say?"

Piano Class Recital

Point Reyes School To Graduate Two

The two eighth graders at Point Reyes School will receive their diplomas in a program at the school at 7:45 p.m. Thursday.

The graduates are Nina Blan and Gail Cox. The school, now with a total enrollment of 11, is located on the road to the Point Reyes lighthouse.

The graduation program will consist of music and recitations, according to teacher Mrs. Ila Donovan.

Marin's CHP Officers Boast Safety Record

California Highway Patrol officers of the Marin-Golden Gate Bridge Area drove off with safety honors in the 10-county Zone III of the State, Capt. T. F. Parnow, commander, announced today.

The officers in the area drove 806,360 miles during 1963 and had only one avoidable accident. A certificate has been sent to the local office in recognition of the record.

Six Marinites Due For UCSB Degrees

Six Marin County students will be graduated from University of California at Santa Barbara in commencement exercises June 13.

San Rafael—William Duane Austin, 25 Ridge Avenue, mathematics; David Rolf Dresia, 107 Santa Margarita Drive, history; David J. Linden, 73 East Crescent Drive; political science; and Michael H. Watts, 25 Las Cuesta Drive, economics.

San Anselmo — Colleen Esther Malcolm, 65 Estates Drive, French.

To Honor Society

Paul H. Garbarini, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar J. Garbarini of 218 Poplar Drive, Kentfield, has been initiated into Tau Beta Pi, national honorary society for engineers. He is a senior at University of Santa Clara.

Parking Tickets Are Growing Crop

By JEFF GREER

Little pink pieces of paper are sprouting on parked cars in Marin County more luxuriantly than ever this year, neatly tucked beneath windshield wipers.

Municipal court records show that almost as many parking citations were handled in the first nine months of fiscal 1963-64 as came into court the whole preceding year.

In the period from last July 1 through March, city police, sheriff's deputies, California Highway Patrol and officers at College of Marin wrote a total of 46,474 motorists the news they were in violation of parking laws. The 12 preceding months saw a total of 46,905 tickets handled by the court.

The biggest jumps show up for Sausalito and San Rafael. But those cities' officials say the reason for the ticket boom is not any sudden crackdown, but rather that both cities are growing, and more shoppers are coming to town every day.

"Our shopping volume is up 16 to 17 per cent over last year," San Rafael City Mgr. Dan E. Anderson pointed out. He noted that the city employed one extra meter maid during the first-of-the-year heavy sales season, somewhat increasing the number of tickets at that time.

"But that's evened off, now," he said.

Municipal court records indicate that 24,743 San Rafael tickets were processed by the court in the first nine months of this fiscal year — as compared to 26,956 for the entire year before, and 27,852 for fiscal 1961-62. If tickets in the final three months of this year run true to form, the San Rafael total will near 31,000.

Sausalito's parking citations brought 6,134 cases to municipal court in fiscal 1961-62 and 6,834 last year. So far this year, the total on the court books is already 8,694, and it could be a record 10,000 by July 1, it appears.

Countywide, a straight 125 per cent extension of the first nine months' total tickets indicates a potential of nearly 62,000 cases. And the commentary in the proposed 1964-65 county budget now before the county board of supervisors predicts a growth to 70,956 in the next year.

All told, 13 different agencies are writing parking tickets in Marin County this year. The caseload in the court ranges from San Rafael's high down to 20 tickets from College of Marin.

Iguanas, the giant lizards of land and sea, were called "imps of darkness" by Charles Darwin.

Anshen Coroner Inquest Is Set

Coroner's inquest into death of A. Robert Anshen, 54-year-old architect who died the day following an unexplained fire May 25 in his DeSilva Island home in Marin County, is scheduled for 10 a.m. June 18 at Hall of Justice in San Francisco.

San Francisco Coroner Henry Turkel has termed Anshen's death "probably accidental" as result of a combination of bad liver, alcohol and barbiturates.

Evidence of the house fire is at the State Bureau of Investigation and Identification in Sacramento to determine if arson was involved. Marin County Sheriff's Inspector Marco Melovich said results have not yet been learned.

Nehru Opposed Funeral Pomp

NEW DELHI (UPI)—The Hindu funeral performed for Premier Jawaharlal Nehru last week violated his own wish that there be no such rites at his passing, it was reported yesterday.

"I do not believe in any such ceremonies," Nehru said in his will. "To submit to them, even as a matter of form, would be hypocrisy and an attempt to delude ourselves and others."

He asked that a handful of his ashes be thrown into the Ganges River—a ceremony that will be carried out in his native city of Allahabad Sunday—and the rest be scattered from an airplane "so that they might mingle with the dust and soil of India."

The BULLPEN

With JOHN J. CONNOLLY

Scribe Brings Out The Question: What Is Wrong With The Giants?

CONNOLLY

It has to be first prize for the answer — what's wrong with the S. F. Giants?

Anyone who has followed the box scores since the season began knows the club has not hit up to expectations. For awhile the pitching wasn't so hot. Then it straightened out and still the club looks impotent. Why?

Clubs built as tenderly and carefully as the Giants shouldn't get out of step so early, stay that way so long, unless there is something wrong, somewhere. Where is it? What is causing it?

FROM TIME to time injuries have crippled the club. Orlando Cepeda, whenever he isn't playing, is a big loss and he's been in and out of the lineup like a sailor on a wild spree.

Jose Pagan and Jim Duffalo ripped rib muscles and both are out like the lights. But before Pagan got hurt he wasn't working up to his expected style nor was Duffalo being allowed to pitch often.

Bad weather, causing a shift of pitching rotation, may be the answer to Duffalo's case. Rain cramped the best laid plans of "Antsy Alvin" Dark.

PAGAN'S fielding has been ragged and he has hit only sparsely. The makeup of the Giant infield, from day to day and week to week, changes like the markings on the stock exchange board. No one ever seems to know who's playing where and when. And this makes for confusion.

Manager Dark has tried hard to keep Jim Hart, the rookie third sacker, in the regular lineup even though he knows the kid isn't quite ready yet. It is no secret that Jesus Alou looks good and bad, and at times great. If he was able to play awhile and look on awhile, he might reach the big league standard expected of him a lot faster.

BUT WILLIE McCovey caused the Alou jam. The big slicker isn't right this year. His swing is off or maybe the other pitchers are finding out where he is weak and thus putting the silencer on his potent club of 1963.

McCovey played too long with a physical handicap that may have thrown him completely out of kilter. His thigh, or groin, injury was treated lightly more because he was desperately needed, than any attempt to minimize the ailment. But with or without McCovey the Giants haven't been clicking.

It is hard to point the finger to any individual and blame him for the club's lack of batting strength but we can detect a bit of disorganization that isn't becoming and makes one wonder: Are they playing together? Are they thinking together?

WILLIE MAYS was boosted into the captaincy, it has been said, to bring Alvin Dark closer to his players. They say Alvin felt the players would confide more in Willie than they would in him. How about that?

There have been a lot of silly reports about the Giants being ordered to batting practice right after they played a league contest. Is this supposed to be a morale builder or a bit of Dark discipline?

We've heard so much about how tiredness and misery hit the club since the 23 inning game, that it is becoming quite silly. When does all this cry babying stop and when do the pros on the club pick up their marbles and call this kindergarten stuff off.

THE TURN of events now is quite similar in many respects to the predicament that prevailed just before Bill Rigney got the bounce. And for that reason I'm beginning to wonder if there isn't something going on under the table or behind closed doors.

Trying to determine the best pitching rotation for pitchers who have been together four years is something a manager shouldn't have to debate too long about. He ought to know —not guess. When to rest a ball player and when to remove an ailing player should be the manager's prerogative, not the team captain's.

But it is beginning to seem a big move whenever the ordinary Giant problem comes up. I'm wondering if Alvin is losing that positive thinking he had so much of when he first joined the club.

I'LL ALWAYS maintain McCovey played too much, too often and too long while physically handicapped and I blame that for his bat slump. And I hope I hex him out of it.

But if it was only McCovey it wouldn't matter. Tom Haller, and other good hitters on the team seem to be suffering the same fate. To win a pennant in 1964 the S.F. Giants have to start a winning streak. And come to think of it, maybe that's the answer. Let's start one.

Giants Challenge Phils For N. L. Lead

PHILADELPHIA (UPI) — The San Francisco Giants, still trying to get a little more muscle in their batting attack, open a three-game series at Philadelphia tonight with first place the prize at stake.

The Giants and Phils hardly looked like the league's best last night as San Francisco made another young pitcher look good while losing at Pittsburgh, 4-2. As for the Phils, they were on the receiving end of a no-hitter by Sandy Koufax of the Dodgers.

The Giants were completely held in check by rookie Steve Blass, who only arrived from the Bucs' Columbus farm club late last month.

He surrendered five hits, including three in the fifth when San Francisco scored its runs. Jim Hart walked and Cap Peterson singled. Hits by Jesus Alou and Willie Mays brought in the tallies.

Pittsburgh made even more use of the big inning, however, when it sent 10 men to the plate in a four-run outburst off loser Bob Bolin, now 1-2. Willie Stargell's single, Bill Mazeroski's two-run poke, and Bolin's walk to Dick Schofield with the bases loaded brought in the tallies.

Relievers Gaylord Perry, Billy O'Dell, and Bob Shaw held the Pirates in check the rest of the way, but the Giants could not generate any offense.

In the night's least surprising news, manager Danny Murtaugh of the Pirates announced he was withdrawing his protest over Wednesday's 3-0 loss to the Giants. The hassle regarded a batted ball that struck Willie Mays. The umpires decreed that Mays was in foul territory at the time and Murtaugh didn't think so.

San Francisco sends its best pitcher, Juan Marichal (8-1) against the Phils tonight. The league leaders, who are 1½ games up on the San Franciscans, have a hard thrower of their own ready to go in Art Mahaffey (4-2), who has given the Giants fits through the years.

Koufax Only 'Practicing' In Perfecto

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Sandy Koufax has finished practicing.

He finished about halfway through the third no-hitter of his major league career, allowing only one walk in a 3-0 victory over Philadelphia last night and joining Bob Feller as the only triple no-hit hurlers in modern baseball history.

Minutes later, in the Los Angeles Dodgers' dressing room, the unshaven Koufax made a startling revelation—in the first few innings he was just trying to adjust his motion.

"I have been studying pictures in magazines of my form," Koufax explained, "and suddenly realized that I had been stepping too far to the left with the right foot across my body.

"So in the first few innings I concentrated on making an adjustment, stepping more to the right. It felt fine. I had the old pitching rhythm back."

No one knew it was missing. Koufax had not been the sensational pitcher he was last year when he won Most-Valuable-Player honors and the Cy Young Award as the best pitcher in the majors. But everyone presumed he was still shaking off an early season injury.

Against the Phillies, it was difficult to tell where Koufax corrected his mistake. Only four balls were hit to the outfield and the closest thing to a hit was Richie Allen's slow grounder in the seventh inning, scooped up by third baseman Jim Gilliam, who quickly fired to first for the out.

LONE BASERUNNER

Allen also was the lone Phillies' baserunner but was thrown out attempting to steal after walking on a 3-2 pitch in the fourth inning.

Feller, the only other pitcher to hurl three no-hitters, in post-1900 action, was in Cleveland last night as the Indians played the Chicago White Sox. He wasn't at all surprised that Koufax had matched his three no-hitters.

"Why, the way this guy's going," said Feller, "he may get three more of them before he's through."

Feller didn't see his favor-

Venturi's 67 Second In Tourney

RYE, N.Y. (AP)—For Perry Magee, golf has been better than a poke in the eye with a rockey stick. But not much.

The husky Canadian made $24 in official money on the tour last year, and he hasn't topped the $1,000 mark yet this campaign.

For that kind of money he gave up thoughts of a pro hockey career some years ago, but only after he got poked in the eye with a hockey stick. He was left with a bad right eye, and some second thoughts.

"There have been times when I wondered if I gave up the right game," said Magee.

But today the 30-year-old Toronto pro, whose hair is already greying a little from standing over three-foot putts, led the $100,000 Thunderbird Tournament with a first-round six-under-par 66 for the 6,573-yard Westchester Country Club course.

VENTURI'S 67

He had a one-stroke lead over Phil Rodgers and Ken Venturi, whose game went to pieces three years ago when he suffered a back injury and who has only recently returned to form. Venturi and Rodgers had 67, with Rodgers playing the last 10 holes seven under par after a rocky start.

The touring pros, sharpening up for the U.S. Open in two weeks, wrecked the short course on a fine day for golf. A gusty wind blew in mid-day but it seemed to help as much as it hurt.

In all, 43 players broke par 72.

There were nine at 68, including last year's winner, Arnold Palmer, and the man he beat in a playoff, Paul Harney.

Six more, including Bob Duden who putts croquet mallet-style, had 69.

Several More No-Hitters In Sandy's Future, Says Feller

CLEVELAND (AP) — Bob Feller, onetime Cleveland Indians' fireballer who pitched three no-hitters, thinks Sandy Koufax of the Los Angeles Dodgers will taste the thrill of maybe three more no-hitters before he hangs up his uniform.

"Why the way this guy is going he has a good chance to pitch several more," Feller said last night after Koufax tied the ex-Tribe hurler's modern ERA mark of three career no-hitters.

Sandy has a wonderful future ahead of him mainly because of his fast ball and his excellent control."

Feller, now a successful insurance executive, was at the Cleveland - Chicago American League game when he heard about Koufax's feat.

GOOD HOP

The former American League strikeout king thinks Koufax' fast ball has good hop to it— "the kind that takes off when he lets it go."

The 45-year-old Feller said he thought Koufax now has better control than "I had when I was throwing as hard as he is."

The one thing Koufax does different, Feller explained, is that he concentrates more and works harder on his control. "I got into difficulty walking too many batters," said Feller. "Every other game I lost was due to a base on balls."

After a hurler hits 30, Feller thinks he's got to change from a thrower to a pitcher and he doesn't feel Koufax, now 28, will "have any trouble making that switch."

EQUALS RECORD

Koufax struck out 12, the 54th time he has fanned 10 or more in a game, to equal another record held by Feller and Rube Waddell, famed left-hander of the old Philadelphia Athletics.

"No I wasn't surprised about this either," said Feller. "I thought the strikeout record would have been broken before this and I felt Herb Score had the best chance of doing it before he got hurt."

Feller, a right-hander, tossed his no-hitters against the Chicago White Sox in April 1940; the New York Yankees in April, 1946, and the Detroit Tigers in July, 1951. He also pitched 12 one-hitters, a feat unparalleled. "I think I could have pitched more no-hitters if my career hadn't been broken up by Navy service for four years when I was really going strong," said Feller. " I came close several times but that only counts in horseshoes."

America's Cup Elimination Series Slated

NEW YORK (AP)—American Eagle will sail against Nefertiti and Constellation against Columbia in the first of a series of races to determine the United States' defender of the America's Cup yachting trophy against a British challenge.

The pairing for the races for the four candidates were drawn up last night and the races will start Monday on Long Island Sound with the eventual winner to face the British challenger—as yet unchosen—for the battered old cup in a series off Newport, R.I., in September.

Santa Clara 9th In College Poll

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) — In a thrilling race to the wire, Missouri nipped Arizona State University and ranks as the No. 1 collegiate baseball club in the land.

The final poll of the season conducted by the newspaper, Collegiate Baseball, showed Missouri and Arizona State with 19 first-place votes each, but Missouri nipped the Sun Devils by three points, 349 to 346, when the total points were tabulated.

MARIN COLLEGE AWARDS

Riemcke, Sparrow, Honored

Pregenzer Is Hoping For A Return Trip To S.F. Giants

AWAITING RETURN—John Pregenzer, a 6-5, 220-pound schoolteacher, is pitching for the Tacoma Giants, a San Francisco farm club, with high hopes of returning to the varsity. (AP Wirephoto)

It Would Mean A Rebirth For His Fan Club

By JACK HEWINS

TACOMA (AP)—Big John Pregenzer is putting a little extra into every pitch these days — he's in a hurry to get back to the San Francisco Giants and his fan club.

"I'll be back," he says confidently. "I guess — I hope — they'll be waiting."

$100 PURCHASE

It happened when Novella O'Hara, a roving photographer and feature writer for the San Francisco Chronicle, read that the Giants had bought Pregenzer from the Pocatello club for $100.

She didn't know big, strong athletes could be bought so cheaply. So she telephoned Chub Feeney, vice president of the Giants, and offered him $125 for the pitcher—a 25 per cent profit.

"He's not for sale," Feeney said, a bit shaken by the incident. "This man is no freak. Don't make a character out of him."

FORMS CLUB

Miss O'Hara could not be deterred. Unable to buy the pitcher, she did the next best thing. She formed a Pregenzer Fan Club, which mushroomed with thousands of members, including such promient people as Pierre Salinger and Pete Rozelle.

There was one trouble. He couldn't make it with the Giants. He pitched in six games without a decision. Then he was shipped to Tacoma.

FIVE WINS

Big John liked this. He decided that San Francisco was the place for him. He finished the season at Tacoma, where he pitched in 62 games and had a 6-2 record. So far this year he has won five and lost two and has an earned run average of 2.39.

Charley Fox, manager of the Tacoma team in the Pacific Coast League, thinks he has found the proper role for Big John—a short term relief specialist.

"He keeps the ball low—makes 'em hit on the ground," says Fox.

ites win, the Indians losing to the White Sox 5-1. In the only other American League game played, the New York Yankees defeated Minnesota 9-7.

In other National League action, Pittsburgh whipped San Francisco 4-2, the Chicago Cubs edged St. Louis 2-1, Cincinnati downed Milwaukee 6-3 and Houston beat the New York Mets 7-3.

Koufax, bringing his record to 6-4 with the 99th victory of his career, struck out 12 Phillies, and thus tied another record. It was the 54th time in his career he had struck out 10 or more batters, equalling the mark previously shared by Feller and Rube Waddell.

Koufax got the only runs he needed when Frank Howard hit his 14th homer in the seventh inning off Chris Short following singles by Gilliam and Tommy Davis.

FASTEST GAME

The Cubs and Cardinals played the season's fastest game in the N.L., 1 hour, 42 minutes, Ron Santo's two-run homer in the fourth providing Chicago's runs while Charley James homered for St. Louis. It was Santo's third homer in three games and gave Dick Ellsworth, 7-4, the edge against Bob Gibson, 5-2, in a battle of six-hitters.

Frank Robinson's second home run of the game, a three-run shot in the ninth, gave the Reds their victory. The Braves pulled off a triple play in the second inning when Leo Cardenas lined to Mike de la Hoz with two men on. The second baseman flipped to shortstop Denis Menke for the second out and the relay to first nailed No. 3.

Dick Farrell brought his record to 8-1 against the Mets with 3⅔ innings of no-hit relief work by Don Larson. The Colts, meanwhile, collected 15 hits—four each by Bob Lillis and Eddie Kasko—and were aided by four New York errors.

Fishing Stamp Picture Confusing; Salmon Trolling Is Sizzling Hot

STEVENS

The Chinese have a saying: "One picture is worth ten thousand words." But Audrey Payne of the San Lorenzo Bait and Tackle takes exception. For the 10th time last week she had to use many words to convince a buyer of a sport-fishing license that the picture on the fishing stamps doesn't mean a thing. "They insist," she said, "that the fact that the picture on the stamp for inland fish depicts (and is titled) 'Steelhead' and the stamp for trout also has the picture of a steelhead. It confuses people!" I agree, Audrey! Seems they could have the pix of, say a brook trout instead of a steelhead. We all know that a steelhead is a trout, but the stamp allowing one to take any inland waters fish such as a catfish, black bass, crappie etc. INCLUDES the steelhead. So, pay no attention to the picture. You still must have two stamps in addition to your basic license if you would fish for all species of fish or mollusks and crustaceans, including all trout EXCEPT steelhead. Savy?

OKAY, NOW let's have a look-see at the current fishing in the local areas. Salmon trolling is apparently sizzling hot. Tony Caruso of Sausalito reported limit catches the rule for all boats out of his place. Suggested I listen to radio report by skipper of Salmon Queen—Al Collins' broadcast on KSFO. I did. The skipper was on the way back with limits of salmon, all nice fish, bigger than usual. Looks mighty good for as long as the many large schools stick around between Light Ship and Islands.

BASS TROLLING, as well as live bait fishing in the upper San Pablo is paying off in great shape, early in the mornings and late in the evenings. Carl Bennett reported best results this year. Limits and near limits over the weekend by party boats and skiffs. Best by Union Oil Wharf but also very good in deeper water. Bennett was aboard the Bluefish with others, all using live bait and was back in port by 11:30 a.m. with limits. That was on Tuesday, the same day in the same area, but trolling with jigs and spoons, the Two Dares was also back in port at 11:30 with seven limits of nice stripers. Nadine Lessley of Dowrelio's Crockett Harbor was very enthusiastic over the swell fishing being had by the party boats from her place.

"Lots of fish taken by late trollers over the weekend," she told me. On Sunday, the Happy Days was in with limits all around by 1 p.m. On Monday the Happy Days unloaded 16 nice bass to 16 pounds trolling between the Center Pier and Oleum. At the same time the Sunfish, in the same area, netted six limits of bass in the 8-to-10 pound class. On Tuesday only four trollers showed up but they all had limits, and two private boats trolled the Center Pier area and brought in limits of dandy bass.

CONGRATULATIONS TO Gracie Quan for the two nice 10-pound stripers she landed Tuesday night trolling near the Brothers. Alice Quan mentioned that bait fishing is very slow but some nice catches have been made by trollers in the very early morning or the late evening in the Sisters sector.

So prospects look very good for weekend fishing.

Denver Invaders May Be Moved As Ticket Sales Lag

VANCOUVER, B.C. (AP)—The ticket sale designed to keep the Denver Invaders in the Western Hockey League appears to be falling short of the mark, Stafford Smythe said yesterday.

Smythe is owner of the Toronto Maple Leafs of the National Hockey League with which the Invaders are affiliated.

The WHL at its annual meeting last month gave the invaders until June 30 to sell 2,000 season tickets.

Smythe said only 700 have been sold so far and that it doesn't look as if the rest will be sold.

The WHL said if the Denver sales campaign fell short "other arrangements will be made."

Smythe said he would consider moving the club to Victoria, B.C.

By ALFRED MATSON

After a three week respite for the majority of the yacht racing fraternity, the action resumes this weekend, with a full-blown, two-day, regatta under the two-fold sponsorship of the Richmond and Berkeley yacht clubs.

That is the setup for many classes and divisions which race under the aegis of the Yacht Racing Assn. of San Francisco Bay. Boats racing in the Cruising Club and Division categorys will furnish the nautical drama tomorrow and the Classes will have to bide their time until Sunday. All starts, and finishes, will be between the Southampton Turn Buoy and the Committee Boat. Said buoy lies near mid center in the bay between Angel Island and the Berkeley shoreline and, needless to say, the spectators will be sparse.

Cruising Club "A" will head tomorrow's contingent with a 11:30 a.m. start, on Sunday it will be the International One Design class first in the line of battle with a start at 10:30 a.m.

Once again, the lads and lassie, less than 18 years old, will match wits, and tiller dexterity, for the Delmas Cup, symbolic of the Bay Junior Championship. Each yacht club may enter a team, of skipper and one crewman, and a Blue Jay class sloop. A series of races will be held tomorrow and Sunday at the Richmond Y. C. and the winning team will be presented with the Delmas Perpetual Trophy.

In commemoration of the completion of its extensive remodeling project, the Corinthian Y. C. is holding open house for all bay area yachtsmen tomorrow and Sunday.

Lightweights Vie In Video Fight Tonight

Both are aiming high. Bizzarro, rated No. 1 or No. 2 in the junior lightweight—130 pounds—class by the various rankings, is anxious for another shot at Flash Elorde's title. Narvaez, No. 7 or No. 8 in the rankings among Carlos Ortiz' contenders in the lightweight class, hopes to graduate to a championship bout.

Bizzarro has a 46-7-2 record dating back to 1958.

The 10-round match will be carried on network (ABC) television at 10 p.m., PDT.

Molina Wins Nod—Booed

OAKLAND (AP)—Junior welterweight Luis Molina of San Jose won the referee but didn't influence many people in defeating Tony Perez last night in Oakland Auditorium.

The hard-hitting Molina got the nod over Perez after a brawling 10-round scrap. But the decision was greeted by boos by most of the 2,000 paying customers.

HOT NEWS FROM DILLON'S POINT

Plug casting at Dillon's Point has revived. Suetta Lagrone of the point called Ralph Stevens, the Fishin' Fool, to enthuse over sudden improvement in plug casting.

"A number of limits of bass to 19 pounds have been taken the past few days. Get yourselves a Creek Club Pikie Minnow No. 703 and give it a go," says Suetta.

Artist Pablo Picasso spent no more than five minutes and drew only 14 lines in this sketch of William Shakespeare, but London art patron Roland Penrose values the drawing at $2,800, as a magnificent art work. The 8x10-inch sketch will be copied and enlarged to 5x4-foot size to be hung in the Shakespeare exhibition at the Bard's birthplace in Stratford-on-Avon. (AP Wirephoto)

West Marin Livestock Parade Attracts Entries

William Thompson, parade chairman again this year, reports the event is going to be at least as big and colorful as in past years, probably more so.

He is still encouraging and taking entries. Band masters, drill team captains, drum majors, owners of old cars, funny costumes and anyone else interested may call or write him at Inverness Store.

There are already five drum corps signed up, including the St. Mary's Chinese Girls' Drum Corps and the State champion Blue Devils.

There will be at least two antique fire engines and several old cars.

The 22nd Army Band of Oakland and the Tomales High School Band will be among the marchers. Also providing spirited music will be the Canadian Legion Piper Band. The Golden Knights of Richmond, the Treasure Island Drill Team and the Travis Air Force Base Drill Team will also march.

A horse-drawn hearse belonging to Frank J. Keaton will be among the many horse and horse and carriage entries.

"I figure it's about an hour long already, and the entries are still coming in," Thompson said.

THE FIRST two-story house to be built in Lucas Valley, that of the Jerry Huffs at 872 Appleberry will also be a stop on the June 13 afternoon tour to benefit the Sunny Hills Home in San Anselmo. Previewing the tour of homes and gardens are, Mrs. Lawrence G. Williams, top, and Mesdames David A. Hurd, left, and James H. Ray. "The Valley Then and Now" is the theme of the benefit event. (Independent-Journal photos by Bob Hax)

'Valley Then, Now' House Tour Theme

"The Valley Then and Now" is the theme for the house tour in Lucas Valley to be held June 13 from 3 to 5 p.m. Sponsor of the sixth annual tour is the Lucas Valley Guild of Sunny Hills.

ONE OF THE tour highlights will be the school house built in 1886, one of the oldest buildings in Lucas Valley. In 1952 it was converted into a home by the R. L. Barbers, who are the current owners.

Another home on the tour is that of the D. R. MacWilliams, whose is the first model Eichler home in the area. Next will be the Jerry Huff Eichler house, which was the first to have a second floor in the Lucas Valley area.

ALSO ON THE tour route are two of newest to be built in upper Lucas Valley, those of the J. M. Hamerens and H. A. Browns.

Tour guests are invited to enjoy refreshments in the gardens of the Wellington Glovers, while the Mannequin League of Marin presents a fashion showing.

The Marinwood Garden Club will do the flower arrangements to be set in each of the tour homes.

MRS. WELLINGTON Glover and Mrs. Richard O'Brien are chairmen for the tour, which will take a grape theme to mark the 65th anniversary of Sunny Hills home in San Anselmo.

Tickets are available from Mrs. William Lane of Lucas Valley and at each home.

By JEAN SPRAIN WILSON

NEW YORK (AP)—Until the model stepped into the New York - Christian Dior showroom in a costume hemmed at midcalf, the chic audience previewing the fall collection was relaxed and gay.

Then the buyers here for Fashion Market Week stiffened to attention. Yet this length, reminiscent of the no longer New Look length, was not meant for daytime wear and there were only a scattered few in the large collection.

IT WAS NOT even new. Designers Pauline Trigere and Vera Maxwell are proponents of this intermediate skirt length for theater and at-home wear. But one buyer shivered, saying, "I'd hate for this to happen again."

Obviously a dropped hemline in a Dior collection still has a traumatic effect, even in New York by a protege of the late Dior, Gaston Berthelet, many years after this drastic fashion change made wardrobes obselete overnight.

THE NEWS AT the preview was a diversified and sophisticated collection focused around a silhouette spare at the shoulders, eased or loosely belted at the waist, slim over the hips, and then pleated or gored jauntily at the knee.

DARK STOCKINGS or Jacquard - patterned silk ones, low-heeled walking shoes as well as snoods and byzantine-twisted dome hats that made hairdos absolutely unnecessary, were part of the daytime story.

Cost Of Getting Married Has Risen Sharply In Past Decade

By MARGERY McELHENY
United Press International

The cost of getting married has risen so sharply in the past decade that the father of the bride couldn't be blamed much for holding the ladder while daughter elopes.

By the time the bride gets ready to toss her bouquet, the average dad will be lucky to have only $800 worth of bills stacked on his desk, according to a survey of wedding costs in 10 cities by United Press International.

AND, IF THE invitation list mounts to more than the average 200 guests, dad can add a minimum of $3.00 for each additional person.

However, most people choose church weddings rather than ceremonies at city hall, the survey showed, and usually receptions are held for relatives and friends afterwards.

THE RECEPTION, including food and liquor costs, is where the real expenses mount, and any economies on weddings today are concentrated more on paring the guest list rather than cutting costs of wedding gowns, flowers or photographers.

But limiting the guest list carn be a touchy task, especially since the engaged couple's parents frequently view the wedding reception as an occasion to repay business and social obligations, and hesitate to eliminate acquaintances for fear of slighting them.

THE TOTAL cost of weddings, therefore, depends more on the type of reception given, where it is held, what kind of food and liquor are served and how many guests are invited.

Receptions held in hotels were much more costly than those held in banquet halls or large suburban restaurants.

BRIDES CONTINUE to wear the traditional white bridal gown but they are paying more money for less quality than 10 years ago, the survey showed.

A New York City bridal shop buyer said average prices ranged from $200-300. "Brides definitely are interested in fashion," the buyer said, "And for this reason are paying more for imported gowns than they used to."

A Chicago department store reported selling more gowns in the $300-500 range" but most girls spend $150 for their dresses.

Add the costs of shoes, veil, gloves and other accessories and the average bride will be wearing more than $200 worth of clothes as she walks down the aisle.

FLORAL COSTS depend on whether flowers are used to decorate the church and the reception site in addition to those used in the wedding party.

Florists in San Francisco said most couples spend $75 on flowers. A Marion, Ill., florist said he supplied $25 of flowers for most weddings 10 years ago but that the average order now is $80.

A Chicago florist said the average order was $75-$100 but that "Flowers cost up to $3,000 in very fine weddings."

A Detroit fad is to decorate cars in the wedding motorcade with artificial flowers made out of facial tissue.

Photographers costs started at $50 but the average order, including black and white candid shots, was $150. In Denver, black and white albums sold for $60 each and color for $90.

A Chicago photographer said 60 per cent of all wedding pictures were done in color today, compared to 10 years ago when almost all were in black and white.

It is still traditional in most cities for the bride's family to assume most of the costs, but the bride herself is paying for more of the wedding, the survey showed.

Brides, especially those who have been employed for several years before their marriage, often pay for the invitations, the dress and the pictures, but dad still gets stuck with the reception bills, the survey showed.

Construction Women Will Elect Officers At Meeting

The second meeting of the future chapter of Women in Construction of Marin will be held on Wednesday at 7 p.m. at Ghilotti Brothers, 525 Jacoby St., San Rafael.

Membership is open for the charter group in Marin, announces Barbara Stamper of San Rafael, who explains that it is a business organization for women actively employed in the construction industry.

A group of 25 women met for the initial meeting May 27 at Miss Stamper's home, when three members of the San Francisco chapter were on hand to answer questions about the group. They were Evelyn Hertzberg, national treasurer of the organization, Agnes Purvis and Marie Lustig, region 10 officers.

At the Wednesday meeting officers will be elected and bylaws approved.

Clark-Smith Vows Traded

At a double ring ceremony in San Anselmo at the Sleepy Hollow Presbyterian Church Ruth R. Smith became the bride of Forrest Buckley Clark of Hialeah, Fla. The bride is the mother of Mrs. Barbara Fenston of Sleepy Hollow.

The Rev. Gene W. Burris was the officiating minister at the May 23 rites. Escorted to the altar by her grandson, Steve Fenston, and daughter, Mrs. Fenston, the bride wore a light blue sheath dress.

San Rafael Bethel To Install Officers At Ceremony Sunday

Elizabeth Ann Denison, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George H. Denison of San Rafael, will be installed as honored queen of Bethel 48, International Order of Job's Daughters on Sunday at 8 p.m. in the Masonic Temple, San Rafael.

A junior at San Rafael High School, Elizabeth has served on the student congress and is a member of the choir.

Appointed officers to be installed are Jane Fairweather, outer guard; Carla Hansen, inner guard; Janita Ringchap, junior custodian; Suzzanne Leisure, senior custodian; Doris Austin, librarian; Laurel Bardleson, musician; Jean Douglas, recorder; Catherine Del Pino, treasurer; Deana Bertch, chaplain; and Sandra Miller, Ellen Ostern, Deane Bowman, Pamela Aubel and Susan Scott, messengers.

Hostess for the evening will be Jeanette Hill.

ELIZABETH DENISON

Karen Peterson, retiring honored queen, will be the installing officer. Assisting will be Prudence Parker, Wylma Black, Carolyn Weiss, Patricia Slayton, Christine Janda, Beverly Breithaupt and Dorrie Ericson.

A reception and dance will follow the ceremony. Mrs. Millicent Denison is guardian and Henry Aubel, associate guardian of Bethel 48.

Store On Top

It's best to store those clean and fluffy blankets on top of the storage stack over the summer months. If crushed, the tiny air spaces in the "nap" which retain body warmth as you lie under them will disappear and the blanket will lose its warming power.

Eight Marinites Capped At Sonoma

They include Mesdames Jack Greenfield, H. A. Woolhouse, Gerard Carney, Albert Vanbianchi, Paul Mackey, Robert Caughell, A. H. Laidlaw and Miss Margaret Niederer.

Mrs. Thomas Brown of San Rafael, Marin delegate to the North Bay Council, announced that volunteers are needed to sew garments for the hospital. Any group interested in doing the sewing may contact Mrs. Brown at the Marin American Red Cross headquarters in San Rafael.

Mt. Carmel's Club Planning Installation

Highlights of Wednesday's meeting of the Mount Carmel Women's Club in Mill Valley will be installation of officers in a candlelight ceremony and a talk by Mrs. William George Fahy.

The meeting will start at 8 p.m. in the lower meeting hall of the church.

Mrs. Fahy will show colored slides of Formosa, the home of her missionary son, the Rt. Rev. Msgr. Eugene E. Fahy, S. J., who planned and built the first Catholic church in Hsinchy.

The Rev. Francis Scanlon, assistant pastor of Our Lady of Mount Carmel Church, will also address the group.

Mrs. William Trewatha of the National Council of Catholic Women will conduct the installation ceremony.

Tea In Larkspur Tomorrow To Fete Library Volunteers

By FLORENCE DONNELLY

Mrs. Andrew R. (Bernice) Gilardi will entertain at a tea at her home on Coleman Road, Larkspur tomorrow afternoon. Bernice Gilardi is librarian of the Reed School District and the tea will honor volunteers in the Reed schools' libraries. Among those attending will be Mrs. Edward Durham of Mill Valley, library consultant for Marin County Schools, who is an instructor at the Library School at University of California.

Assisting Mrs. Gilardi at the tea will be Mrs. Anne Keller of Belvedere whose son, Gregory Keller, will play folk music during the tea. Other guests will be Mrs. E. Walter Johnson of Belvedere, library chairman for the Parents Club of Reed School District, Miss Gretchen Wulfing of Berkeley, author of numerous books on reading, who has written a number of school readers and Miss Jessie Boyd of Oakland, internationally known for her work with school libraries. In the family group at the tea will be Andrew Gilardi's aunt, Miss Irene (Rene) Tomasi.

Joan Marzell Is Engaged To Wed Richard P. Quinn

Mr. and Mrs. Sam Marzell of Novato are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Joan Angela to Richard P. Quinn, son of Capt. and Mrs. Charles B. Quinn of San Anselmo.

Joan was graduated from Novato High School, College of Marin and San Francisco State College. She has been very active in 4-H Club work in Novato. She is the sister of Kathy Marzell of Novato and is a second grade teacher at Santa Margarita School in the Dixie School District.

The future bridegroom attended Marin Catholic High School and will receive his degree in chemistry at the University of San Francisco this month. He is a member of Omicron Theta Chi and will attend Oregon State University at Corvallis in the fall on a fellowship.

Richard is the brother of Sister Mary Carol, C.S.C., a teacher in a convent in Beverly Hills, Charles, who is studying at St. Patrick's Seminary in Menlo Park, Robert, in the U. S. Navy and John of San Anselmo.

Parties Are Planned To Precede Musical Comedy Sunday Night

Several parties are being planned to precede Sunday night's "Three for the Show," musical comedy in miniature, to be presented at 7:30 p.m. at the Outdoor Art Club in Mill Valley.

Mr. and Mrs. Larry Brink have invited 24 guests to a cocktail party to be held at their home in Mill Valley from 5 to 7 p.m.

Guests of honor will be the three performers in the show and their spouses. They are Mr. and Mrs. Paul Reiter of Mill Valley (Fay Reiter), Mr. and Mrs. Art Brown of Palo Alto (Muriel Brown) and Flip Prindle of San Mateo and his wife.

Miss Laurie Pemberton, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. William Pemberton of Mill Valley will be hostess at an informal dinner party at the Pembertons' home. Her guests will include Mary Hamilton, one of the 1964 Marin debutantes, Martha Drexler and three foreign students who are attending the College of Marin. These are Marion Deckert and "Gigi" Paschko of Germany and Gro Pedersen of Norway.

A no-host social gathering at 4 p.m. culminating in a buffet dinner will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Fulkerson of San Rafael

Marin MAGAZINE

Bright reading for the whole week

Featured this Saturday:

The Marin Magazine tomorrow introduces a new series, "Your County Parks," to acquaint Marinites with the facilities available to them in their county owned and maintained parks. Tomorrow's subject — The Paradise Beach County Park. Other recreational spots in the county park system will be spotlighted in the weeks to come.

While many of us relax during the vacation months ahead, one band of young Marinites will be living under primitive conditions while performing strenuous work—without compensation other than personal satisfaction. Marin Magazine editor Don Keown reports on these young International Student Worker Corps recruits in tomorrow's I-J supplement.

Nobody laughs when 6-year-old Tommy Macfarlane of Tiburon sits down at the piano. Not when he plays Bach, Beethoven and Tchaikovski with the skill and confidence of an adult virtuoso. This piano prodigy has been amazing Marin's music lovers with his recital performances. I-J music writer Maybelle Speckman tells you about him tomorrow.

Marin's own magazine . . . picturing and reporting life in Marin today . . . personalities, recreation, coming events, book reviews, gardening, music, home improvement, weekly TV log. A week of good reading. Look for it, Saturdays.

ALMANAC

The moon is approaching its new phase. The morning stars are Jupiter and Saturn. The evening star is Venus.

On this day in history:

In 1950, the U.S. Supreme Court ruled unanimously that segregation practices in southern railroad dining cars and in two southern universities were invalid.

In 1962, an Air France 707 jet airliner crashed at Paris, killing 130, including 121 from Atlanta, Ga., on an European art study visit.

In 1963, British War Secretary John Profumo resigned after admitting he had lied to Parliament in denying "impropriety" with Christine Keeler.

TIME AND TIDE

Department of Commerce, United States Coast Geodetic Survey. Western District headquarters. Times and heights of tides at San Francisco (Golden Gate):

Don't Tell Your Partner Everything That You Know

It isn't necessary to tell your partner everything you know.

If it is dangerous to tell him the facts of life, wait until he is a little older.

Opening lead — ♣ K

West opens the king of clubs, and East can, if he chooses, begin a signal with the eight of clubs.

CLUB QUEEN

This will induce West to continue with the queen of clubs, on which East will play the four to show that he started with only two clubs.

Upon being given this information, West will surely lead a third club, permitting East to over-ruff the dummy. After this brisk beginning, however, the defense grinds to a halt. East can take only one heart trick.

If he fails to take it at once, East will get his one heart trick later but he can get nothing else. South will make the contact.

POOR SIGNAL

If the contract is made in this way East has only himself to blame. East should not begin a high-low signal in clubs when he really doesn't want a club continuation.

He should suppress the information about the doubleton in clubs.

East must play the four of clubs at the first trick, thus discouraging a club continuation. West will naturally shift to the ten of hearts, which produces three heart tricks for the defenders.

HEART TRICKS

After taking three heart tricks East can switch back to clubs, after which West can still give East the club ruff. This defense defeats the contract two tricks instead of letting South make it.

The point is that East must signal only for what he wants, not merely to give his partner useless information.

A defender must avoid playing a high card when he wants a switch rather than a continuation.

Answer: Pass.

The hand is not quite worth an opening bid despite the excellence of the club suit. There would be some excuse for opening bid despite the excellence of the club suit. There would be some excuse for opening the bidding if your long suit were spades or hearts.

PETITION FOR THE ANNEXATION OF TERRITORY TO THE RICHARDSON BAY SANITARY DISTRICT OF MARIN COUNTY, STATE OF CALIFORNIA REEDLAND WOODS UNIT I, ET AL, ANNEXATION 1963-5

To the Honorable Sanitary Board of the Richardson Bay Sanitary District of Marin County, State of California

The undersigned Petitioners respectfully represent:

That they are the owners of real property within the territory hereinafter described, which real property represents at least seventy-five per cent (75%) of the total assessed valuation of the territory as shown by the last equalized County assessment roll, and do hereby petition that all of the territory be annexed to the Richardson Bay Sanitary District, Marin County, State of California;

That the territory proposed to be annexed is not within any other sanitary district and is in the same County as the Richardson Bay Sanitary District, to-wit: County of Marin;

That the territory is contiguous to the District and that its exterior boundaries are particularly described in Exhibit "A" hereto attached and by reference made a part hereof;

That the total assessed valuation of the territory proposed to be annexed as shown by the last equalized assessment roll of the County of Marin, is $160,740.00;

That the assessed valuation of the portions thereof owned by the undersigned Petitioners as shown by said roll is set opposite their respective names and that the total assessed valuation of all portions owned by them is $157,320.00, which is at least seventy-five per cent (75%) of the total assessed valuation of the territory proposed to be annexed as shown by said roll.

WHEREFORE, Petitioners pray that the territory be annexed to said District in the manner provided in Article 3 of Chapter 9 of Part 1 of Division 6 of the Health and Safety Code of the State of California.

HOW TO KEEP WELL

By DR. THEODORE R. VAN DELLEN

VAN DELLEN

Sweating feet is a common problem during warm, humid weather. Many disregard the condition because they think relief is out of the question. Cure may be difficult but it is surprising how much can be done to keep it under control.

Dusting powder and lightweight summer shoes help but most victims have tried this simple plan with little success. These people will benefit from a new foot powder containing 2 per cent Prantal, applied twice a day. A cream containing this chemical also is available. Prantal has been used orally to inhibit sweating, but the effect is fleeting and users complain of dryness of the mouth and blurring of vision. These symptoms do not occur when the product is incorporated into a dusting powder or cream.

FOOT POWDERS containing aluminum chloride also are useful. On the other hand, an attempt should be made to determine the cause of excessive sweating.

Some sufferers are high-strung or under an emotional strain. Others have a skin eruption on the feet. Contact dermatitis, for example, may be due to one or more of the dozens of plastics and chemicals used in footwear. The possibility should be considered when redness, rash, and excessive perspiration develop shortly after wearing new shoes. Ringworm also is associated with profuse sweating and here fungicides are needed.

SWEAT, AS secreted, is odorless but it may acquire a fetid smell (bromhidrosis) as it mixes with the products of bacterial decomposition. Various micro-organisms growing on the wet skin produce punfent fatty acids and other compounds. Now and then the odor stems from food substances or chemicals that are absorbed by the blood and excreted by the sweat glands.

(Dr. Van Dellen will answer questions on medical topics if stamped, self-addressed envelope accompanies request.)

CARBON MONOXIDE

G. K. writes: Does chronic carbon monoxide poisoning leave lasting bad effect on the body?

REPLY

No. Chronic exposure does not produce chronic poisoning; it causes repeated episodes of mild acute poisoning. These intermittent day-to-day exposures are not cumulative—that is, the gas does not build up in the system and damage the brain.

SHAVING BEFORE SURGERY

B. F. writes: Does a woman's face have to be shaved before plastic surgery is started?

REPLY

Only women with beards. If face lifting is to be done, for example, it may be necessary to shave the hair line of the scalp when an incision is made in this area. The hair grows back and hides the scar.

DIZZINESS FROM ALLERGY

T. E. writes: Can various allergies cause vertigo?

REPLY

Yes, especially when the condition leads to obstruction of the eustachian tubes or swelling of the labyrinth (organ of balance) of the middle ear.

NAIL GROWTH

J. M. writes: Will applying formaldehyde to the finger nails make them longer and stronger?

REPLY

This is doubtful, even though formaldehyde is used occasionally for this purpose.

TEST THE BLOOD

M. M. writes: You say a person can have syphilis and not know it. How do you go about finding out?

REPLY

A simple blood test is all that is necessary.

Church, School Shared-Time Plan Backed

NEW YORK (AP) — The National Council of Churches, a major Protestant and Orthodox agency, has endorsed an experimental shared-time program under which Roman Catholic children attend both parochial and public schools.

The program is intended to lighten the financial burden on parents whose children attend Church-operated schools.

The council's General Board said in a policy statement yesterday the shared time program is "a viable provision for those who, for conscience sake, maintain separate schools." It is used in 300 schools in 35 states.

The statement noted that increasing costs of education had caused Roman Catholics to ask for public funds for parochial schools and that in general Protestants have opposed the request.

Leydecker Taking Trip To Mexico

Marin County Supervisor Byron W. Leydecker left Marin County for a vacation in Mexico today. He will return on June 17.

The board of supervisors is scheduled to hold a hearing on county salaries on June 15, but Leydecker said he hoped the rest of the board would delay decision until he returns.

The supervisor said he plans to spend his time at Puerto Vallarto on the west coast of Mexico. He said he chose the location partly because there are no telephones there.

Sailor To School

Blast Sends Rock Through Patio Door

A dynamite blast on a Highway 101 construction project sent a rock crashing through a patio door into a Marinwood home shortly after 11 a.m. yesterday.

At that time rocks smashed through the top part of Gazdik's fence and rolled into the yard within a few feet of Mrs. Gazdik and her three-year-old son, Johnny.

Mrs. Gezdik said she and her two children were not in the yard yesterday when the blast occurred. "We were out there earlier but we came into the house when it started to drizzle."

She said she did not receive any warning yesterday that there would be a blast. The neighbors were alerted to a blast Wednesday afternoon which did not send any rocks their way, she said.

The blasting is being conducted at the Highway 101 widening and realignment along St. Vincent's Hill by contractors Syar-Harms and Gordon H. Ball Inc.

A Novato dynamite blast for a septic tank hole in June, 1962, led to a Marin Conuty Grand Jury recommendation for proper licensing and restriction of persons doing blasting in the county.

A study of regulations was made by County Administrator Alan Bruce, after which he reported the state is responsible for control over contractors doing blasting.

Cities' Merger Squeaks Through

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—A ballot proposal calling for the merger of the cities of North Sacramento and Sacramento squeaked through by only 22 votes, a recheck of the returns showed yesterday.

Absentee ballots were to be counted.

The recheck put the official tally at 2,025 for the merger and 2,002 against it, including one absentee ballot. An earlier court had the proposed merger passing by more than 200 votes.

Redwood High Named As Brazilian Stand-In

This year in its first appearance at the conference, Redwood represented Algeria. The most important and controversial countries are assigned to schools with the best past performance, preparation, and experience, said Mrs. Marge Neubauer, American Government teacher at Redwood.

An all-time high of 1.76 billion dollars worth of property was destroyed by fire in this country in 1963.

Shaggy Dog Plagues Young Lovers

By LES DARD

TAMALPAIS THEATER

Fun is the fare in the double bill on Sunday:

"Wild and Wonderful" is a shaggy dog story, of a poodle named Monsieur Cognac. The dog is a French film star and the bread and butter of beauteous Christine Kaufman, her domineering father and her ugly uncle.

When Christine meets jazz musician Tony Curtis, the wily dog and papa join to make their romance a bumpy one—right up to and including the wedding night, where the sassy pup is an unwelcome third.

Finally Curtis solves the problem by introducing the poodle to a showgirl dog of the same breed, and thereafter M. Cognac is too preoccupied with his own love affair to interfere with others.

Co-featured is "The Dream Maker," a pleasant, lightweight British musical that ambles along a well trodden path. Tommy Steele, a young promoter in a big recording company, stoges a benefit to save an orphanage threatened by money troubles.

The story serves as a showcase for English recording artists. Its glimpses into the world of pop music-making are interesting. There are many appealing tunes, well delivered.

MOTOR MOVIES

Another returnee is "It's Only Money," in which harebrained Jerry Lewis romps as a TV repairman with a yen to be a private detective.

His first case is to uncover the heir to a fortune. It turns out to be—you guessed it—Jerry himself.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

Elizabeth Montgomery, Jill St. John and Carol Burnett are worked into the fluff.

SEQUOIA THEATER

Peter Sellers moves to Mill Valley Sunday in "The World of Henry Orient," which is made the more engaging by the pixyish presence of two teenage girls, Tippy Walker and Merrie Spaeth.

RAFAEL THEATER

The hero, of course, is Fleming's intrepid James Bond, British secret agent 007—played again by Sean Connery.

Spectre, an international crime syndicate, sets out to trap Bond. They tip the British about a Russian cipher machine in the embassy in Istanbul. For bait they supply lovely Daniela Bianchi.

Bond isn't fooled—naturally—but gambles he can get the code machine and get away, too.

101 DRIVE-IN

Reeves plays a Roman centurion sent by Caesar under the guise of an ambassador to spy on the court of the treacherous Grassus. Secretly, he also leads a revolt of slaves, in the tradition of his father, Spartacus.

Making headquarters in a desert city and disguised in his father's face-concealing helmet, he makes raids in the cause of justice.

NOVATO THEATER

"Lilies of the Field" earned Sidney Poitier his Best Actor award. He plays a wandering Negro handyman who helps a group of refugee nuns build a chapel on a desolate plot of land in Arizona.

This film's charm defies description, but don't miss it.

"Hud," the co-feature, won the Best Actress award for Patricia Neal, Best Supporting Actor for Melvyn Douglas and a nomination for its star, Paul Newman.

FAIRFAX THEATER

With us for another rich weekend is the Best Picture of 1963, "Tom Jones," bawdy comedy triumph that takes us romping back to 18th century England.

Albert Finney plays the title role of Squire Alworthy's adopted son. He is rebellious, amusing and brave—an irresistible to the ladies.

There are moments of laughter that will bring tears to your eyes.

For adults.

LARK THEATER

Strictly for adults.

ONE LEG of the triangle in Universal's Tony Curtis-Christine Kaufmann romantic comedy in color, "Wild and Wonderful," is provided by Monsieur Cognac, who is introduced through this role playing an imbibing canine jealous of his Mistress's boy friend, opening Sunday at the Tamalpais.

Larkspur's Chamber Backs Apartment Plan

Larkspur Chamber of Commerce voted yesterday to support the five-million-dollar, 12-story retirement center to be built on the south side of Bon Air Hill.

Dr. John C. Siemens, head of the developers, Valley Investment Co., described the project to chamber directors. The Larkspur City Council early yesterday granted a variance to permit the 140-foot high structure, and declared its intention to grant a use permit.

Downtown Plans Due Hub Council

Proposals for minor downtown improvements will be presented to the San Anselmo City Council Tuesday by a representative of the San Anselmo Homes Assn.

William A. Clark, chairman of the association's town center committee, said yesterday he is going to propose that the council consider action on several "immediate and relatively small' projects that will be compatible with long range plans.

The association is seeking to have the Campbell Master Plan for downtown San Anselmo carried out by the city.

Plan Is Approved

Sausalito planning commissioners Wednesday approved the tentative map of Mead Terrace, a re-subdivision of four lots to nine lots on Prospect Avenue, Chairman Robert L. Nissen said today.

Marinwood Directors Vote Landscape Delay

The board of the Marinwood Community Services District last night decided to turf the area near the community swimming pool, now under construction, but to delay other landscaping until at least fall.

The board decided to keep the community center open during the summer from 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. A tiny tot program for children 3 to 5 years old was approved, to start probably in July. Sign-up days at the center for pool memberships were changed from June 13 and 14 to June 20 and 21.

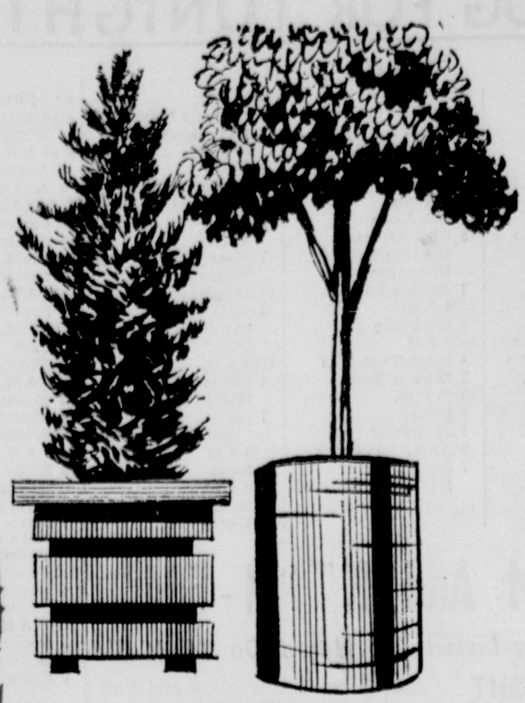
Tree Sale



These specials good thru Sunday, June 14

• SHADE TREES • FLOWERING TREES
• GROUND COVERS • ESPALIERS

FLOWERING TREES

Southern Magnolia

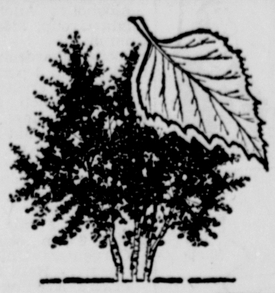
A magnificent addition to a garden. Plant as a specimen and protect from the wind. Will bear large, white, fragrant blossoms set off by the rich, dark, glossy green foliage. Prefers moist, rich, well drained soil.

Crabapple

Can be used as lawn specimen or for mass planting. Loads of blossoms make this favorite a thing of beauty in the spring. An extremely hardy, adaptable tree. Will flourish in a wide variety of conditions. Flowers range in color from white to carmine.

Flowering Japanese Plum

Graceful form, reddish-bronze leaves. In spring branches will be covered with pink or white blossoms before the leaves appear. Almost any soil condition will do. Lots of sunshine will ensure good leaf color.



SHADE TREES

European White Birch

One of the most desirable "specimen trees" for a lawn area. Light color of foliage and trunk especially effective against background of darker greens. Graceful, delicate and lacy in appearance. Upright branching with weeping side branches. Try planting as a clump (three trees in a hole) or, if you have the space, as a screen along the property line or driveway. Plant in irregular, "natural" intervals. White birch likes moist soil.

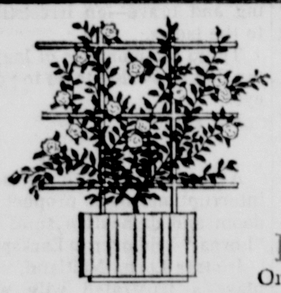
Liquidambar

(SWEET GUM)

This is the tree that provides the exciting fall display of color from yellow to deep red even in the warmest areas. A beautifully formed tree that never looks "crowded." Use as a lawn tree, a street tree—or make a tall screen or line a driveway. Likes non-alkaline, moist, rich soil. Withstands salt air extremely well.

Olive

A slow, bushy grower. Delicate grayish branches, willow-shaped leaves, dull green with a silver underside. Can be selected and trained to achieve a beautiful see-through quality. Effective on the large patio or in a small garden. Very hardy, requires no pruning and very little spraying.



Espalier

We have a wide range of espalier material. All plants are of vigorous, exhibition quality. Espalier offers a very decorative answer to the problems of today's style trends and lack of garden space. Decorate a blank wall, create a living fence, a wind baffle—redesign a patio and at the same time, enjoy flowers, fruit and beautiful decorative foliage effect.

Espalier Fruit
Oranges, lemons, limes, apples, pears.

Espalier in the Sun

Espalier in the Shade
Camellias, azaleas, star jasmine, fatshedera

Evergreen Ground Covers

Ceanothus Horizontalis

A beautiful, low growing, flowering ground cover with generally low and creeping growth habits. Deep green, glossy ½ inch leaves with silvery undersides. Bears dense clusters of blue flowers from March to May. Plant six feet apart to prevent crowding. One-gallon size .....

reg. $1.75 now. 98c
